FRANCIS ASBURY BICENTENNIAL CELEBRATION

1771 — FRANCIS ASBURY BICENTENNIAL — 1971

1971 marked the bicentenary of the arrival of Francis Asbury in America.

On September 4, 1771, a twenty-six-year-old lay preacher, one of two chosen by John Wesley, set sail for America. Studious and introspective, with a thoughtfulness tinged by melancholy, he wrote in his now famous Journal, "Whither am I going? To the new world! What to do? To gain honor? No, if I know my own heart. To get money? No, I am going to live to God and bring others so to do."

He arrived in Philadelphia on October 27, 1771, and preached his first sermon in Old St. George's on the text: "For I am determined not to know anything among you, save Jesus Christ and him crucified." For the next forty-five years he rambled America unaware that history would honor him as the "Father of American Methodism."

Asbury entered North Carolina (in the vicinity of Roanoke Rapids, Halifax County) for the first time in June, 1780. He made a total of seventy-two visits to the State. His Journal entry notes that the Tar Heels are "quite ignorant." After a week in North Carolina, he writes, "glory be to thee, O Lord, I had too mean an opinion of Carolina; it is a much better country and the people live much better than the information given me."

When Asbury came in 1771 there were fewer than one thousand Methodists in the colonies. When he died, there were 215,000. By the mid-1800's, one out of three churchmen in America was Methodist.

The national celebration commemorating the two hundredth anniversary of his arrival was held on September 3-5, 1971 at Lake Junaluska. Over five hundred official delegates were joined by another thousand Methodists for the weekend program.

On our 1971 North Carolina Conference Journal cover is the official Asbury Bicentennial medallion which was minted as a limited issue. The obverse was sculpted by John R. Sinnock, and bears simply the legend: "Francis Asbury 1745-1816"—his birth and death years. The reverse features the official insignia of the United Methodist Church—the Cross and Flame—created by Edward J. Mikula.

The medallion concept was by William K. Quick, minister of Trinity Church, Durham, who served as Chairman of the national Francis Asbury Bicentennial Commission.

As we note this historic occasion, we pose the question asked by the President of the United States at the 1925 dedication of the Asbury equestrian statue in Washington, D. C.: "Who shall say where his influence, written upon the immortal souls of men, shall end?"

The above historical statement was contributed by Reverend William K. Quick, Chairman, Conference Commission on Archives and History, and Conference Director of Public Relations and Methodist Information—(Editor).

RULES OF ORDER AND PROCEDURE FOR THE NORTH CAROLINA ANNUAL CONFERENCE OF THE UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

I. RULES OF ORDER

1. Robert's Rules of Order shall apply to any situation not covered by these Rules.
2. No member who has the floor may be interrupted except for a breach of order, a misrepresentation, to direct the attention of the Conference to the fact that time has arrived for a special order, or to raise a very urgent question of high privilege.
3. No member shall speak a second time on the same question if any member who has not yet spoken desires the floor, or more than twice on the same question under the same motion, nor longer than ten minutes unless his time shall be extended by the Conference, except as provided in Rule 4.
4. When the report of the committee is under consideration and when all have spoken who desire to do so, or when (and later) the previous question has been ordered, the chairman and/or duly authorized member or members presenting the committee's report (and the minority report if there be one) shall be entitled to speak before the vote is taken.
5. A member claiming the floor at any time for what he believes is a very urgent question of high privilege, shall be allowed to indicate briefly the nature of the question, and if it be adjudged by the chair to be such, he may proceed at his pleasure, or until the chairman judges he has exhausted his privilege.

II. VOTING PROCEDURES

1. Voting shall be by a show of hands unless otherwise ordered by the Conference. A "yea" and "nay" vote, if taken, shall be by written ballot, which result will be published in the Conference Journal. A count vote may be ordered on call of any member supported by one-fifth of the members present and voting, in which case the delegates shall rise from their seats and stand while they are counted.
2. Election of delegates to General and Jurisdictional Conferences: Only clerical members in full connection and elected and registered lay delegates may vote. (Alternate lay delegates may not vote except in the absence of the delegate and then only if they are duly registered in lieu of the delegate.) All votes must be cast in the bar of the conference as determined by the conference; votes must be cast upon the official ballots authorized by the conference; ballots shall be placed by individual delegates in ballot boxes; whereupon the bishop shall declare the balloting closed.

The official ballots furnished to the delegates shall be numbered consecutively and no vote shall be valid unless cast upon the ballot bearing the number designated by the presiding officer for such particular balloting. In the event a ballot is defaced, it may be exchanged at the secretary's desk for another ballot bearing the same number. Ballots furnished to lay delegates shall be different in color from those furnished to clerical delegates.

Alphabetical Roll — Conference Directory — 1971-72

NOTE: Information for the Conference Directory derives principally from two sources: from the preachers themselves on the cards provided them and filed with the Conference Secretary, and from District Directories furnished the Conference Secretary by the Superintendents. However, each preacher is personally responsible for the correct reporting of his own address.

The Call to Confession

The Prayer of the Participant's Confession (In Unison)

Gracious Father, You who are always willing to use us in spite of of our faithlessness, we confess that while we have been chosen to be men's servants, we have tried to be their masters. Our Lord has given us a pattern for poured-out life, but we crave the successes, honors, and statistics which star us in bright lights, or lofty pulpits. We have received a commission to be witnesses to the end of the earth, but in self-interest we devote our time to oil-ing the machinery of our own organization and pet projects. We pretend we are exceptions to humanity and hide behind excuses. We have closed our eyes to the prophetic signs of our times. We lack the conscience that should accompany our Christian profession.

Forgive us, O Lord, and deliver us from our living death. Give us the courage to accept the pain of new birth, that we may be renewed and healed from all our brokenness. In Christ's name we plead. Amen.

The Prayer of the Participant's Confession (In Unison)

Our Father, we come knowing that we have failed in so many ways. Sometimes we have tried to hide from you, from one another, and even from ourselves. There have been times when we have drawn back from the right because it was a difficult, crucifying experience. Too often in our churches we have involved ourselves in a meaningless round of activities that lead nowhere and do not bring satisfaction. In our personal lives we have strayed from the fullness of life that you have made possible for us. Forgive us for our self-centeredness, our weakness, and give us the courage to accept the pain of complete commitment which brings new birth and healing of our brokenness. In the name of Jesus, who makes it possible. Amen.

JEFFERSON McCALLUM

Jefferson McCallum, son of P. Jefferson and Jackie Anne Anderson McCallum, was born December 15, 1900, in Robeson County, North Carolina. He attended the Robeson County Schools and Claflin College, Orangeburg, South Carolina.

He was converted at an early age and joined Salem United Methodist Church, Rowland. Answering the call to the ministry, he further prepared for this call by attending Morgan College, Baltimore Maryland. He served as pastor in the Washington Conference the following charges: Liberty Charge, Fairview Charge, both in Maryland; Shepherdstown, West Virginia; and in the North Carolina-Virginia Conference: Maxton Circuit, and finally the Hamilton Charge in Virginia. After retiring from the active pastorate, he continued to serve in his home charge and to assist wherever he could as long as his health permitted.

He departed this life August 18, 1970 at his home in Maxton, leaving to mourn their loss: his wife, Mrs. Mary Douglass McCallum; a daughter, Mrs. Helen Pompey of Bronx, New York; four sisters, Mrs. Lora Townsend of High Point; Mrs. Maggie Gardner of Clayton; Mrs. Fannie Parry of East Orange, New Jersey, and Mrs. Inez Chavis of Spring Lake; three brothers, Marshall of Shelby; John of Denver, Colorado, and James of Raleigh; and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were conducted by the Reverends G. S. Eubank, J. W. Gamble, S. L. Townsend, O. M. Graham, W. F. Elliott, J. H. Shiver, and S. T. Gillespie. Burial was in Salem Church Cemetery with the Masonic rites by the Stoke Hill Lodge.

ROBERT LEE VICKERY

Robert Lee Vickery, son of the Reverend and Mrs. W. J. Vickery, was born in Franklin County, Georgia, March 31, 1899. He passed away on August 25, 1970 at his home in Hamlet, N. C. The funeral service was conducted by the writer and Dr. T. B. Hough at the First United Methodist Church, Rockingham, on August 28, 1970, and he was laid to rest in Richmond Memorial Park, Rockingham.

He was married to the former Miss Willie B. Black who died in 1938. He is survived by two sons in the ministry, Rev. Thurman H. Vickery, district superintendent of the Rock Hill (S. C.) District; Rev. Robert L. Vickery, Jr., chaplain, U. S. Army, now serving in Vietnam; Lowell W. Vickery, Grand Rapids, Mich.; two daughters, Mrs. Willie Mae Huffman, Hope Mills, and Miss Martha Ann Vickery, Laurinburg; eighteen grandchildren; two brothers, Ernest D. Vickery, Tucker, Ga., and Luther W. Vickery, Daytona Beach, Fla., and one sister, Mrs. Fannie Glenn, Carnesville, Ga.

Brother Vickery entered the Methodist ministry in 1930 and was appointed to Draper. Other appointments were: Littleton, Easley (S. C.); Albemarle, Danville, Va., Pee Dee, Rockingham; White Oak, and Grimesland.

He retired in 1943 due to failing health, but later served as retired supply at Granite Falls, Old Hundred, Community and Grace, Rockingham.

I have known Brother Vickery across the years and found him always to be a gentle, gracious person. He had a love for people and an abiding concern for their spiritual welfare. Soon after moving to Sanford I visited him at his home in Hamlet and found him working in his garden. He was surprised and pleased to see me and remarked, "I didn't think you would come to see me since I do not have a charge." My reply was, "You are a member of the district team and I need your love and prayers for me and for the pastors who still bear the burden of responsibility." It was while working in that garden a few weeks later that God called him to his eternal home. It is there that we can find him.

"There's a land that is fairer than day,
And by faith we can see it afar;
For the Father waits over the way,
To prepare us a dwelling place there.

"We shall sing on that beautiful shore
The melodious songs of the blest,
And our spirits shall sorrow no more,
Not a sigh for the blessing of rest.

"To our bountiful Father above,
We will offer our tribute of praise,
For the glorious gift of his love,
And the blessings that hallow our days.

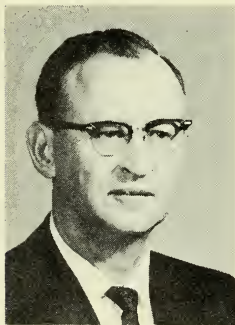

"In the sweet by and by,
We shall meet on that beautiful shore.
In the sweet by and by,

HERMAN NATHAN WARD, SR.

Herman Nathan Ward, Sr. was born near Whiteville, North Carolina, Columbus County, on December 24, 1919. He was married to the former Margaret Watkins. From this union was born the Reverend Herman Nathan Ward, Jr., Minister of Hillsborough United Methodist Church. In addition to his wife and son, Brother Ward is survived by one granddaughter. He passed away on September 8, 1970 in Whiteville, North Carolina. Burial was at the Watkins-Ward family cemetery near his home. The funeral services were conducted from Wesley's Chapel United Methodist Church, Columbus County, of which he was Minister, by the Reverend Clyde G. McCarver and the Reverend C. D. Barclift.

Brother Ward served faithfully and efficiently in the North Carolina Annual Conference for 20 years. His pastorates were: Council, Bolton, Roanoke Circuit, and Wesley's Chapel. His entire ministry was characterized by a love for people, a desire to share the joys and sorrows of his members, and a great support of the total program of his Conference. Herman had the very unusual quality of faith in his fellowmen. Though he was called to hard tasks at times, he never complained for his lot in life. He constantly expressed a great gratitude for the privilege of serving. He was never tired of trying to improve the charges to which he was assigned. He was greatly loved by those who were privileged to share his love and life. Though often sick, his philosophy was "There are a few more things which I want to do for the Church." He literally served until the last moment of his life. At that moment he was preparing to make the work of his successor easier—knowing that he must take a leave of absence due to a heart condition.

We are inspired by his unpretentious life. When life dealt him all that it could and death came suddenly, Herman knew "I cannot drift beyond His love and care."

Well done, good and faithful servant!

WALTER RUSSELL JOHNSON

1912 - 1970

Walter Russell Johnson was born January 9, 1912 in Alamance County, near Burlington, North Carolina, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Johnson. He lived there throughout his youth, and graduated from Elon College High School.

He was married September 27, 1935 to a lovely girl from the same community, Mollie Smith, who proved to be a loyal wife and loving mother to their five children, and a source of much inspiration during his ministry.

Becoming God's full-time servant wasn't easy for Brother Russell, as he was married and had four children, when he finally completely surrendered. He was employed, in the Piedmont section known for its various industrial plants, as a delicate machine operator, earning a high salary for the times. This he sacrificed to answer the call to the ministry, knowing also he would have to leave his home, friends, and relatives to go where the conference sent him.

Realizing his need for more education, he entered Elon College. He was appointed to the Seven Springs Church and later transferred to Atlantic Christian College in Wilson, North Carolina, and graduated with high honors. He was then sent to the Gaston charge, and was able to attend Duke Supply School for pastors.

Rev. Johnson joined the North Carolina Methodist Conference in 1951, serving the following churches: Seven Springs, Robersonville, Gaston, Swansboro, Roberdel, Park-ton, Riverside in New Bern, Biscoe, and Mt. Hermon.

I personally knew Russell Johnson for many years, but he was my pastor for his last five and one-half years. All who knew him had much respect for his wisdom and his uncompromising obedience to the purpose God called him, to preach the gospel, the word of God. In his meek manner, he often prayed, "Now let us hear what the scripture has to say through this humble servant."

Rev. Johnson was especially loved by the senior citizens of the communities he served, as he had a unique dedicated manner in expressing his love to them as he ministered among them.

Rev. Johnson was appointed to Mt. Hermon Methodist Church, located in his native county, Alamance, in 1965. His first illness was a mild heart attack in March of 1969, followed by a severe one in August 1970. He had been released from the hospital, and was recuperating at the parsonage, when the Lord saw fit to call him home the night before Thanksgiving. Truly he entered into glory with praise on his lips and gratitude in his heart for the Lord that he had so faithfully served.

Rev. Johnson had great faith in his Lord, as he witnessed to friends, even on the last Sunday he attended services before his passing. It could well be said of him, as of Job of the Old Testament, "I know my Redeemer liveth."

Rev. Johnson passed away on November 26, 1970. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mollie Smith Johnson; two daughters, Donna and Nina of Greensboro; three sons, Millard of Greensboro, Steven of Charlotte, and Kenneth of the home; one grandchild, and a host of friends throughout eastern North Carolina where he had preached the gospel.

The funeral service was conducted at Mt. Hermon United Methodist Church by Dr. Edgar B. Fisher, his District Superintendent and very close friend. Dr. Fisher closed the service by reading one of Rev. Johnson's favorite poems, "Crossing the Bar," by Alfred Lord Tennyson, which so ably described the life he lived here on earth and what he knew was waiting for him across the bar. Interment took place in Pine Hill Cemetery in Burlington, N. C.

N. GLENN HOBBY

PAUL MCKINLEY PORTER1889 - 1971

Paul McKinley Porter was born April 2, 1889 in Bryan County, Ohio. Upon reaching maturity he prepared himself in the field of engineering, and worked in municipal water plants in several areas. He was an active layman in his local church wherever he lived. In 1942 he received his local preacher's license, and in 1946, while living in Henderson, he entered the full-time Methodist ministry. His first appointment was the Kinna-keet Charge in the Elizabeth City District, where he served for eight years. In 1954 Brother Porter was appointed to the Chowan Charge in the same district, where he served three years before retiring. During the years of active service the churches of the charges served showed growth in all areas of work. Upon retirement, he and Mrs. Porter established residence in Hertford, where they were living at the time of his death.

Brother Porter died February 1, 1971, at his home after a terminal illness of five years. In those years of illness he was never heard to complain or show bitterness. Instead, he witnessed his faith in God and his full devotion to Christ and his Church. His name could well be added to the list of the faithful as recorded in Hebrews 11. The people of Hertford and surrounding area have maintained abiding concern and love for this retired parsonage couple.

Mrs. Porter, who was a great helpmate in the ministry and in retirement, survives. He is also survived by three sons, Joseph of Norfolk, Raymond of Durham, and Ralph of Henderson, and a stepdaughter, Mrs. Lindy Hooper of Chesapeake, Va.

Funeral services were conducted from the First United Methodist Church in Hertford on February 3, 1971 at 2:00 p.m. by the Reverend G. R. McKenzie, superintendent of the Elizabeth City District. He was assisted by the writer and the Reverend Waldo Smith, pastor of the Up River Friends Meeting, Belvidere, N. C. Interment was in Cedarwood Cemetery, Hertford.

C. J. ANDREWS

LINWOOD FLEMING HARRIS1894 - 1971

Reverend Linwood Fleming Harris, son of Fleming and Josephine Harris, was born December 23, 1894, 115 miles south of Washington, D. C., in Henrico County, Richmond, Virginia. Death came on February 11, 1971, at Prince Georges Hospital, Cheverly, Maryland. Funeral services were conducted by the Reverend Thomas Stewart, on February 15, 1971, in the chapel of the Colonial Williamsburg Funerary Home, Suitland, Maryland. Reverend Harris' remains were laid to rest in the Riverview Cemetery, Richmond, Virginia.

Having received the call to preach at an early age, Linwood finally joined the Virginia Conference, and later the North Carolina Conference. The last church at which he served was in the New Bern District, Reverend Grady Dawson, Superintendent. It was there he retired, after having a stroke which affected his speech.

As a minister, Linwood was truly a workman who needed not to be ashamed, for he loved to preach the Word of God. He was active in church work to the very end. He often spoke of the sweetest hours he had ever spent as being those which he had spent in the service of God. Christ is mine and I am His.

Reverend Harris leaves to mourn a loving wife, Eula V. Harris, his loved ones, and a host of friends and relatives who will cherish his memory until they meet again in the Land where we never grow old.

Reverend Harris' favorite hymn was "How Great Thou Art," which he used many times as a solo:

O Lord my God! When I in awesome wonder
Consider all the worlds Thy hands have made,
I see the stars, I hear the rolling thunder,
Thy pow'r throughout the universe displayed.

When through the woods and forest glade I wander
And hear the birds sing sweetly in the trees;
When I look down from lofty mountain grandeur
And hear the brook and feel the gentle breeze.

And when I think that God, His Son not sparing, Sent Him to die, I scarce can take it in;
That on the cross, my burden gladly bearing,
He bled and died to take away my sin.

When Christ shall come with shout of acclamation,
And take me home, what joy shall fill my heart!
Then I shall bow in humble adoration,
And there proclaim, my God, how great Thou art!

CHORUS:

Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee;
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!
Then sings my soul, my Savior God to Thee;
How great Thou art, how great Thou art!

EULA V. HARRIS (wife)

ROBERT NICHOLSON FITTS

1881 - 1971

Robert Nicholson Fitts, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Collins Fitts, was born October 27, 1881, in Warren County, North Carolina. He passed away February 16, 1971, at Oxford, North Carolina, where he had lived since retirement. Funeral services were conducted from the Oxford United Methodist Church by the Reverends J. D. Young, M. R. Gardner and R. L. Crossno. Burial was in Warrenton, North Carolina.

Survivors include his wife, the former Emma Jane Jolly, to whom he was married December 17, 1913; and four daughters: Mrs. Clifton Noble and Mrs. C. L. Humphrey, both of Dover, North Carolina; Mrs. Haywood Marshall of Bethesda, Maryland; and Mrs. Geddes R. Knight of Oxford, North Carolina; thirteen grandchildren and two great-grandchildren. Also surviving is one sister, Mrs. Annie Lamm of Warrenton, North Carolina.

Brother Fitts was educated in the Durham City Schools and was a member of the Class of 1911, Trinity College.

He served as a supply pastor for a number of years and was admitted to the North Carolina Conference at Durham in 1933. His first charge was Swan Quarter, serving as a supply pastor. In succeeding years he served the following: Hallsboro, Scott's Hill, Shallotte, Kinnakeet, Mann's Harbor, Ocracoke, Robersonville, Dover, Creswell, Stonewall, Seven Springs, Marshallberg and the Oxford Circuit.

In 1952 he retired from the ministry with thirty-nine years of faithful and fruitful service. He served three additional years on the Oxford Circuit.

Brother Fitts loved the Lord and found great joy in serving Him. He loved the Methodist Church and accepted each appointment with gratitude for the privilege of serving as a minister of Christ. He considered the Bible the greatest book ever written and was convinced that all sermons must contain its wonderful teaching. He proclaimed the gospel message with enthusiasm and love. The people he served loved and appreciated him. Many a home was blessed, many a life was changed and many were won for Christ and His Church by this wonderful man of God.

Those who have been co-workers with him in the vineyard rejoice that we have had the privilege of laboring together. We know the same directing love that called him into the ministry and used him to win many for Christ will direct those who still labor to remember him with grateful hearts. We praise God that another great victory has been won.

JOHN CALVIN HARMON

1876 - 1971

John Calvin Harmon was born in Cleveland County, near Kings Mountain, North Carolina, March 27, 1876. He died March 15, 1971 at The Methodist Retirement Home, Durham, North Carolina, at age 94.

After graduating from Oakland High School, his higher education was received at Wofford College, Spartanburg, South Carolina, and Vanderbilt University, Nashville, Tennessee.

The license to preach was granted him in 1904. He was admitted on trial into the Western North Carolina Conference in 1907 at Salisbury; ordained deacon in 1909; and received into full connection and ordained elder in 1911. He retired in 1943 but continued preaching in retirement for several more years. After his last appointment he moved to Raleigh in 1953 where he lived until he entered the Retirement Home in 1961.

Over a period of 47 years (1906-1953) he preached at the following places: Western North Carolina Conference—Gastonia, Nashville, Tennessee (pastor at two separate appointments of two years each while attending Vanderbilt University), Waketown, Mt. Holly, Asheville, Henrietta-Caroleen; Upper South Carolina Conference—Piedmont; North Carolina Conference—Swan Quarter, Grimesland, Council-Carvers Creek, Maysville-Pollockville, Shallotte, Leland, Town Creek, Kitty Hawk, Creswell, Bath, Stumpy Point, Gloucester-Straits, and Mattamuskeet-Engelhard.

He received a good Christian heritage from his forbears. A brief history of El Bethel Church, founded in 1812 near Kings Mountain, states that "the preachers and congregation were known as Methodist and they abandoned a superfluity of dress, gold, silver, and costly array. 'They chose to be little and unknown, prized and loved by God alone.'" It was out of this beginning that Mrs. Robert (Nancy Ann) Harmon brought into this world John Calvin Harmon and nurtured him in an atmosphere of Christian love. His grandfather, for whom he was named, was an early founding member of the El Bethel Church.

Brother Harmon was a gifted preacher of God's Word and the people to whom he was appointed heard him gladly. He had a shepherd's heart of care and concern for his parishioners. Among many other virtues his life was characterized by steadfastness in service, kindness in life's relationships, unusual gratitude, unfailing graciousness, sincere humility, genuine unselfishness, and monumental patience.

On September 16, 1908, he married Miss Stella Norris, who shared fully and faithfully in her husband's ministry until her death on May 7, 1956.

His funeral service was conducted at Howerton-Bryan Funeral Chapel, Durham, by Chancie D. Barclift, Superintendent, Durham District, and Joseph F. Coble, Superintendent, The Methodist Retirement Home, Durham, and he was buried beside his wife in the cemetery at Apex, North Carolina, March 17, 1971.

He is survived by a son, John C. Harmon, Jr., Annandale, Virginia; a daughter, Mrs.

Richard L. (Emma) Cromartie, Jr., Deerfield, Illinois; several grandchildren, and a brother, North Harmon, Kings Mountain.

At the end of his long, faithful, and fruitful life, a stanza from John B. Dykes' appealing hymn seems appropriate:

Now the laborer's task is o'er;
Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now Thy servant sleeping.

CHANCIE D. BARCLIFT

PAUL HENRY FIELDS

1899 - 1971

Paul Henry Fields was born at Carthage, in Moore County, February 1, 1899, and died April 7, 1971 while on a visit to the Veterans' Office in Winston-Salem.

He received his early education in the public schools of Carthage, and in 1923 he enrolled at Trinity College, now Duke University, and graduated with honors in 1927. Shortly after graduation he joined the North Carolina Conference where he served faithfully and effectively until retirement except for a period of service as a chaplain in World War II.

In 1920 he married Anna Bell Morris, and to this union was born three children: Paul H. Fields, Jr., Ann Fields Rouse, and Joseph B. Fields.

It was my privilege and joy to know Paul Fields for more than forty years. From the beginning we had one of those rare relationships of likemindedness, and a sense of having known each other for years.

When I think of Paul, I think of him as tall—he was tall physically, mentally, and spiritually. I always looked up to him because of his physical height, but still more because of his brilliance of mind, and the height of his spiritual attainment. Yet, with it all, a spirit of genuine humility characterized his life.

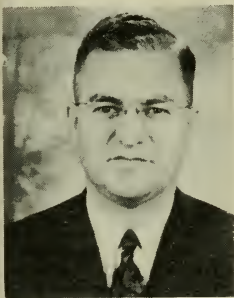

He possessed many of the attributes of the born minister: rugged integrity, high ideals, love of people, and deep insight into human nature. He had a rare combination of intelligence, originality, consecration, friendliness, and wholesome humor.

The most vivid memory, I think I will carry into the future will be that of the easy, effortless smile he wore perpetually—the soft winning smile of an obviously happy and serene man.

Paul was a man of faith. His faith was not superficial or unfounded, but for him a matter of life and death. Dedicated to his calling as a minister, he loved his Lord, and through his preaching and the life he lived, gave strong testimony to his faith. When one has great faith in his heart, you can see it in one's dedication, in one's concern for others, and in the exemplary conduct of one's life. He never wanted to do anything that would weaken his influence, destroy his usefulness, or make less effective his witness.

Paul was a man of deeds—good deeds. When I think of him I think of the service he gave so unselfishly. He rarely turned down an opportunity to preach. How often he filled in for me at Calvary United Methodist Church, and our people never tired of him. He also gave many years of service after his retirement, as the Secretary-Treasurer of the Greensboro Methodist Ministers' Fellowship. The minutes he kept were written with such skill and humor that the minutes of the meetings were often enjoyed more than the meeting itself.

Paul was a great humanitarian. He carried with him wherever he went a spirit of love and good will. He loved people, all sorts of people, and showed such kindness and consideration in dealing with them. Many times he called me to ask if I thought a certain action would be the right one to take, thereby revealing a high regard for the feelings of others.

He had as little race prejudice as anyone that I have known. He loved his black brothers in the ministry, and opened his heart to them. Yes, he had a love that endured, and a kindness that attracted us all to him. Throughout his life he found causes to be served, commitments to be made, and purposes to which he could, and did, give his best.

It has been said that, "He has achieved greatness who has lived well, laughed often, and loved much; who has always looked for the best in others and given the best that he had." I believe our friend has met that standard. It was said of him, "He was one of the most beautiful Christians I have known." We loved him for his genuineness, his sincerity, his devotion to God and every good cause. Could it not be fittingly said of him, "Well done, good and faithful servant, enter thou into the joy of the Lord?"

The funeral service was held in College Place United Methodist Church on Friday, April 9, with Rev. Bernard Hurley in charge of the service, assisted by Dr. Julian A. Lindsey, superintendent of the Greensboro District, and the writer of this memoir. His body was laid to rest in Westminster Gardens, Greensboro, North Carolina.

1903 - 1971

Virgil Nathaniel Moore, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Israel Moore, was born June 20, 1903 in Wilkesboro, North Carolina. As a boy he lived in Hickory and was graduated from Hickory High School. He received his B.A. and M.A. degrees from the George Peabody College, Nashville, Tennessee, and his B.D. degree from Anderson College and Theological Seminary, Anderson, Indiana. He served pastorates in the Church of God for several years.

During World War II, Virgil served as a U. S. Army Chaplain in the Pacific Area and in 1946 was discharged with the rank of Lieutenant Colonel.

Virgil was received as an Elder in the North Carolina Conference in 1958 and was admitted into Full Connection in 1962 where he faithfully served the following charges: Camp Glen, Woodington-Webb, Beech Grove, Seven Springs, Elm Street-Falling Creek, Turkey, and Aulander.

While visiting a sister in Kernersville, he suffered a heart attack on Palm Sunday and was taken to Forsyth Memorial Hospital in Winston-Salem where he died the following Saturday night, April 10. Funeral services were conducted in Kernersville by Millard Knapp and burial was in Pineview Cemetery at Seven Springs, where Jesse Staton and Richard Hill officiated.

Survivors include his wife, Marie Moore; a daughter, Mrs. Jane Mervin of Seven Springs; three sisters, Mrs. Matilda Carswell of Newton, Mrs. Thelma Montigny of Dallas, Texas, and Mrs. Frank McCain of Kernersville; two brothers, O. C. and W. F. Moore of Hickory, and a grandson.

At the early age of sixteen, Virgil responded to what he felt was a definite call from God to the Christian ministry, preaching as a boy evangelist. He was trained as a preacher and a teacher and served in the public schools for a number of years.

Many times in these last years, he was heard to say, "I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

Servant of God, well done!
Thy glorious warfare's past;
The battle's fought, the race is won,
And thou art crowned at last.

With saints enthroned on high,
Thou dost thy Lord proclaim,
And still to God salvation cry,
Salvation to the Lamb!

G. R. MCKENZIE

EDWARD MORTON McLEOD

1880 - 1971

The Reverend Edward Morton McLeod, son of the late Mr. Charlie McLeod and Mrs. Sarah Fletcher McLeod, was born in Richmond County, North Carolina. He departed this life May 11, 1971, at his home in Laurinburg, North Carolina.

He was educated in the public schools of Richmond County and Claflin College, Orangeburg, South Carolina.

At an early age he professed faith in Christ and united with the Cool Springs Methodist Episcopal Church.

He was united in holy wedlock with Miss Hattie Gibson, and to this union one daughter was born.

Later in life Ed, as we called him, felt the call to the Christian ministry, and gave himself unreservedly to the cause of Christ. No one, whose privilege it was to know him, is likely to forget the candor of his speech, the courage of his faith, the warm and glowing brightness of his friendship. He never dodged a responsibility, never refused to take on a hard job if it needed to be done. What he preached, he practiced. What he believed, he believed with heart and soul. He fought hard for every cause in which he enlisted, and the causes for which he fought were good and right.

He served the following churches: Bullock and Creedmoor, Catawba, Lowesville, Wall Chapel, Mt. Zion, Leaks-ville, Piney Grove, Bolton, St. James, Shelby, Brooks, Ramseur, and McPelah.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Hattie G. McLeod; one daughter, Mrs. Edna Gleaves, of Laurinburg, N. C.; four grandchildren; eight great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Gertrude Gibson of Laurinburg, N. C.; and a host of nieces, nephews, and other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were conducted at the Cool Springs United Methodist Church in Scotland County, by Reverend O. M. Graham and Rev. S. L. Townsend, May 15, 1971.

Rest for the toiling hand
Rest for the anxious brow
Rest for the weary way-sore feet
Rest from all labor now.

At midnight came the cry
To meet thy God prepare
He woke and caught the captain's eye
Then strong in faith and prayer.

Soldier of Christ, well done!
Praise be thy new employ,
And while eternal ages run
Rest in thy Saviour's joy.

LEON CRAWFORD LARKIN

1894 - 1971

Leon Crawford Larkin, the fourth child of Mr. and Mrs. James Vann Larkin, of Carthage, North Carolina, was born on July 20, 1894.

After completing his secondary training at Carthage High School, he attended and graduated from Trinity College.

Leon was admitted to the ministry of The Methodist Church in the 1918 session of the North Carolina Conference, meeting in Goldsboro.

On May 14, 1919, he and Fannie Hatch of Sanford were united in marriage in the Steele Street Methodist Church of that city.

During the first World War he served his country as a YMCA Secretary. During his pastoral ministry he served the following churches: Williamston; Murfreesboro; St. James, Tarboro; Branson, Durham; Trinity, Wilmington; Steele Street, Sanford; Centenary, New Bern; Superintendent of the Rocky Mount District; Front Street, Burlington; Superintendent of the Methodist Home for Children; First Church, Roanoke Rapids; and Mt. Gilead.

In 1960 after more than forty years of outstanding leadership in his Conference, having served in many capacities, he retired and moved to his home at Lake Junaluska, North Carolina. Though retired, his life for the eight years following was anything but that of retirement, for he served so well on various charges in Haywood County of the Western North Carolina Conference that the name of Leon Larkin was known far and near, and all who knew him loved him.

Whether in the east or the west, north or south, no man has walked among us who was more kind, more gentle, more unselfish or more dedicated to the will of his Heavenly Father.

After a short illness he passed away in the Haywood County Hospital in Waynesville on Sunday, May 30. Surviving besides his companion of more than fifty years are his daughter, Mrs. Hugh B. Stokes, Jr., and two grandsons, Hugh B. Stokes, III and Leon Larkin Stokes of Greensboro. Also surviving are three foster daughters, Mesdames W. B. Pittman and George Clark of Anaheim, California, and Miss Joyce Muslewhite of Durham.

Funeral services were conducted by the Reverends N. W. Grant, M. W. Lawrence, and R. W. Ponder in Steele Street Church of Sanford, the place of his marriage more than fifty years before, with four of the pallbearers having served as ushers in his wedding. Burial followed in Buffalo Cemetery in Sanford.

A quotation from the remarks which were given in the Memorial Service seems to sum up this life which has meant so much to so many. Wrote William Shakespeare in the play Julius Caesar, "His life was gentle; and the elements so mixed in him, that nature might stand up and say to all the world, 'This was a man.'"

NICHOLAS W. GRANT

MRS. ROSA MAE WARREN MYERS

1896 - 1970

Mrs. Rosa Mae Warren Myers, daughter of Charles David Warren and Martha Ann Scarlett Warren, was born near Pleasant Green Methodist Church in Orange County, North Carolina, August 26, 1896. In her infancy the family moved to Durham, where she continued to live until her death. Her father died on July 25, 1898, leaving a family of six children, of which Rosa was the youngest. Her mother kept the family together and managed to complete payment for the home, provided necessities for the children, and always managed to share with others. Her admonition to her children was: "Keep your character clean and you will have no need to apologize to anyone for lack of material things." In later life Rosa said, "My mother was my ideal. I have tried to be like her; I have not succeeded, but I have tried."

Rosa's formal education was in the city schools of Durham, Trinity College, and the Southern Conservatory of Music, from which she was graduated in 1917. Her musical education was continued at the American Conservatory in Chicago, Illinois, graduating from there in June 1919. Rather than pursue a professional career in voice, as Mr. B. N. Duke encouraged her to do—by offering to sponsor her in an audition for the Metropolitan in New York—she elected to return to West Durham to engage in community work. A girlhood contemporary and life-long friend was the source of much of the information in the paragraph which follows.

"I am sure that her memory lingers in the minds and hearts of all who knew her and their appreciation of her will remain throughout life. Rosa Mae Warren organized a Community Club which used the Erwin Auditorium as a center for its activities. She taught music and voice; staged plays with them and for them; taught group singing, ceramics, sewing, painting, art, and basket weaving, all of which resulted in making the West Durham community one of the cleanest and most livable cotton mill communities in the South during this period."

In conjunction with her other activities, her talents found expression in the promotion of the library that was a part of the facilities of the Erwin Auditorium. She voluntarily assumed the arduous task of reading all the books acquired by the library, to assure that only the best literature would be available. In this practice of reading selectively she utilized the competent staff members and materials of the Duke University and Durham libraries.

She was the first soloist in Durham who received professional training from recognized schools of voice and piano, referred to above. She enriched the services of the churches in the city with her wonderful voice. She was often called upon to sing at civic clubs, weddings and funerals, and always responded gladly. Upon invitation of the administration of Trinity College, she created a choir for commencement exercises and served in the capacity of director for several years.

In 1932 she was instrumental, with five other women, in forming the Friday Morning Music Study Club. These six women constituted the charter members of the club, whose name was suggested by Rosa Mae. Upon her death, the club held a brief memorial service, and she was designated as one of the "most loved and valuable members."

On October 12, 1926 Rosa Mae Warren was united in marriage to Hiram Earl Myers, who had served as pastor at Duke Memorial Methodist Church in Durham, 1923-1925. Following his pastorate at Duke Memorial, Dr. Myers accepted the invitation of President W. P. Few to become a member of the faculty of Trinity College, now Duke University. The marriage was solemnized at Pleasant Green Methodist Church. To this union was born a daughter, Martha Rose, now Mrs. Norris O. Anderson, Jr.

The years of this wife, mother, and dear companion of forty-four years were not free from sickness and suffering. Successive accidental falls in 1932 and 1934 resulted in a spinal injury, which necessitated the wearing of supporting aluminum braces for the rest of her life. In spite of this affliction, she continued to "give her best" in choir, church, campus, and home activities, with never any mention of personal physical discomforts.

On April 13, 1960 she suffered a coronary thrombosis and underwent hospitalization at Duke Hospital until May 16. In later years, in November 1969 and again on February 28, 1970, she suffered physically disabling strokes, which again required hospitalization. On April 2, on the recommendation of her family physician, Dr. J. P. McCracken, she entered a Convalescent Center in Durham, where she remained until her homegoing which came at 10:43 on the morning of July 30, 1970.

Funeral service was conducted by the pastor of Duke Memorial, the Reverend Warren B. Petteway. Interment took place in the family plot in Maplewood Cemetery in Durham. She is survived by her husband, Dr. H. E. Myers, retired Methodist minister of Durham; a daughter, Mrs. Norris O. Anderson, Jr.; three grandchildren, Martha Christina, Kathryn Rose, and Sarah Elizabeth Anderson; and two sisters, Mrs. G. E. Montgomery and Mrs. H. F. Smith.

One can truly say, as they think of Rosa Mae Myers, "Blessed are the dead who die in the Lord, for they rest from their labors and their works do follow them." The beauty of her character and the purity of her soul are reflected in a poem by Edwin Markham, a yellowed copy of which was posted on the mirror of the dresser in her bedroom, where she placed "things to be remembered."

AS WE GO THROUGH LIFE

Teach me, Father, how to go
Softly as the grasses grow:
Hush my soul to meet the shock
Of the wild world as a rock:
Teach me, Father, how to be kind
Kind and patient as a tree,
Let me also cheer a spot,
Hidden field or garden grot—
Place where passing souls can rest
On their way to be their best.

On her mirror, beneath the above quotation, is a fresher copy of these lines from Ralph Waldo Emerson:

"All I have seen teaches me to trust the Creator for all that I have not seen."

The copy of the Bible on the stand near her bed has portions marked with slips of paper in her own handwriting, all indicating passages of which she was very fond.

On a Sunday in the late weeks of Rosa's illness when we were listening by transistor radio to an eleven o'clock service, she asked me the source of the words, "Pilgrim in barren land." Getting the hymnal on her piano, I found and read the words:

"Guide me, O Thou great Jehovah,
Pilgrim through this barren land;
I am weak, but Thou art mighty;
Hold me with Thy powerful hand;
Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven,
Feed me till I want no more,
Feed me till I want no more."

I read the hymn in its entirety. She joined in the effort I made to sing it, but being weak and in continued pain she could make no sustained participation. Though unable to sing as once she did with such inspiration and excellence, her life was truly a prayer in action. What many of us aspire to become she attained. I feel sure that all who truly knew her and loved her will join in the words of her Saviour and our Redeemer: "We done, thou good and faithful servant . . . enter thou into the joy of thy Lord;" and the words of Jesus, "Father, into Thy hands I commend my spirit" as the fitting conclusion she would add to "Guide me, O thou great Jehovah."

All who came to know this good woman were blessed by knowing her. She easily won and deserved the love and esteem of the citizens of Durham and the entire community of Duke University, both faculty and students. A great host of friends and admirers whose number would be difficult to estimate, rise up and call her blessed.

HIRAM EARL MYERS

MRS. ANNIE SAUNDERS PARKER

1879 - 1970

Mrs. Annie Saunders Parker was born in Bertie County, North Carolina, on April 3, 1879. She was the daughter of the late James Edward Saunders and Evie Jane Barrett Saunders.

She was married to the Reverend David Bascom Parker on November 5, 1902. To this parsonage family came two sons, David Bascom Parker, Jr., and James Saunders Parker, both of whom grew to manhood and met untimely deaths.

As the wife of a Methodist minister she was a great help to her husband. She was diplomatic, genteel and always interested in his work as a minister. Widowed in 1919 while her sons were still young, she faced life and raised these two sons. Through all of these years she kept an undaunted inner faith, putting her complete trust in the hands of God whom she loved and accepted as her Father. Her Bible was her constant companion and she knew by heart most of the Psalms and many other passages.

"Miss Annie" moved into The Methodist Retirement Home January 11, 1956, where she remained a resident until her death. She won her way into the hearts of the staff and members of the Home because of her gentleness, her kindness, her willingness to help other people and the serenity that came from putting herself completely in God's hands. The other members sought her out when they were lonely, discouraged, or needed a shoulder to cry on. Just being in her presence gave them a new faith and a new strength. Her presence was truly a benediction to those who had the privilege of knowing her.

The spirit of Mrs. Annie Saunders Parker went to be with her loved ones and the God she loved on September 14, 1970 following several weeks' hospitalization. A Memorial Service for her was held in the Chapel of The Methodist Retirement Home on September 16, 1970, conducted by Dr. Joseph F. Coble, Administrator, and the Reverend Robert L. Alger, Chaplain of The Retirement Home, with a graveside service following in Greenwood Cemetery in Dunn, North Carolina, conducted by Dr. Joseph F. Coble and the Reverend Sidney G. Boone.

Thank you, God, for sending "Miss Annie" our way. Our lives were ennobled and enriched because she daily practiced the presence of Christ.

JOSEPH F. COBLE

MRS. LEOLA ELKINS PARRISH

1909 - 1970

If there is no greater love than a life laid down for a friend, there is no greater life than one lived as a friend. Mrs. Leola Elkins Parrish had innumerable friends and she loved them all. If she had one abiding fear, it was that she might somehow be inadequate in serving them.

Capable of inspiring instant affection in all with whom she came into contact, Mrs. Parrish was one of the old school of genuine graciousness and selflessness that made one happy to be in her presence. Sparkling and effervescent, a delight and a joy, devoted and selfless, tenacious and constant, loving and beloved; these are the qualities that leap to mind as I remember Mrs. Parrish.

She never forgot a birthday, or an anniversary, or a promise, or an obligation, or a kindness, or a friend. She treasured friendship with the old and the young alike. In declining health for many years, she was never too ill to greet an acquaintance nor too disabled to rise from her bed and expend the last ounce of strength in making a friend feel welcome. This quality was never more evident than during the last year of her life.

Mrs. Parrish suffered three coronary attacks during preparations for her husband's move to Fayetteville, N. C.

C. She was thrilled at returning to the place of her childhood and to her home church after the Rev. J. H. Parrish retired his full-time ministry and accepted Calvary Methodist Church in semi-retirement. The excitement of returning home and the great expectations she retained helped her to overcome the initial attacks. As her strength returned, so did her insistence that her friends be allowed to visit without restriction. She served those whom she loved selflessly until her heavenly Father called her to Himself, September 25, 1970, while at home in Fayetteville, N. C.

Mrs. Parrish was born in Hope Mills, N. C. on December 18, 1909, to Hiram Mont Elkins and Lottie Lee Cameron. She was the eldest daughter in a family of ten children and was reared in Fayetteville, N. C. She was married to a dashing young minister, the Rev. J. H. Parrish, on "the night Jack Dempsey lost to Gene Tunney," she was fond of saying, and gave birth to two sons.

The Parrishes served charges in the North Carolina Conference at Mt. Gilead, Siler City, Robbins, Rowland, Roxboro, Fair Bluff, and finally, Calvary.

Funeral services were held at Calvary Methodist Church. The Rev. Graham S. Eubank presided and the Rev. M. W. Warren assisted. Burial was in Lafayette Memorial Cemetery in Fayetteville. Surviving are her husband, the Rev. J. H. Parrish, Fayetteville; two sons, Major Harold C. Parrish, Spokane, Wash.; Bill H. Parrish, Chapel Hill, N. C.; three brothers, A. A. Elkins, Media, Pa.; Foster W. Elkins, Richmond, Va.; Johnny M. Elkins, St. Paul, Minn.; two sisters, Candace Smith, Fayetteville, N. C.; Mrs. Paul H. Brafford, Columbia, S. C., and four grandchildren.

As her youngest son, I can vouchsafe her devotion to her family, her desire for peace and goodwill, and her love for all. Her wit and charm were wonderfully warm and inviting. She will be with us all in a very real sense for a lifetime. We cannot help but mourn her physical absence if but for a little while as eternity goes, but knowing Mother, she is probably going to be more than a little busy renewing old acquaintances and making new friends, while awaiting the arrival of those yet to come. She knew her heavenly Father intuitively and intimately and made the transition into eternal life without reservation. Knowing that the transition was not long in coming, my mother and father shared the following poem:

I thought to find some healing clime
For her I loved. She found that shore,
That city whose inhabitants
Are sick and sorrowful no more.

I asked for human love for her.
The loving you, how best to still

The infinite yearning of a heart
Which but infinity could fill.

Such sweet communion has been ours,
I pray that it might never end.
My prayer is answered now—
I have an angel for a friend.

I wish for perfect peace to soothe
The troubled anguish of her breast;
And numbered with the loved and called
She entered on untroubled rest.

Life was so fair a thing to her,
I wept and pleaded for its stay.
My wish was granted me, for lo!
She hath eternal life today.

MRS. LAURA CRUMP HOUSTON

Laura Crump Houston was born April 12, 1894, in Richmond, Virginia, daughter of Edward Pumphrey Crump and Cora Belle Toombs Crump. She spent her childhood in Richmond and Charlotte, N. C. When she was sixteen years of age, the family moved to Wilmington, N. C. She graduated from Wilmington High School and Scarritt College in Kansas City, Mo.

On November 18, 1920, in Grace Methodist Church, Wilmington, Dr. Walter A. Stanbury presided at the marriage of Laura Crump and the Reverend Benjamin Herriot Houston of Wilmington. They served three years in Brazil as Methodist missionaries, under the sponsorship of Grace Church. Because of an illness, Mrs. Houston was advised by her physician not to return to Brazil, whereupon they lived in Decatur, Georgia, while Mr. Houston did graduate work at Emory University. Upon completion of these studies, they returned to North Carolina where he re-entered the North Carolina Conference. Among pastorates served by the Houstons were Winter Park, Wilmington, Benson, Clayton, Garner, Clinton, Raeford, Morehead City, Smithfield, Roxboro and Weldon, where Mr. Houston was pastor until shortly before his death in 1950.

Shortly thereafter, Mrs. Houston returned to Smithfield where she made her home for the remainder of her life, actively involving herself in the religious and service activities of her community. She was greatly admired for her creative talents which she devoted to service of her family, her church, her friends and community. In addition to holding offices in the Women's Society of Christian Service, and the Smithfield Woman's Club, she worked in the Johnston County Health Department's Crippled Children's Unit and did volunteer service with the Johnston County Red Cross.

Mrs. Houston enjoyed and was well known for her original art and handicrafts—painting, creative writing, needlework, picture-framing, jewelry-making, ceramics, candle-making, and interior design. She also loved to travel and to entertain and was a gifted letter-writer.

Mrs. Houston died in Smithfield on October 14, 1970. Survivors include three children: Laurita, now Mrs. E. B. Barlow, of Gainesville, Florida; Dr. Ben H. Houston, III, of Goldsboro; and Dr. Robert J. Houston of Columbus, Ohio. She is survived also by a brother, E. L. Crump of Scott's Hill, and eight grandchildren. A memorial service was held on October 16 at Centenary United Methodist Church, Smithfield, followed by a service at Riverside Park Cemetery, with her pastor, the Reverend F. Owen Fitzgerald, Jr., officiating at both services.

Friends through the years who have grown under her influence cherish the memory of this talented, capable, generous Christian spirit. As it was always in the heart of her husband to smile, to love and to help, so were these qualities ever characteristic of the life of Laura Crump Houston.

MRS. CATHERINE CORINE PATTERSON MURPHY

Mrs. Catherine Corine Patterson Murphy was born October 22, 1887 in Robeson County, near Maxton, N. C., and died October 26, 1970, after a long illness. Funeral services were held at Mt. Zion United Methodist Church, October 31, 1970, by Reverend Samuel L. Townsend and Reverend Preston C. Jones. Her body was laid to rest in the Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Mrs. Murphy was the daughter of the late Archie and Carolina McLaurin and attended public school in Robeson County. She confessed Christ at an early age and joined Mt. Zion United Methodist Church. She was pianist at the above named church for many years and also served as pianist for Island Grove Baptist Church. She served faithfully in many organizations of both churches.

She married the Reverend John D. Murphy, who preceded her in death by thirty-one years. Six children were born to this union, three of whom preceded her to the grave. She is survived by three daughters: Miss Vivian O. Murphy of New York City; Mrs. Vera G. Brown of Laurinburg, N. C., and Mrs. Mary Marshall of Lynchburg, Va.; three sisters, Mrs. Lula Easterling of Laurinburg, N. C.; Mrs. Florence McLaurin, and Mrs. Carolina Bethea, both of New York City; one brother, Tommie McLaurin of Red Springs, N. C., and a large number of other relatives and friends.

Mrs. Murphy's life was the epitome of courage, vision and deep faith, an example worthy of emulation by all who love their fellowmen.

Now the laborer's task is o'er;
Now the battle day is past;
Now upon the farther shore
Lands the voyager at last.
Father, in Thy gracious keeping
Leave we now our loved one sleeping.

1878 - 1970

Mrs. Amanda McNair was born in Robeson County near Red Springs, December 25, 1878, and departed this life November 20, 1970. She was the daughter of the late Dine and Rebecca McLean, and the widow of the late Reverend Henry McNair, to whom she was joined in holy matrimony December 25, 1895. No children were born to this union, but because of their love for people in general and children in particular, they took several into their home as their own. They reared them to be God-fearing just as they had been reared by their parents.

Mrs. McNair accepted Christ as her personal Saviour at an early age and continued to grow in the knowledge and grace of our Lord Jesus, attending regularly to her duties as a member of the Mt. Zion United Methodist Church until her health began to decline. Being shut in did not dampen her spirit, for she continued to give encouragement to her family and friends and to support the Church as much as possible. One of the last clear statements she was heard to have uttered was, "everything is all right."

Funeral services were held for Mrs. McNair at the Mt. Zion United Methodist Church on Sunday, November 22, 1970, and burial was in the church cemetery. The pastor, the Reverend J. O. Smith, officiated.

She is survived by four sons, four daughters, thirty-three grandchildren, and fifty-seven great-grandchildren.

And so this is not a final tribute, for the most beautiful memorial left by anyone is not printed on paper, carved on stone, etc., but the eternal memories left in the hearts of those who knew and loved the person.

MRS. CARRIE LEE MABRY GARNER

Mrs. Carrie Lee Mabry Garner was born February 17, 1903 in Cabarrus County and died on December 11, 1970 at Cabarrus Memorial Hospital, Concord, North Carolina. Services for Mrs. Garner were held at Trinity United Methodist Church, Kannapolis, North Carolina, by her pastor, Rev. Paul R. Berrier, and Rev. Donald Nance of Second Presbyterian Church in Kannapolis. Her body was laid to rest in Burlington, North Carolina City Cemetery.

Mrs. Garner was married to Rev. D. I. Garner in November of 1931. She was a member of Pine Bluff Methodist Church at that time. During their years together, Rev. and Mrs. Garner served churches in Greensboro, Concord, Mebane, Milton, and Belhaven. Upon Rev. Garner's death Mrs. Garner came to Kannapolis to live among her closest relatives. She joined Trinity United Methodist Church and served it faithfully until her illness made it impossible for her to be active.

Mrs. Garner was a dedicated and effective worker in the churches served by her late husband.

She recognized the fact that her first responsibility was always to her Lord and His Church. She was a strong ally of her husband as he labored so effectively and well in the several places that his church assigned him.

Even though she was incapacitated by chronic illnesses which afflicted her in later years, this great woman of God did not let her world shrink to the confines of her bed. When her final illness affected her ability to think rationally and to express herself well, she still maintained her strong faith in the God who gave her life. During my visits with her in her last days when her body was filled with pain and she was extremely ill, she always responded immediately and peacefully when I suggested that we have prayer together.

One may wonder if the Lord does not make some effort to endow these courageous women of the parsonage with some magnificent gifts. They must carry not only the normal responsibilities of any wife and mother, but the added burdens of extra work in the church and living a life that is beyond reproach. Mrs. Carrie Garner was a living example of this kind of double dedication. She was willing to share her husband with the many people who needed him during the years of their ministry together, because she believed, as did he, that they had accepted a higher calling.

This dear lady lived a life dedicated to peace and love and joy and forgiveness and goodness. She did not here on this earth seek a reward. She has now become a part of that celestial band who rejoice each day in the presence of the Lord they served so well here. God has provided for us all living examples of dedication and faithfulness. Mrs. Carrie Lee Mabry Garner was such an example.

MRS. MARY MILLER BRANTLEY

Mrs. Allen P. (Mary Miller) Brantley was born on February 5, 1888, in Salisbury, North Carolina, and died on February 5, 1971 at Duke Hospital. Funeral services were held on Sunday, February 7, at Front Street United Methodist Church, Burlington, with the Reverend John Cline, her pastor, in charge, assisted by Dr. Edgar B. Fisher and Dr. Vergil Queen. Bishop William R. Cannon gave the eulogy. Burial was in Alamance Memorial Mausoleum, Burlington, North Carolina.

When we think of Mary Brantley, we think of a charming and gracious lady. She personified the beauty and simplicity of the Old South. Everyone was welcome in her home. She never knew a stranger. Though I had known her husband a long time, I did not know her until I came to North Carolina. No sooner had I met her than I felt I had known her always.

Miss Mary was an ideal minister's wife. She was at home with all sorts and conditions of men. She was able to walk with kings, and yet not lose the common touch. The affluent and learned enjoyed and profited by her company, yet the poor and ignorant did not feel uncomfortable in her presence. She related beautifully and effectively to every one. She understood and supported her husband in all his endeavors so that the two people formed a single ministry. Their hearts were one and their unity a great inspiration and example to the people of their charges. The harmony of their lives dispelled any discord and division in their churches.

When we think of Miss Mary we think of the peace and abiding satisfaction of the Christian faith. She could not have been the person she was except for her loyalty to and confidence in Jesus Christ. She brought a bit of heaven to earth, and now she lives in the heaven that she exemplified in her manner and in her life. With characteristic youthful freshness of spirit, she blithely traversed her latter years, marked by infirmity, and entered eternity in the full vigor and strength of womanhood.

I am reminded of the words of the venerable Bede:

"Nor any night to dim the grandeur of that gracious light, Nor sorrows, nor tears, nor tired old age."

We give thanks for Miss Mary, and gladly and graciously we give her back to her maker.

Group A: Agency Annual Reports for 1970-1971

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The Commission reports a year of unusual activity of significance to the Conference and to the General Church.

1. On October 11, 1970, a simple, white clapboard chapel six miles from Enfield was officially consecrated as a National Historic Methodist Shrine. Whitaker's Chapel, which dates from 1740, was recognized as the 15th National Shrine. It became Methodist in 1776 and was the site of the first annual Methodist Protestant Conference in 1828. Pioneer Bishop Francis Asbury preached at Whitaker's Chapel three times following the Revolutionary War and records his visits in his Journal. Dr. John H. Ness, Jr., Executive Secretary of the General Commission on Archives and History, was the principal speaker. The Rev. Ed Morrison has served as pastor to Whitaker's Chapel congregation. Three hundred persons were present for the day's activities.

Together Magazine's associate editor and photographer, George P. Miller, was on hand for the event. Together will highlight the new shrine in a pictorial feature, "Where Methodist 'Mavericks' Met," in the August-September issue. We are grateful for all the persons who have shared during the past seven years in the reopening of Whitaker's Chapel, the restoration by the late J. Waldo Whitaker, and the continued support of Dr. Ralph H. Rives.

2. Monthly services continue to be held at Whitaker's, arranged jointly by Dr. Ralph Rives and the Rev. J. Ed. Morrison, pastor of the West Halifax charge. Among the speakers during this Conference year have been Dr. Thomas A. Collins, C. Franklin Grill, W. Alton Tew, Paul L. Leeland, David R. Grissom and Dr. Rives. The Homecoming speaker at Whitaker's in June, 1971, will be Robert L. Jerome. The services are well attended and are held on the third Sunday afternoon of each month.

3. The Conference Commission commends to the entire Annual Conference the efforts of the Washington County Historical Society to repair and refurbish old Rehoboth Church. This historic old church has maintained monthly worship services over the past several years through the dedicated lay leadership of Dr. A. L. Whitehurst of Plymouth. A Love Feast was held at Rehoboth on December 27, 1970, and on March 30, 1971, a Homecoming service was held at the renovated church.

4. In 1771 John Wesley asked for volunteers to serve the North America circuit. Francis Asbury arrived in the colonies in October of that year two centuries ago.

The Conference Commission voted to sponsor an Asbury commemorative plate which would be sold at the 1971 session. The Lukeman statue in Washington, D. C. is the subject of this commemorative piece available to our Conference delegates.

The Conference Commission has supported the Francis Asbury Bicentennial plans for the national celebration at Lake Junaluska, September 3-5, 1971.

5. A Commission member, R. Norman Knight, participated, on the part of the United Methodists, in the Wake County Bicentennial, March 12-14, 1971.

6. Through the generosity of Mrs. D. R. Allen, Commission trustee of Fayetteville, a picture of the Asbury statue has been framed and presented to the Program Council to be suitably hung in the Methodist Building.

7. Official delegates to the Francis Asbury Bicentennial celebration on Labor Day weekend are Robert L. Jerome, C. Franklin Grill, Orville Watson and Sam Wood. Also appointed to attend from the Commission were Mrs. D. R. Allen, Dr. John Frizzelle, Dr. A. L. Whitehurst, Mrs. Mollie Briley, Sam Townsend, and Dr. Ralph Rives.

8. We received with gratitude an original sketch of the Rocky River Methodist Church which dates from a July 22, 1789 deed conveyed to "Bishop Asbury, his successor bishops and the Methodist church forever," by Isaac Cox. This deed is now on deposit at Duke University. This sketch of the 1825 log meeting house comes to us through Mrs. H. L. Jordan, mother of the Rev. R. H. Jordan, a member of our Conference. The N. C. Department of Archives and History will be asked to erect an historical marker at the intersection of U. S. Highway 421 and State Road 2646. The Commission endorses the preservation of this very historical church and looks toward commemorative services marking Francis Asbury's first work in Chatham County.

9. One of the few buildings which continue to stand in the state in which Bishop Asbury preached is in Murfreesboro. The Commission has supported the efforts at Murfreesboro to erect an historical marker at the house where Asbury preached, and which is being restored by interested citizens.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON CHURCH ARCHITECTURE

The Committee on Church Architecture, in its effort to encourage long-range planning, to promote excellence in design, and to share information, has functioned:

1. Through its Executive Committee in providing guidance for the development of materials to be shared with local churches and district committees.
2. As resource persons in counseling with local churches.
3. By recommending standards to be followed in the development of design.
4. As a participant in the Annual Joint Meeting with the Western North Carolina Conference Committee held at the Duke Divinity School March 1, 1971.
5. By sharing with the Board of Missions in completing the operational procedure for the Conference Review Committee, which is incorporated in the Report of the Board of Missions.

We call attention to the importance of the local church studying fully the needs and conditions of the church and community and to utilize this information in the development of a building project.

Your Committee is ready to share at both the district and local church levels. Upon request seminars on church building will be planned and executed. There will be a meeting of the Conference Committee on Church Architecture on Tuesday, December 7, 1971, and the Annual Joint Meeting will be on Monday, March 6, 1972.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

The purpose of the board is to relate the gospel to the members of the church and to the persons and structures of society. It shall seek to bring the whole life of man into conformity with the will of God. To achieve this purpose, we must motivate persons to work through the local church, ecumenical channels, and the institutions of society to bring about a personal, social, and civic righteousness which is effected through the reconciliation with God through Christ.

Twelve members of the board attended the jurisdictional conference on Christian Social Concerns at Lake Junaluska, and two members of the board served as group leaders on the staff of this conference.

The board, in accordance with its purpose and with the shift in program-planning to district and local levels, pioneered in the financing of district program councils by turning its district chairmen's funds over to district program councils. This has now become conference policy relative to all program boards.

The board has maintained an active relationship to the North Carolina Council for Social Legislation and has supported its legislative program, including mandatory licensing of day care centers, abolition of the death penalty, prison reform, and legislation protecting the environment.

The board actively participates in the Social Action Ministries Committee of the North Carolina Council of Churches, two members of the board being on the committee. Members of the board took part in sensitizing sessions conducted by the Committee at Central Prison, and members of the board participated in a session in Raleigh advocating prison reform. "I was in prison and you came unto me." The people in the prison system have no advocates in the legislative halls save those concerned persons who seek to represent them.

The board led in the establishment of a United Methodist Task Force in North Carolina in opposition to liquor by the drink. Statewide legislation was defeated, but the subsequent passage of a local bill pertaining to Moore County has brought the Task Force to the aid of efforts of Moore County citizens to defeat liquor by the drink in Moore County.

The board continued co-sponsorship of the Peace Education booth at the North Carolina State Fair. In the 1970 fair, 1217 persons signed a petition calling for an immediate cease fire in Indochina and 1355 petitioned the N. C. Congressional delegation to refuse to extend the draft beyond its scheduled June 30, 1971 expiration.

The board encourages observance of the 25th anniversary of the UN, promoted "Trick or Treat" for UNICEF, and members of the board participated in "Wednesdays in Washington to end the Draft," urging Congress to support the 1968 General Conference resolution in opposition to military conscription.

The board has attempted to sensitize itself to the voices of minority groups. We continue in our efforts to get the conference program council to avail itself of services of the Commission on Religion and Race in having a consultation on Racism for the conference program council.

The board offered scholarships to one youth from each district to attend the jurisdictional conference on Christian Social Concerns at Lake Junaluska.

The board cooperated in the promotion of the Race Relations Day offering.

The board is appreciative for the aid of the conference program council staff, and is particularly grateful to John M. Meares, staff person primarily related to our board.

We are grateful for the scores of persons who have witnessed to the reconciling love of Christ, who have maintained Christian integrity, and have thus made possible any fulfillment of the high purposes enunciated by this board. But we submit our report with penitence because we have not always matched our rhetoric with our performance in the application of Christ's reconciling love in our society.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON DISTRICT CONFERENCE RECORDS

The Committee on District Conference Records has met and has examined each of the District Conference Minute books, except for the Greenville District. The records were in proper order and we commend the District Superintendents and the District Secretaries for their orderly account of the District Conferences.

We strongly recommend again this year that each district secure a permanent record binder # CC-2116 for keeping the permanent record of the District Conference minutes.

REPORTS OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

COMPOSITE REPORT OF DISTRICT SUPERINTENDENTS

C. H. MERCER, Secretary to Cabinet

No one needs to remind this audience how highly individualistic Methodist ministers are. Because of this fact it is usually hazardous for anyone of our group to speak for all. Well, I have the safe assignment and happy privilege of speaking for all these illustrious district superintendents. My purpose is to give a composite report for all the districts. I know you will be sad that there will be only one report rather than eleven; however, the good news we share, the good news made possible by the labors of many Methodist laymen under the able leadership of our pastors, will gladden your hearts and help to overcome your grief.

Since accurate and detailed statistical reports will be given later by Brother David Traynham, we propose to share the kind of information necessary to demonstrate trends and accomplishments. Obviously, time will not permit us to tell all that has happened during the year. The report does indicate certain emphases and points out where we have experienced many successes and some failures.

We have baptized about 3,500 persons. We have received a few more than 8,000 new members into our churches of which almost 3,500 have come on Profession of Faith. For these souls who will now share the Christian witness through the Methodist Church, we thank God. Yet, we must acknowledge for the second consecutive year we have experienced a decline in membership. It is a small decline, but, still, we must ask ourselves why! The answer is twofold.

First, the recent emphasis on membership audits has compelled local churches to examine more closely their membership rolls and this in turn has led to more accurate reporting. Errors accumulating over many years are now being corrected. We must also recognize that we are not receiving as many new members as we have in past years. For example: ten years ago we received 10,687 new members, while fifteen years ago we received 11,838 new members. We must commit ourselves anew to plan more effectively and to witness with more zeal, not just to the end that we will grow in numbers, but that persons will be reached for Christ. Your district superintendents join with you in this dedication.

We have made progress in the financial life of our Conference. The latest report on the Single Figure giving dated May 26 (which was last Wednesday) revealed that our churches have remitted 87.4% of the amount committed for the current year. One year ago the report showed 82.2% paid. We are encouraged by this increase of 5.2% in giving to the Single Figure which, as you know, represents for our Methodist people the basic financial support for Christ's ministry beyond their local communities.

Our physical facilities have been improved during the year.

Eight new sanctuaries have been constructed.

Fourteen new education buildings have been opened.

Twelve new parsonages have been secured. In addition to the money spent on new buildings, more than $1,000,000 has been spent on renovation and repairs.

Sixteen new building projects are planned for the new Conference year.

The object of a new emphasis during the year has been the District Program Council. In most districts this Council has met at least four times and in some as many as six times. The work and accomplishments have been exciting. There have been seminars and retreats for pastors in the Burlington, Elizabeth City, Goldsboro, New Bern, Rocky Mount and Wilmington Districts. Workshops for the Council on Ministries and Leadership programs have been held in the Elizabeth City, Greenville, Goldsboro, and Raleigh Districts. Confirmation labs have been held in several districts and are planned in others. Reports indicate that throughout the districts "special days" have been observed with proper educational and financial emphasis.

Though we have emphasized the traditional work of the church as basic, perhaps the most exciting part of our reports from the districts deals with the special projects and ministries.

In Burlington there is a "Halfway House" which has received support from that district.

The Durham District is providing some support for a Day Care Center in east Durham.

The Circus Tent Ministry at Kitty Hawk continues to prosper with the support of the Elizabeth City District.

The Bogue Banks Ministry in the New Bern District is expanding. Mr. Mark Price is the full-time director and the ministry is now extended to the seamen using the Morehead City port, and the migrants of Carteret County. The ministry on the Beach continues as in former years.

As usual the Fayetteville District is a leader.

The Contact Ministry begun last year by the Hay Street Church has grown and is now receiving additional support from other churches of the community which provide financial aid and volunteer workers.

The Community Center in Robeson County is one of the most significant of our special ministries. There are four full-time staff members. Last summer six college students did some intensive work with small membership churches and minority groups.

An effort is made through the Center staff and workers to relate an individual or family in need to the organization or agency which can provide proper assistance.

The Center distributes clothing collected by the Women's Society of Christian Service, provides counseling, and other forms of assistance to all who need and desire these services without regard to race or creed.

Our General Board of Missions is providing some help with this project.

The Goldsboro District has had a special campaign to emphasize Advance Specials. A goal for the charges of the district was set at $7,500.

A near-miracle was achieved in the Greenville District when a Christmas offering amounting to $8,800 was received. These funds were used by the newly-organized "District United Methodist Society" whose primary effort this year has been to help Holy Trinity Church in Greenville.

Throughout the year in all our districts "The Word" has been preached and taught to the Church gathered. The ministry of the Church scattered has been Christ's ministry. We have tried to "be a good neighbor."

I wish to relate a true experience for the purpose of dramatizing the warm and appreciative attitudes expressed by our wonderful laymen toward their clerical leadership.

I preached at the morning worship service to a responsive congregation. The parsonage family was most gracious as host and we enjoyed a delicious lunch. Afterwards the pastor said that a lay family who wanted us to be their guests for lunch but sickness prevented, was anxious that we visit. He took me to the home where we were cordially received. We visited, we prayed, and then the man asked me to accompany him. He led me to the little house out back which turned out to be an old-fashioned smoke house. I haven't seen such a beautiful sight since my boyhood days on the farm. He chose a beautiful piece of meat for me, but I recognized it to be not a ham but a shoulder. It was as though the man knew I was wondering about the hams, for he said, "I have given the extra ham to my pastor." Laymen who share their hams with their pastors and shoulders with their district superintendents are great. These are the kind we have in the North Carolina Conference. Thank God for them!

Permit me to share for these whom I represent a deep and sincere feeling. There are two special reasons why each dsitric superintendent has a personal desire to report to the Conference. One, it gives him the opportunity to express his deep appreciation to the dedicated ministers with whom he works and to the loyal laymen for their labors. The other is to acknowledge with gratitude the considerate and creative guidance provided him and this Conference by our Bishop. I express gratitude from each one of us to our laymen, our pastors, and our Bishop.

BURLINGTON DISTRICT

EDGAR B. FISHER, Superintendent

We have had a happy year on the Burlington District. Ministers and lay people have worked effectively, with a sense of true dedication. The program of the United Methodist Church has been emphasized.

MEMBERSHIP AND EVANGELISM:

Feeling that evangelism is of tremendous importance, we are g'ad to report that 51C have united with the churches of the district, 283 having been received on profession of faith and 233 by certificate of church membership. Much attention has been given to making corrections in total membership in those cases where evidently mistakes had been made at some time in the past. Several very successful lay missions have been held during the year.

CHRISTIAN HIGHER EDUCATION:

Much interest continues to be shown in the work of Christian higher education. Many churches have paid their pledges in full, and others are endeavoring to complete payment as soon as possible.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION:

Many dedicated leaders in the cause of Christian education are within the district. Many serve in their respective church schools and in other capacities. Training is emphasized through the holding of training schools.

CAMP CRUSADE:

Much has been accomplished throughout the district. Many of the churches have made substantial contributions to this worthy undertaking.

WOMEN'S WORK:

The district has 74 organizations of the Women's Society of Christian Service and five Wesleyan Service Guilds, with nearly 3,000 members. Much outstanding work is being done.

LAY ACTIVITIES:

The lay people of the district are quite active. Many attend meetings of the Conference which emphasize the lay program. The No-Silent Pulpit program is quite successful. Nine hundred twenty-four attended the District Lay Rally.

BUILDING AND IMPROVEMENTS:

The new educational unit at Orange Chapel Church on the Whitney Cross Charge was dedicated this year. The new parsonage at Moncure is now occupied. The educational building at Pleasant Hill Church on the Pittsboro Circuit was dedicated. Rooms have been added to the parsonage of Cobb Circuit and also to the parsonage of the Pittsboro Circuit.

FINANCES:

A commendable financial record has been made by the district this year. The salaries of the ministers increased more than $24,000 for the new Conference year. An increase of more than $14,000 was made in acceptances on the Single Figure askings for the new year. The district has accepted $228 on the Interdenominational Cooperation Fund and $7,872 on the Ministerial Education Fund for 1971-1972.

The district superintendent feels most grateful to all who have helped to make this year successful. We look to the future with much optimism.

DURHAM DISTRICT

CHANCIE D. BARCLIFT, Superintendent

The report of the fifty-six charges, composed of seventy-five churches, of the Durham District for the 1970-71 Conference year show progress in practically all areas of work over the previous year. This favorable condition is the fruit of the faithful service of dedicated pastors, members of their staff, and the 23,357 loyal lay members.

MEMBERSHIP: There were 876 members received, including 292 on profession of faith. The net gain in membership was 30.

FINANCE: The district paid 99.5% of its acceptance of $283,260 on the Single Figure. The acceptance for 1971-72 is over $300,000.

BUILDING PROJECTS: Chapel Hill—Orange completed its renovation program, which included a pillared front porch and an attractive steeple on the sanctuary.

Duke Memorial will complete by October 1, 1971 the general renovation to its sanctuary, including the installation of a new organ.

Epworth will break ground in July, 1971 for its new sanctuary.

Massey is planning a new sanctuary.

Trinity—The general renovation of all church properties is in progress and is scheduled to be completed by January 1, 1972.

Lea's Chapel—The educational building was dedicated by Bishop William R. Cannon on November 15, 1970.

Parkwood has acquired a larger parsonage.

Rougemont and Union Grove congregations plan to merge and construct a new building at Rougemont.

BOARD OF THE LAITY: The attendance at the annual Lay Rally continues to be the largest in the conference, with over 1,200 present.

The work of the Women's Society of Christian Service and the United Methodist Youth Fellowship this year has been characterized by vitality and enthusiasm.

The above achievements, and many others too numerous to be listed, at least indicate that the Durham District has had another good year in Christian witness and kingdom fruitage.

ELIZABETH CITY DISTRICT

G. R. MCKENZIE, Superintendent

This year has seen the very fine cooperation of both pastors and lay persons in all the areas of the work of our Lord's Church. Our report is but a summary, yet it could not be written without giving credit to all those who made it possible. It is with genuine appreciation and high optimism that this summary is given.

Our 36 charges consisting of 74 local churches reported 146 received on Profession of Faith, with a total of 398 received from all sources. There were 76 infants baptized. The total membership of the district is 12,523 which, sadly, shows a loss of 168.

With due recognition of the need to increase the financial commitment to the work beyond the local church, the charges increased the Single Figure Acceptance a net amount of 5.5%, or $7,664. The acceptance on Ministerial Education was increased by $6,500.

The closing of the 1970-71 Conference year finds our district having paid 99.4% of its Single Figure. Hopefully, we can do even better next year.

The pastors' salaries have been increased by $23,500 which is an average raise of slightly more than 11%. This, indeed, is an encouraging development. Our people have shown a fine spirit in this as in all other areas of concern.

In the area of building and repair it must be reported that Zion Church on the Gatesville Charge was dedicated with Bishop Cannon conducting the service. A new educational building was consecrated at the Gatesville Church. The parsonage at Perkins was also dedicated. A new educational unit is under construction at Sharon Church on the Currituck Charge, while a new unit is planned for Wanchese and a new parsonage is planned for the Perquimans Charge. Our churches spent $95,909 on renovation and repair during the year.

The District Program Council began its functions and responsibilities in a very fine manner this year. Several district-wide activities resulted from its wise planning.

We continue to be most proud of the Circus Tent Ministry at Kitty Hawk where each year between 40,000 and 50,000 persons attend its varied activities, including midnight services. This "new evangelism" continues to expand and we pray God's blessing upon all that is accomplished.

We have had a good year in the Elizabeth City District, but much remains to be accomplished and we pledge ourselves to a forward movement under the guidance of the Holy Spirit.

FAYETTEVILLE DISTRICT

GRAHAM S. EUBANK, Superintendent

This is a report calling your attention to some of the things in which the Superintendent, ministers, and laymen of the district have been involved during the past year. The district and the conference are indebted to the ministers and laity who have been faithful in their duties and responsibilities to the church and its mission. When all information is available it will prove how we have worked together and the excellent Christian spirit in which we have been working faithfully for Christ and in areas of involvement beyond the local church and its program. We have sought to keep before us the program projected by the General Conference of 1968, by the Conference Program Council, the District Program Council and the number of other groups involved in the work of the local church and the district and conference.

MEMBERSHIP: The membership of the churches of the district has increased by 1,818 members for the years 1967 to 1970. Evangelism is emphasized in the district and each local church is constantly urged to have a meaningful outreach involving not only the people within the church but those who are not affiliated.

CHRISTIAN EDUCATION: Programs of leadership training, children and youth ministries and adult ministries have had programs involving these age groups in the mission of the church and in community development. We emphasize the need for an increase in Church School enrollment and regular attendance.

BUILDING PROGRAMS: The following churches have been involved in building:

Camp Ground Church has completed a new Educational Building, Fellowship Hall, church parlor, and Administrative offices. This church has one of the best and most adequate buildings for the total program of the church in this district.

Pleasant Grove Church completed a complete new church building including sanctuary, Educational and Fellowship facilities.

Sandy Plains Church completed a new Educational Building and renovated the sanctuary and other facilities. This church has built a new parsonage which is very adequate for a minister and his family. This is the first parsonage built by any of the Indian Charge in many, many years. Only one other had been built before this parsonage.

Prospect Church completed the building of the very adequate and complete Fellowship Hall. Renovation was also made on the church and the Educational Building.

Hickory Grove Church has completed new construction from the walls up and has been repaired and completely renovated.

Fairview Church has renovated the church building and completed a new Education unit and Fellowship Hall.

St. James Church, Pembroke, has completed its new building and it has been paid for in full.

A prefabricated chapel has been moved to Pleasant Grove, Fairmont, which provides very adequately for a small group of United Methodists in this community.

District Special and Christmas Offering Funds have been used to help repair and paint fourteen churches in the district with small memberships. These improvements could not have been made without this financial assistance.

Spring Lake Church, which was the first $10 Club church built in the Conference, has built a new Fellowship Hall which will be paid for by November 1.

Hay Street Church has purchased a new parsonage for its senior minister and his family.

John Wesley Church, Fayetteville, has purchased a new parsonage for its minister and paid for it in cash.

STEWARDSHIP: We have been stressing stewardship in the Fayetteville District year after year. Most of the churches have accepted their askings and have paid in full. All churches in the district have paid Single Figure acceptances in full with the exception ve. Total percentage paid by this district was 98.8%. Our goal for the new year is 100% aid. The district was third among the other districts for the amount paid to the Ministerial Education Fund. It was second in amount paid for "One Great Hour of Sharing," first in the amount paid for Fellowship of Suffering and Service. Second in the amount paid for Student Day Offering. Second in the amount paid for Race Relations Sunday. First in the amount paid for UMY Fund. First in the amount paid to the Fund for Reconciliation.

Churches of the district sent to the Conference Treasurer for the year 1970-71 $299,104.

SPECIAL MINISTRIES: The following are programs involving special ministries: Robeson County Church and Community Center is the most far-reaching and extensive special program in the district. This is staffed by five full-time staff members including one deaconess. Her appointment to the Center is as a church and community worker. One additional deaconess will be assigned effective September 1. The Reverend Robert L. Mangum is the Director. An additional fifteen college students participate in the program during the summer months. Quite a large number of volunteer workers including youth groups of the churches in the county participate through the year.

The Center is involved in developing churches with small memberships cooperates with all services, opportunities and agencies of the county. Its work involves social service, sanitation and health improvements, adult education, job training, counseling with prisoners and their families, and the distribution of clothing collected by the Women's Society of Christian Service from throughout the conference. Its staff is involved with working with minority groups, and in programs which work at overcoming racism, and in many other areas of service.

CONTACT: This is a telephone ministry for metropolitan Fayetteville originally sponsored by the Hay Street Church. It will have completed one year of service to this area in July. The CONTACT telephone service is manned 24 hours a day by volunteer workers who have been trained in proper procedures. There are also many professional people who are on call when their special services are needed. This is a very effective ministry and is meeting a great need in this area.

INDIGENOUS COMMUNITY DEVELOPER: This is a new program which was activated in September 1970. The program is supported by the National Division of the Board of Missions, the Conference Board of Missions, District Advance Specials and Prospect Church. Mr. L. H. Moore, a member of Prospect Church, is effectively involved in the Prospect Parish community in a most meaningful way.

HARNETT COUNTY RURAL WORKER: The rural churches of Harnett County have completed plans and projected a program for a deaconess to be appointed as a church and community worker September 1, 1972.

These special ministries provided new opportunities for this District Superintendent and the ministers and laymen of the district to extend the Christian community in all areas of life with some specific Christian concerns which have already proven of tremendous value.

Robeson County is a very complex county equally divided into three races of people: white, Negro, and Lumbee Indian. The involvement by the United Methodist Church and the ministers and laymen of the county has already indicated that it will not remain this way. As a result of the work of the United Methodist Church of this county, the people are beginning to recognize their individual worth and discover a meaningful relation to others, regardless of race. The people of this county have suffered through many years because of this division and lack of economic opportunity to improve their way of life and public school educational opportunities have not been equal. Through a program of our Church and Community Center and other programs of the county to provide better opportunities for educational and economic development the people of this county are working together to make it possible to develop a better relationship between the races and social life in order that each individual will be recognized as a person and that all of the people are related and members of the human race to live and share together to make a better way of life for all.

The District Superintendent is indeed grateful for the small part he has in these wonderful opportunities.

GOLDSBORO DISTRICT

ALBERT F. FISHER, Superintendent

The Conference year 1970-71 has been a tremendous year in the Goldsboro District. Some significant events have taken place and some notable advancements have been made. The story, as always, is the story of the victories won by the pastors who serve so faithfully and unselfishly. This report is their story.

One of the significant areas of work this year was the In-Service Training for the Pastors. Two special training programs were offered. In the fall, a six-weeks Preaching Seminar was taught through Wayne Community College. In the spring, a Confirmation Laboratory was held for the pastors, using the new Confirmation materials. This report would be incomplete without reference to the Fall Retreat held at Topsail. The subjects were fishing and fellowship. All who participated were renewed by this experience.

Certainly the climax of the year was the financial record of the churches in the district. For the first time in its history, the Goldsboro District paid 100% of its Single Figure. Tremendous effort on the part of the pastors and the people was necessary for this record to be achieved. This speaks of the recognition on the part of the people that they are a confessional church and have responsibilities beyond the local church.

The concern for the greater Church was expressed in still another manner. The Goldsboro District led the Conference in the percentage of the increased asking that was accepted by the churches for the year 1971-72.

Another indication of financial concern was the financial support that the churches gave to their pastors in salary increases for the new year. The average increase in the district was 7.4%. There is no more meaningful way for churches to say "thank you" to their pastors than through their salary support.

The year has been fruitful in those added to the rolls of the churches. Our pastors reported 260 people added by Profession and an additional 347 by Transfer of Letter. Thus, a total of 607 was added to the rolls of the district, with a net increase of 37. The total membership for the district at this time is 17,789.

During the past year, three building programs were completed in the Goldsboro District. The Pine Level United Methodist Church completed its new building, which included a new sanctuary with educational facilities. The cost of the project was $55,000. A new educational building was completed at New Hope at a cost of $43,000. A new parsonage was completed at Warsaw at a cost of $30,000. The parsonage was furnished with new furniture.

Two new buildings are now under construction. Centenary United Methodist Church in Smithfield, is building a new educational building, and Mt. Moriah United Methodist Church is building a new fellowship building with added classrooms.

This report covers a great year in the Goldsboro District. The pastors and the people have made a real effort to fulfill their responsibilities as they seek to promote God's kingdom through their particular churches as a part of the United Methodist Church. To them a hearty thank you is in order, and a prayer for God's continued blessings.

GREENVILLE DISTRICT

HOWARD M. McLAMB, Superintendent

The 36 pastoral charges and the more than 16,000 members of the Greenville District served and accomplished well during the past conference year. We give praises to God and heartfelt gratitude to the preachers and laymen of the district for the efforts and progress that were made.

I. Membership and Evangelism

We received 630 new members, of which 250 were by profession of faith. We ended the year with a net increase of 23.

2. Finance

The district paid 97% of the Single Figure acceptance—up 2% over last year. Pastors' salaries were increased by 9%.

3. Building Programs

Farmville Church is relocating and is erecting a $600,000 educational building which will be completed in January, 1972. First, Washington, is constructing a $350,000 educational building. Rainbow is doubling its sanctuary capacity. Holly Spring is in a renovation program. Grifton expects soon to build a new sanctuary. Hobucken has bought additional land.

4. The Church School

Last fall we held 10 church school workshops in the five subdistricts dealing with the importance of the church school in a vital and growing church, reasons for recent declines in enrollment and attendance, and ways and materials by which to turn the tide upward.

Churches were urged to conduct church school campaigns from January 1 to Easter. I made two offers to smaller churches: A $10.00 check to each school that reached the attendance goal I suggested and a pocket cross with the inscription "God Loves You" to each pupil who attended 14 out of 15 Sundays, and we made the cross offer to pupils in the larger churches. Thirty church schools received the checks and some 3,000 crosses were awarded to individuals.

During Lent we published a weekly church school newsletter which was mailed to pastors, church school superintendents, educational work area leaders and church lay leaders.

As a result, the church school average attendance increased 7% over the preceding year, while attendance for the whole conference decreased 3%.

5. District Society

I think our greatest accomplishment was the formation of the Greenville District United Methodist Society, including a constitution adopted by the district conference. The Society is composed of five leading officers of each church. Purposes of the Society are to help small churches acquire needed facilities and buy sites for new churches and help them get their first building units. Finances will come from Advance specials in budgets, Christmas offerings, and gifts of individuals and groups. Such gifts last year totaled about $8,800.

Methodist Society support last year was given to Holy Trinity Church which expects to begin construction this fall.

6. District News

In order to try to inform and inspire our people, we started publishing a four-page bi-monthly newsletter, the Greenville District News, which is mailed to the 2,000 charge conference members of the district.

NEW BERN DISTRICT

CHARLES H. MERCER, Superintendent

God has used the labors and talents of the faithful and dedicated pastors and laymen of the New Bern District in a marvelous way. We report a few of the results, but cannot adequately describe here all that has happened during the church year.

Our pastors have baptized 146 infants. We have received 281 members on profession of faith and 408 by transfer. Many persons who were members when the year began have grown in grace. The concept of Christian ministry has been more adequately developed and expressed.

During the year two new beautiful sanctuaries have been completed and consecrated: Midway at a cost of $55,000, and Garber at a cost of $122,000. An educational building and fellowship hall are now being constructed at Beech Grove. Other churches are in the process of developing plans to improve their physical facilities.

The Bogue Banks Resort Ministry continues to be a significant avenue of service in the Morehead City area. Also, we are encouraged by the opportunities which now seem possible through the Pamlico Parish.

The response of our churches in paying their acceptance for the Single Figure has been good and our progress has been remarkable. Acceptances for next year have been increased.

Much has been accomplished, though we know well the task is not completed. The achievements inspire us and remind us of what God can do through us.

RALEIGH DISTRICT

LEON RUSSELL, Superintendent

The end of another conference year becomes the occasion for more than a review of the program and activities of the Raleigh District; it is also the appropriate time for expressions of appreciation for the cooperation of pastors and people in the life and work of the church. A fine spirit has prevailed among us and together we have tried to do the whole work of Christ in every church. All of our pastors and members have been loyal and helpful, and we thank them now.

Every program of the church has been promoted, and gratifying results have been our reward. In evangelism we have seen growing congregations and a renewed spirit of dedication. Four hundred and eighty people have been won by profession of faith and one thousand and fifty have joined the churches by transfer. Thirty-one of our charges reported a net gain in membership.

We have experienced growth in the area of stewardship. Several thrusts have been made in stewardship cultivation and results are already apparent in the fact that more churches than before have had successful Every Member Visitation programs. A large number of our charges have oversubscribed their budgets for next year. Substantial increases have been accepted on salary in forty-four of the charges and the majority of our charges have accepted the increase which was asked for the Single Figure. It is significant that all of the younger churches in the district accepted more than the 10% which was expected.

During the year our churches' contributions to district work have made it possible for the long-standing indebtedness against the district parsonage to be removed.

One of the major concerns in many of our churches has been their building programs. On the Vance Charge the people have built a lovely new parsonage at a cost of $28,000. The people at Gillburg have completed a beautiful and adequate church building to replace their church which was destroyed by fire last year. The Louisburg and Fuquay Springs congregations moved back into beautiful and greatly improved sanctuaries early this year. A number of other churches have improved their properties at a cost of more than $100,000. Three churches, Wake Forest, Millbrook, and Cokesbury, on the Middleburg Charge, will begin construction in the immediate future to provide additional educational buildings and other facilities.

Many things have been done through this year to make more effective the life and ministry of the churches of the district and we are grateful to God and His guidance and for whatever success that has been achieved.

ROCKY MOUNT DISTRICT

PAUL CARRUTH, Superintendent

On December 26, 1944, as he was being transferred from Ankara, Turkey, to Paris, to be the Apostolic Nuncio in France, Angelo Roncalli, later to become Pope John XXIII, wrote to the Charge' d' Affairs, Mgr. Paolo Pappalardo, "If you hear anything good about me, praise the Lord as I do, for he has done all. If you hear any criticisms, pray for me that the Lord may forgive me if the criticisms are just and, if it is unjust, forgive whoever utters it." (Journal of a Soul, p. 261).

Because we can see and touch their reality, we value very highly the tangible achievements in the Rocky Mount District. This is true of the new educational buildings at Black Creek and Jackson. We are pleased with renovations such as that at Rehobeth. We delight in new parsonages like those completed at Mt. Zion and Spring Hope, the rebuilt new parsonage at Rosemary and the completed negotiations for the purchase of a new parsonage at Weldon. We take pride in the achievement represented in the beginning of construction of a new sanctuary at Scotland Neck, and the progress made in plans and financing looking toward the building of a new church at Shiloh.

No doubt, these achievements have their place of recognition before God. Still, it may be that in heaven's accounting, this year in the Rocky Mount District will be most noted for the 224 souls added to the Church by Confirmation. One hundred and nine infants were linked to the church through holy baptism, while 159 persons other than infants were baptized.

We are particularly pleased that four able college students have offered themselves as candidates for the ministry and have been recommended by their congregations for license to preach. One will be a junior at N. C. Wesleyan, one a senior at N. C. State, one a student at Duke Divinity School, and one a student at Harvard Divinity School.

Perhaps the sometimes discomforting but necessary labor of examining our life, our relationships, and our goals has been the most important work we have done. While we would like to report greater achievements in this area of responsibility, at least our pastors and people have made a beginning. Therefore, we praise the Lord, for he has done all.

SANFORD DISTRICT

JOYCE V. EARLY, Superintendent

It has been one of the greatest privileges of my life to be the spiritual leader of the Sanford District this year. The fifty dedicated pastors and more than 20,000 faithful laymen and laywomen have given a good account of the stewardship entrusted to them. I am grateful to them for their love and loyalty to me and for the great cause of the kingdom we have labored together to promote. The morale has been good and the sense of brotherhood has been excellent. A special word of appreciation is given to the Rev. V. E. Queen, former superintendent, who formed and presided over the district for six years, and who left it well organized and staffed.

EVANGELISM: This year 377 persons have made profession of faith in Christ, accepting Him as their Lord and Savior, with a grand total of 740 new members from all sources. Evangelism is the lifeline of the church and we have promoted it throughout the year. One hundred forty babies have been baptized. Confirmation classes have been held and Christian nurture stressed in the Church Schools, Vacation Church Schools, and special programs.

FINANCES: The district has paid about 98% of the Single Figure Askings for 1970-71, and accepted an increase of 7.560%, nearly $20,000, or $280,368 for the 1971-72 Conference year. Only seven charges failed to take any increase and 35 out of 50 charges accepted all that they were asked to accept! Pastors' salaries have been increased by $22,140.00 or 8% for the new year. Only five charges failed to grant an increase in salary. Only six charges receive minimum salary aid in the district!

The charges accepted $17,478.00 of the Ministerial Education Fund on an apportionment of $22,343.00. Almost every charge voted to put funds in the budget to send the North Carolina Christian Advocate to members of the Administrative Board for the new year. The special Christmas offering for Union Grove building fund amounted to $1,600, and the special appeal for the Peruvian earthquake victims amounted to $2,400.

BUILDING PROJECTS:

Caledonia: Plans are under study for educational building unit.

Candor: New sanctuary dedicated by Bishop Cannon on February 14, 1971.

Laurinburg, First: Installed new organ; subscribed over $93,000 on old indebtedness, and paid $25,000 on same.

Robbins: Parsonage air conditioned and other improvements made.

Roberdel: New $30,000 parsonage dedicated by Bishop Cannon February 14, 1971.

Rockingham, East: New parsonage now under construction. Also new Fellowship Hall and kitchen under construction at this writing.

Pee Dee: Parsonage air conditioned and improvements made.

St. John-Gibson: Parsonage improvements made.

Steele Street: New church planned with construction on a new site to begin soon. Estimated cost: $1,289,000.

Sanford Circuit: Mt. Olive Church completed; new furniture and pews added at Queen's Chapel; Union Grove: new church planned with construction to begin soon.

District Parsonage: A total of $10,550 has been paid on principal and interest on the district parsonage. Present debt: $23,967.

The future of the Church in the Sanford District will be as good and as great as the dedicated members want it to be. We accept the challenge and look to the future with great optimism and faith.

WILMINGTON DISTRICT

CLYDE G. MCCARVER, Superintendent

Any report of accomplishment on the Wilmington District must always point to the devoted and sacrificial service of a group of the finest ministers and laymen in the Annual Conference. Almost without exception each church has supported the total program of our great Conference.

PROGRAM

A Workshop on the Every Member Commitment was held at Grace Church in Wilmington. It was well attended and lasting results shall be realized in the future. We have had regular meetings of the District Program Staff which has added greatly to the effectiveness of our program. A Ministers' Spiritual Life Retreat was held at Lake Waccamaw. A Training Session for Delegates to Annual Conference was conducted which proved both interesting and, we hope, effective. Lay activities have been very numerous this year. Three areas of the district held Lay Speaker Training of two sessions each. This has caused a very fine "No Silent Pulpit" program. The total program of the Conference was presented and largely supported. The District Lay Rally was very well attended, despite adverse circumstances in Wilmington, at Sunset Park Church. Mr. Arvel Heafner, Jr. has given great leadership, along with his staff, to the lay activities programs. The Women's Society of Christian Service has enjoyed a good year under the capable leadership of Mrs. Crawford B. Hicks and her staff. Our youth have been led by the Reverend Paul Phillips in a fine manner.

Beach Ministries are being conducted this summer at Carolina Beach, Yaupon Beach, and Wrightsville Beach with the assistance of men from the Duke Endowment program.

BUILDING PROGRAMS

A new sanctuary has been built and consecrated at Shiloh on the Bolton Charge. Clarkton consecrated a lovely sanctuary and educational building. Whiteville Circuit dedicated a number of units in its sanctuary. The Bethel Church of the Bethel-Lebanon Charge dedicated its building. Dixon's Chapel on the Shallotte Circuit has made addition to its educational facilities. Oleander in Wilmington has built a fellowship hall.

Carver's Creek consecrated its new educational building. Hampstead and Oleander are in the planning stages of new parsonages.

MEMBERSHIP

We had added 256 members by profession of faith and 508 otherwise. The net gain was 315 at the point of this report.

FINANCES

The amount of $12,992 increase on the Single Figure was accepted for next year and $12,941 was accepted for the Ministerial Education Fund for next year.

While all churches have not paid out for the year at the time of this report (May), we feel confident that we shall have a good report when all payments are in. We feel that the majority of our charges have done a great job in the area of finances both this year and in pledging for the new year. We commend the good people of the district for the service and loyalty given.

Though the Wilmington District is not blessed by large cities, we feel that God is giving us a glorious opportunity and we are prayerfully undertaking to give our best efforts to the fulfillment of our stewardship. We feel that the best is yet to be!

THE DUKE ENDOWMENT

June 1, 1970-May 31, 1971

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL AFFAIRS

1970-1971

The Executive Committee of the Conference Commission on Ecumenical Affairs met at Methodist College on August 13, 1970, and made plans to meet jointly with the Western North Carolina Conference Commission on Ecumenical Affairs in a workshop to be held at Duke Memorial United Methodist Church on October 28-29. Leaders for the workshop were to be Dr. Robert Huston, of the General Commission on Ecumenical Affairs of the United Methodist Church, and a representative from the Board of Education in Nashville. Each District Director was expected to attend and all Commission members were invited. A Plan of Union was provided for each person who planned to attend and each was urged to read this book prior to the workshop.

Plans for the workshop were cancelled due to the fact that two workshops were being planned which would include representatives from all COCU denominations. These workshops would also be studying A Plan of Union.

One of these workshops was held in Statesville, March 5-6 and the other in Goldsboro, February 26-27. Approximately 25 representatives from the N. C. Conference Commission on Ecumenical Affairs attended the latter meeting. This meeting was not only attended by our Commission members, but also by the Cabinet and the Program Council.

Following the workshop, all-day meetings on COCU were held as follows:

Front Street United Methodist Church, Burlington, April 20
 Hilyer Memorial Christian Church, Raleigh, April 21
 First Christian Church, Williamston, April 22
 First Christian Church, Jacksonville, May 6
 Haymount United Methodist Church, Fayetteville, May 7

These were well attended by the Commission members and some of the leaders were members of the Commission.

Committee on General Church Ministry

CHRISTIAN WHITE, Chairman

1. Report for 1970-1971

This has been a year of transition, in which we have tried to define the nature and scope of our responsibility and have endeavored to develop channels of communication through the District Program Council to the local church. At this point in history, it appears that our committee must have a two-way thrust in order to be effective. We need to be open to the General Church and the opportunities it provides for training and guidance and open to the District Program Councils to aid them in giving help and counsel to the local church.

This becomes quite evident in the programs and enterprises which we have sponsored and/or participated in this past year. They are as follows:

A. Southeastern Jurisdiction Leadership and Laboratory School, Lake Junaluska, August 1-14, 1970: Designing Training Events 3; Workshop for Church Librarians 2; Advanced Training Certified Leaders 3; Adult Seminar and Laboratory 1; Elementary Seminar and Laboratory 1; Nursery Laboratory 2; Kindergarten Laboratory 7; Elementary Laboratory 4; Children and Youth in Laboratory Classes 12. Total—North Carolina Conference, 33. Five additional persons participated in the Weekend Conference on Local Church Council on Ministries.

B. Leadership Training and Laboratory Schools: Four leadership schools involved 59 churches and 252 local church people. Four laboratory enterprises involved 13 churches, 31 adult leaders-in-training, and 46 children and youth.

C. Twenty-five Workshops involved 166 churches and 707 local church leaders in training sessions of from two to five hours. These sessions focused on such subjects as curriculum, youth ministry, media for children and youth, group dynamics, family life, Council on Ministries, creative use of literature, understanding early teens, planning retreat, teacher training at all age levels, etc. Some of these involved only one church while others involved cluster groups of churches.

D. Interboard Wholistic Training: The Board of Education participated in the following interboard training and planning sessions:

1. Two-day Consultation on Leadership Development Strategy, October 6-7, 1970, at Camp Chestnut Ridge.
2. One-day Training Workshop on Planning Laboratory Events, December 14, 1970.
3. One-day meeting of Interboard Task Force on Wholistic Leadership Development, February 22, 1971, at the Methodist Building.

E. The chairman of this committee and the conference Associate Director-Nurture and Training attended a five-day national conference sponsored by the Board of Education of The United Methodist Church, October 25-28, 1970.

SECTION B

Committee on Children's Ministry

E. CLIFFORD SHOAF, Chairman

1. Report on 1970-71 Program

1. Teacher Improvement Workshops for teachers of children in the church school and VCS were conducted in each district during the month of April, 1971, under the guidance of the newly formed Council on Children's Ministries and the District Coordinators.

2. A Council on Children's Ministries was formed at the direction of the Board to conduct programs for teachers of children at the district and local church levels. In keeping with the "holistic" concept of ministry the Council membership has representatives from all the other Boards and agencies concerned with children. It was organized January 21, 1971, with Miss Kay Parks as chairman, and the District Coordinators as members. They immediately assumed responsibility for conducting the Teacher Improvement Workshops. They are prepared to do the field work for any other programs assigned to this Council by the Board of Education and the Program Council.

3. Training for teachers in the church-wide mission studies was shared in the districts by our coordinators with representatives of the Board of Missions.

4. The experimental Information Service for Children's Ministry (EXIS) began operations in November to provide workers with children special resources from a computer data bank. Under the leadership of Keith Glover and Dr. George Koehler from the General Board, our Conference workers with children are being used in a pilot program to facilitate the flow of information to local workers. Research evaluation of this project will be made next year to help design a continuing service for the whole church.

5. Our Camping Program for elementary children has been reviewed by our committee and recommendations made to the Camp Committee: (1) that children leaving the 3rd grade be included in the camp program, (2) that the two camps for mentally retarded be continued, (3) that the philosophy and camp program ingredients be carefully reviewed in light of changing needs and the availability of a new camp program curriculum.

6. Our Committee shared in the Priority Goals Workshop conducted by the Board of Education, November 4-5, and produced a list of priority needs for children's work which we have used to develop our program recommendations for next year.

7. The facilities and office of our Conference Coordinator of Children's Ministries have been used to accomplish the following: (1) guide and supply teacher training projects, (2) coordinate efforts to support state-sponsored experimental kindergartens, (3) support efforts to get the state to set standards for Day Care Services to children, (4) stimulate and interpret the use of the new cooperative week-day curriculum for children,

(5) work with the Music Committee to produce a children's choir camp, and (6) provide consultation on church building projects.

SECTION D

Committee on Young Adult Ministry

F. BELTON JOYNER, JR., Chairman

1. Report for 1970-71

1. Decision to discontinue effort to establish Raleigh Young Adult Information Center. It was determined that other agencies were already meeting this need and there did not seem to be a broad base of support for a Young Adult Information Center.
2. First accredited Young Adult Lab in The United Methodist Church. The lab was December 11-13, 1970, in Raleigh, with persons from seven churches taking part. Leadership was Miss Aileen Sanborn, Director of Laboratory Enterprises for The United Methodist Church, and the Reverend Lander Beal, Director of Young Adult Ministry for The United Methodist Church.
3. Follow-up meeting for participants on lab. On April 24, the Reverend Lander Beal will meet again with persons who took part in the Young Adult Lab. 4. Clearinghouse for information on young adult ministry. The Conference office has provided information about resources on young adult ministry and resources for use in that ministry. Several churches have had local consultations on young adult ministry.

SECTION E

Committee on Adult and Family Life Ministry

R. T. COMMANDER, Chairman

1. Report for 1970-71

A. Adult Curriculum

The Adult Bible Studies (International Lesson) continues to be the most popular study in the church school. Many adult groups have continued The Foundation Study series and several groups are using the new series "Faith in Christian Living." A Task Force is at work on a new adult Bible Study series. This new series is to be a three-year comprehensive study of the Bible. The emphasis will be on the meaning of the Scripture. It is being written for those interested in Bible study.

B. Leadership Development

Enrollment in Adult Leadership Development classes in the traditional Christian Workers Schools continue to decline. Adult Leadership Development in local churches and clusters of churches, however, was on the increase. The Coordinator of Adult Ministries participated in twenty-eight leadership enterprises at the local church level. Some leadership workshops were conducted by District Program Councils.

C. Family Camp

Family Camp was held at Camp Don-Lee, July 11-17, with 184 children, youth, and adults present for the two sessions. Present registrations for the 1971 sessions of Family Camp indicate a capacity enrollment.

D. Conferences

Two delegates attended the Leadership School at Lake Junaluska, and three delegates attended the National Family Life Conference in Chicago. The Conference "Summer R & R" at Methodist College was an outstanding feature of the year with excellent attendance.

SECTION F

Committee on Christian Educators and Music Ministry

H. LANGILL WATSON, Chairman

I. Christian Educators Section, WYATT BROWN, Chairman

A. Report for 1970-71

Thirty-six workers in Christian education are providing leadership for many churches of our conference. Even though their primary responsibility is educational ministry, they are concerned about the total life and ministry of the churches they serve. They also serve as resource leaders on conference, district, and cluster-group levels.

Nine of these workers are certified Directors of Christian Education, three are certified Ministers of Christian Education, and twenty-four are Educational Assistants. The nine Directors of Christian Education include Mrs. Carolyn Walton Williams of Smithfield who transferred from the Virginia Annual Conference this year, and Miss Wanda Gail Walker of Roxboro who is being certified at the 1971 Annual Conference.

The conference Board of Education provided an Orientation Session for Directors and Ministers of Christian Education and Educational Assistants at Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, December 14-15, 1970. Part of this session consisted of a Training Workshop on Planning Laboratory Enterprises led by Miss Aileen M. Sanborn of Nashville, Tenn., Director of Laboratory Enterprises, Division of the Local Church, Board of Education, The United Methodist Church.

1. Report of Christian Educators Fellowship, Reverend Fred Fal's, Minister of Christian Education, Front Street United Methodist Church, Burlington, President.

The North Carolina Chapter of the Christian Educators Fellowship has sought, during the year 1970-1971, to help congregations understand the role of the Christian educator and to encourage Christian educators to implement the objectives of Christian education, to learn to live with frustration, to keep up to date, to participate in activities on every relevant level, and to inspire the spirit of dedication and commitment.

We have sought to encourage Christian educators to be an enabler and facilitator (utilizing the legislative processes of the church), a listener, and expert in Christian education, a supporter of lay workers, a person who can provide leadership training to the lay personnel.

We have made available guidelines for churches who have workers in Christian education and those who seek to hire a worker in order to maintain standards for the worker in Christian education.

There are some plans being made that would increase the role of the Christian educator in the work of our church. We recognize that the Christian educator is a trained and talented worker in the church and can provide leadership on both the local church and conference levels. We are seeking ways in which we might give more service to the Annual Conference in terms of leadership education, serving on committees, and functioning as part of the planning team for our church.

II. Music Ministry Section, CHARLES MOORE, Chairman

A. Report for 1970-71

1. Plans are being completed for a Youth Music Workshop at Methodist College, June 14-19, 1971.
2. Fifty persons attended the Advanced Choral Music Workshop at East Carolina University.
3. Seventy-five persons took part in the Small Church Choir Music Workshop at Atlantic Christian College.
4. Fifteen persons attended the Music Workshop conducted by Cokesbury.
5. Plans have been made for a Handbell Festival for all churches in the conference who have handbell choirs.
6. Recommendations in the area of lay worker status, lay employee pension fund, and insurance program have all been implemented.

7. Articles on music ministry have been a continuing part of the program supplement of the North Carolina Christian Advocate.
8. The Board of Education sponsored a luncheon at the last annual conference for all certified and other full-time directors and ministers of music.
9. Several persons from our conference attended the Southeastern Jurisdiction Institute of Music at Lake Junaluska.
10. Contact has been made with conference leaders about the role of the Committee on Music Ministry in plans for R and R and Annual Conference.

A. Summer Resident Program

	Chestnut Ridge	Don-Lee	Rockfish	Total
1970	378	964	142	1,487
1969	325	1228	228	1,781
1968	375	967	221	1,563

B. Retreats and Day Use

	Chestnut Ridge	Don-Lee	Kerr Lake	Rockfish	Total
1970	3589	681	348	998	5,616
1969	3225	878	734	725	5,562
1968	2634	1257	327	752	4,970

C. Observations Related to Camp Use

1. There has been a steady increase in year-round use of the camp sites.
2. There has been an increase in the variety of groups using the camps for retreat-type programs.
3. There has been a growing interest on the part of other-than-Methodist groups and individuals in our camps and their programs.
4. There has been an increasing number of inquiries from outside the Conference. The latest out-of-state camper inquiries came from London and the Bahamas.
5. The average age of campers in the summer resident program is becoming younger.
- D. Camps for the Mentally Retarded. In 1970 two weeks of camping for the mentally retarded were offered, one at Don-Lee and one at Chestnut Ridge. Both were filled to capacity.
- E. Camp Scholarships. About 80 youngsters were helped to attend camp in 1970 through the Campership Fund. This was nearly twice the number for the preceding year.
- F. Development
 1. Chestnut Ridge. The new cabin given by the Mebane United Methodist Church was completed this year and is now in use. The total cost was approximately $11,000 of which the Mebane Church paid $7,000. The cabin is self-contained in that it has a small kitchenette, meeting-eating area, and beds for 12 persons. It can combine with one of the other cabins for small group retreats or used as part of the Crane Crest unit.
 2. Don Lee. This has been a year of major effort and investment in the renovation of Camp Don-Lee. The following projects have been completed this year:
 - a. The new beach completed, including dredging, grading, and seeding.
 - b. Renovation of the pier.
 - c. Painting of the cabins inside and out and other buildings on the outside.
 - d. New beds and mattresses.

- e. Improved roads.
- f. Cleaning the pool.
- g. Renovation of girls' bathhouse.
- h. Improvements in the kitchen and in the dietitian's apartment.
- i. New roofs on all buildings.
- j. Tent-trailer camping sites.

There have been two other important additions to the program at Don-Lee this year.

Mr. Ralph Keel, of Grantsboro, has been hired as Camp Manager. He brings to Don-Lee some much-needed help in the supervision and care of the grounds and property. He will work with Alfonzie Cox, Camp Caretaker, who has been with Camp Don-Lee since its beginning more than 20 years ago. In cooperation with Mrs. Gatlin, Camp Dietitian, Mr. Keel will also help with retreat groups, picnics, and other year-round use of the camp.

The gift to the camp by Mr. and Mrs. Walter Teich of a 36-foot Pacemaker boat will make possible some additional explorations, especially by the long-term campers. An experienced skipper has been secured for short excursions in the areas of Morehead City, Harkers Island, Cape Lookout, and Shakelford Banks. Contacts have also been made with the Duke and UNC Marine Biology labs in Beaufort for resource consultants for these explorations. The new curriculum material this year is in the area of ecology and other environmental issues, posing some possibilities at each of the camps.

These improvements at Don-Lee are to be dedicated on June 19 during a day of special activities, with Bishop Cannon leading a service of dedication.

3. Kerr Lake has also been the center of a great deal of activity this year. The following is a list of some of the new developments there:

- a. Completion of the bathhouse by the Methodist Men of the Englewood United Methodist Church of Rocky Mount.
- b. Completion of the beautiful new multi-purpose pavillion, being given principally by the Fairmont United Methodist Church of Raleigh.
- c. Clearing, grading and seeding of the picnic area.
- d. Electric power lines.
- e. New well and water system.
- f. Improved roads.
- g. Parking lot.
- h. Boat ramp.
- i. Swimming area.
- j. Tent-trailer parking sites with water and electricity connections.

One of the most exciting developments at Camp Kerr Lake is the addition of a student in residence this summer. This is made possible by the Camp Crusade and the cooperation of Duke Divinity School. A mobile home has been purchased and Mr. Steve Rutherford and his wife Karen have been assigned to this resort ministry by the Duke Field Work office.

These improvements were dedicated during a day of celebration and special activities on May 23.

4. Rockfish. The program at Camp Rockfish this summer will feature several new developments, including:

- a. An enlarged and improved waterfront.
- b. A new outpost location which can be reached by canoe or by hiking trail.
- c. A special program during the second session which allows local groups to come to camp with their own counselors. The camp will provide the program director and staff for waterfront and food services. This provides opportunity for local groups to do their own camping for varying lengths of time under the supervision of the camp staff. The cost is, of course, adjusted because leadership is shared.

G. Camp Crusade.

Most of the badly-needed improvements listed in the above report have been made possible through the Camp Crusade. No projects or improvements have been undertaken until funds are available.

The Committee on Camps and Conferences wishes to express appreciation to the many persons and groups who have contributed and who continue to support these efforts to develop and maintain our camp facilities.

A special word of appreciation is in order for Dr. and Mrs. C. P. Morris for their continuing devoted and tireless service for their work with the Camp Crusade.

Because it has had outstanding leadership and broadly-based support from its very beginning more than two decades ago, camping in the North Carolina Conference is recognized across the country as one of the most comprehensive and effective programs of Christian education out-of-doors to be found anywhere.

This program would not be possible, of course, without adequate facilities, as well as local church commitment and support. With that interest and support, however, we can continue to provide a camping ministry of which we can be proud and in which we and our children can participate confidently.

A financial report of the Camp Crusade was made to the district conference earlier this year. A summary of that report with some minor updating is included below:

Crusade Receipts to March 31, 1971

II. Resignation of Dr. Robert E. Cushman as Dean of the Duke Divinity School

At its fall meeting held November 9, 1970, the commission was informed of the resignation of Dr. Robert E. Cushman as Dean of the Duke Divinity School. The following resolution was unanimously adopted and copies submitted to Dr. Terry S. Sanford, president of Duke University; Dr. Kenneth Pye, chancellor of the university; Mr. Charles Wade, chairman of the Board of Trustees; and Dean Cushman:

"The Commission takes note of the resignation of Dr. Robert E. Cushman as Dean of Duke Divinity School, and, while recognizing his need to be relieved of the increasing burdens of the office, we express regret over the loss of the leadership of one of the country's foremost theological educators from a post of strategic importance for the United Methodist Church in particular and the entire Christian community in general.

"Recognizing that our Methodist seminaries are beset by pressures that would distract them from their central purpose of education for church ministries, we call on the President, the Chancellor, the Provost, and the Trustees of Duke University to implement the University's historic commitment as stated in the Indenture of the Duke Endowment, to the preparation of Christian ministers, which was endorsed by President Sanford in his inaugural address.

"To this end, the Commission wishes to make itself available to the University Administration for any assistance the Administration may deem appropriate in the selection of a new Dean who will understand his office in terms of the basic purposes of the Divinity School, as we understand them. We are indebted to the Divinity School for the share it has had in the education of a large proportion of the ministers of this Conference, and, at the same time, we are alarmed that the percentage of our incoming ministers that come from Duke is diminishing. It is our hope that cooperation among all parties who have a stake in the operation of the School may result in its greater usefulness in education of ministry for the Church."

III. Capital Funds Crusade

While our Capital Funds Crusade has been officially terminated, the need for additional funds for debt retirement and the enhancement of academic programs of our colleges continue. We commend those churches that continue to honor their commitments and still make payments through the conference treasurer's office. A number of churches have made payments on their College Crusade pledges during the 1970-1971 Conference year. Even though the total amount has not been large, it is significant that these churches continue to honor their commitments. The conference treasurer reports that, as of April 28, 1971, $15,787.60 has been received for this cause. We also support the efforts of our colleges to secure additional funds through general campaigns and private solicitations.

IV. Race Relations Sunday Offering

In response to the request of the 1970 General Conference that annual conferences quadruple their Race Relations Sunday offerings for the support of the twelve black colleges historically related to the United Methodist Church in each of the last two years of the quadrennium, an annual goal of $35,000 was set for our North Carolina Conference. It now appears that this goal will not be met but there will be an increase over the total of $6,116.05 for the previous year. The conference treasurer reports that, as of April 28, 1971, $7,062.29 has been raised for this cause.

For 1971-1972, we have recommended that the Race Relations Sunday offering be distributed as follows: Paine College, an amount equal to that which it will receive in 1970-1971; Bennett College, that amount received above the Paine College commitment.

V. Study of Conference-Related Colleges

The 1970 session of our conference authorized the Conference Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry to make a study of the relationship of the conference and the colleges. A committee was appointed and meetings were held with representatives of Louisburg, North Carolina Wesleyan, and Methodist Colleges, conference officials, and agencies of the National Church in preparation for a study to be made during the 1971-1972 Conference year. A major report to the 1972 Annual Conferences, therefore, will be made. The report must include careful study and review of the conference commitment to Christian Higher Education and recommend a conference policy in unmistakable terms so that we can be guided to appropriate action during the next quadrennium and beyond.

In the assessment of a conference policy, the following must be studied: the role of each college (Louisburg, North Carolina Wesleyan, and Methodist); an evaluation of the contributions of each of the above; the relationship of the North Carolina Conference to Duke University, Greensboro College, High Point College, and Bennett College; and the level of conference support which will be needed to maintain both quality of institution and the historic relationship of this conference to Christian higher education. Two studies leading to possible state support of North Carolina students enrolling in private colleges and to the institutions themselves have been in progress during 1970-71. Both of these state-wide studies have made recommendations to the North Carolina General Assembly and any action, positively or negatively, will have a direct bearing upon the future of the conference colleges. Federal support is also at a stage where conclusions are not possible at this time.

Thus, it is apparent that the 1972 Annual Conference will be called upon to make major decisions concerning the future of Christian higher education in the North Carolina Conference.

Regional Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry

Report for 1970-1971

The Regional Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry, continuing as last year to operate without an employed State Director, is pleased to report that the Campus Ministry has been carried out this year with a full complement of ministers, except at North Carolina Central University, where we are engaged in support of an ecumenical approach to campus work. The work of our eleven campus ministers (two of whom are serving on a part-time basis) has been marked by a number of highly creative approaches that give promise of a new and more effective service in what is one of the most challenging and most difficult areas of Christian ministry today. The Commission wishes to commend these men and women, together with their local boards of directors, for the high caliber of the service they are rendering.

We commend to the local churches of our Conferences these campus servants and would encourage them to take the initiative in seeking to bring church and campus doser together by invitations to the campus ministers to visit and interpret programs, by visits to the sites of campus ministry, and by ministerial promotion of support in thought, sympathetic understanding, and money.

The institutions where campus ministry is supported are the same as last year. Requests have been received for support at other colleges and universities. These are under consideration. The prospect for establishing work on new campuses, however, must await additional funds not now available to the Commission. It is imperative that our Conferences be aware that Methodist ministry cannot keep pace with the burgeoning and scattered state university system without allocation of sufficient funds.

The adopted direction of the Regional Commission is that of Ecumenical Ministries. Under the guidance of the UMHE (United Ministries in Higher Education) the Commission is working with several denominations to establish at least a minimal organization to expedite ecumenical ventures. Already the ministry at Duke is organized ecumenically. At UNC-Charlotte, 1971-1972 will see the Methodists in joint support with the Presbyterians initiate a full-time campus ministry program. On the North Carolina Central University campus we have shared support of a campus minister and his program. (This work has been inactive for the past year). We have cooperated in the Presbyterian research into personnel and financial resources available to the campus programs of the major Protestant denominations of the state.

A significant change approved for 1971-72 is the enlargement of the work at A. and T. University into full-time, from the part-time status of many years' standing.

One area of the Regional Commission's responsibility—Christian Higher Education—has been under development during the year, with guidance from the standing committee for that area. Plans are being furthered for a Bishop's Conference in which the critical issues of the church college will be explored on a state-wide basis. The committee seeks also to be of assistance in bringing about a further coordination of college work and in finding new resources to cope with the rapidly rising cost of higher education in private institutions.

In November 1970, as a result of the resignation of Chairman O. Kelly Ingram, Philip L. Shore, Jr. was elected Chairman; Thomas A. Collins is Vice-Chairman. The state office was moved from Durham to Thomasville, and Mrs. Philip L. Shore, Jr. serves as secretary.

Changes in personnel for the year include the resignation of Fred Macon at UNC-Greensboro and that of Miss Helen Crotwell at Duke. Douglas Camp has been elected to succeed Mr. Macon. Miss Crotwell's resignation will become effective at a later date and no successor has been chosen. Resolutions of appreciation for the services of Mr. Ingram, Miss Crotwell, and Mr. Macon were adopted by the Commission at its March meeting.

The Regional Commission continues to operate on a very tight budget. Inflation and appropriate salary increases, together with essential major maintenance requirements, dictate the necessity of our looking toward increasing support for this field of service. This necessity is of even greater urgency in the light of requests from other state-supported institutions that they be included in our campus ministry.

We speak the gratitude of the entire Commission to all the members of the two Conferences for unflagging support in the past year and the assurance of continued undergirding in 1971-1972.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON ENLISTMENT FOR CHURCH OCCUPATIONS

The Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations is charged with the responsibility for promoting among youth and adults a philosophy for Christian vocations that recognizes the potential sacredness of all useful work and all opportunities for Christian service. It is further called on by the church to present to youth and adults the opportunities for the pastoral ministry and inform them of the necessary steps of preparation; to keep accurate and useful records of each person having indicated an interest in a church occupation. With the above in mind, the Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations has done the following:

1. Dialogue session led by Bishop William R. Cannon with Wesley Foundation students at Duke University. This meeting was a very significant one and was received extremely well by the students. We wish to express appreciation to Bishop Cannon for giving of his time and for the manner in which he so clearly related the church's position on a number of important issues concerning these students.

2. Guidance and Testing Clinic was held at Wesleyan College, Rocky Mount, N. C. This clinic was conducted for high school sophomores, juniors, and seniors on April 2 and 3, 1971. Because of the overwhelming response given to this clinic, our Commission will sponsor three such weekends during the next Conference year.
3. A central filing system was established and a record will be kept on persons interested in the pastoral ministry and other church employment. This file will be kept in the Program Council Director's office and will be updated each year.
4. In an effort to promote Ministry Sunday a joint letter from the Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations and the Board of the Ministry was mailed to every pastor in the North Carolina Conference.
5. A special luncheon was held at Haymount United Methodist Church on Monday, May 31, by this Commission and the Board of the Ministry for candidates coming into full connection at the 1971 Annual Conference.
6. A Changing Careers Retreat was conducted on April 16, 1971 in Raleigh. This was an attempt to be of assistance to persons in all types of situations who might be considering a change in employment.
7. Lay Scholarship offerings were received at all Lay Rallies and a number of scholarships were presented to deserving students.
8. This Commission Chairman, as a member of the Interboard Committee on Church Occupations for the national church, attended the Annual Board meeting in Nashville, Tennessee, on October 16, 1970. The following is a brief report on our United Methodist Voluntary Service Program: Presently there are 743 volunteers in the program with 33 persons now actively involved and 412 have already served. Funds from the 1972 Call to Prayer and Self-Denial will be made available to the United Methodist Voluntary Service.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM 1970-71

The small decrease in the number of Methodist Christians in the North Carolina Conference as reported at the last Annual Conference has startled most of our pastors and lay leaders out of a gradually developed attitude that "Evangelism, being a prime objective of the Church, would take care of itself." While it may take several years to reverse the trend, we of the Board of Evangelism have worked throughout this past year to begin . . . by learning and offering consultant services in each district.

While we have not had a full-time executive director, as in the past, we have endeavored to become a part of the Program Council in spirit as well as fact and so work through and with that collective agency of our entire Conference and in cooperation with all other agencies.

We commend the Reverend LaFon C. Vereen and the Reverend C. P. Morris for their help in coordinating our annual program as presented in June of 1970. We feel particularly honored that our pilot program for the past year has been a prime basis for the general Board of Evangelism's Design For Witness program, which has been thoroughly developed and is commended to you for the ensuing year.

Attendance at meetings of the Conference Board has been generally good with spirited discussion and interchange. We move to support the Program Council recommendations as to purpose and priorities with the understanding that the purpose include the "Divine Imperative."

The Board of Evangelism was well represented at the Summer R & R with Evangelism workshops and the Bible Study on "The Book of Psalms" conducted by the Board President as a theme for the entire retreat.

Five members of the Board attended the Candler Camp Meeting and Workshop on Evangelism at Lake Junaluska July 26-31, 1970.

The summer beach ministries were uniformly successful. The Circus Tent at Kitty Hawk had crowds of more than 50,000 during its nine-weeks season. Greater numbers of young adults were involved in scheduled discussion sessions and the project is moving toward a self-supporting status.

At Atlantic Beach the Koinonia Coffee House, an ecumenical ministry on the Bogue Banks of which the United Methodist Church has been one of the moving forces, has reached nearly a hundred thousand people in its varied projects.

A workshop for the District Secretaries of Evangelism was conducted by the Reverend LaFon Vereen and the Reverend Charles Whittle of the General Board of Evangelism on November 11, 1970 and attended by all but two of the District Secretaries. Reverend Whittle offered his services for District Pastors' Retreats with an emphasis on Evangelism and four of the District Secretaries conducted such retreats with Charles Whittle during the course of the Conference year. Eight other pastors' retreats were held in various districts.

Out of these retreats grew an invitation by the Reverend Whittle to a number of Evangelistic leaders in the Conference to participate in an Evangelistic Crusade in the Pacific Northwest. In sharing with others, our leaders, who participated, also found a new spiritual life and growth.

Again, the Board of Evangelism has joined with the Board of Laity in emphasizing the values of the Lay Witness Mission. The Board has reports of 28 of these missions in our Conference this year. All reports have been intensely enthusiastic.

Nine delegates were sponsored by the Board of Evangelism in attendance at the Congress on Evangelism at New Orleans in January, 1971. Four other delegates also attended and were certified, bringing the N. C. Conference attendance up to the top level among the official Conference registrants. All in attendance reported a positive enthusiasm generated by the Conference, which gave all a sense of reawakening to the Evangelistic imperative . . . along with broadened insight and new ideas.

During the year several groups have met in preparation for a broad range of projects leading toward "Key 73," including the planning of Evangelistic crusades to be held jointly with the N. C. Southern Baptist Convention. Three joint rallies were planned for the fall of 1971. Other local church "Key 73" Evangelistic endeavors are in the planning stage.

The Board continued to affirm its affiliation with and support of the Commission on Worship by co-sponsoring the Bishop's Meetings with Young Methodists and Joint Seminars on Worship and Evangelism during the spring.

Our Executive Committee has been enlarged, by the vote of the Board at large, and the number of general meetings decreased from two annually to one. The role of the Reverend R. L. Bame as Conference Secretary of Evangelism has been emphasized and he has been made particularly responsible for liaison with the District Secretaries in an attempt to implement our annual program with the greater possible effectiveness. He reports that in each instance where a local church pastor has followed the program recommendations of the Board from the training of inactive members and/or uncommitted church members through the discovery of the uncommitted in local parishes combined with the use of Visitation-Evangelism, prayer groups and study sessions with United Methodist Membership Materials and confirmation classes using our confirmation materials there have been great gains in committed membership. We affirm that it is not the gain in membership, but the genuinely converted heart born anew in Christ and committed to all of His precepts and teachings that is important.

While we believe that statistical results will be on the upswing, we believe that it is more important that these will show a greater depth of commitment than has been demonstrated in recent years. We are grateful for the faithful work which has been done in the field of Evangelism this year and for its obvious effects as displayed by the coming of Christ into individual lives and the change that is already beginning to reflect in the society of man under the Fatherhood of God, the grace of His Son, the Lord Jesus Christ and the steadfast presence of His Holy Spirit!

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES

No. 1

Our Conference Board of Health and Welfare Ministries continues to seek ways and means of enlarging and expanding the ministry of our Church in this vital area of meeting human need and assisting in human development. We feel that the Church has a very real responsibility in this area of concern.

The work of the Board is handled through five standing committees: Golden Cross, Retirement Home, Children's Home, Long Range Planning, Nominating. These committees function on a continuing basis through the direction of the Board. Such direction is provided in two meetings between the Annual Conference—September and February. An Executive Committee, composed of chairmen of the standing committees and officers of the Board, meets two to three times a year to give further direction to the work and responsibilities of the Board. (The recommendations of these committees is found in The Book of Recommendations to the Annual Conference.)

The Board maintains an active relationship with the National Board of Health and Welfare Ministries and has a voting membership in this organization. This year, 1971, the Chairman and Secretary of the Board attended the National Convention in Denver, Colorado.

The Board has sought this year to find ways and means of strengthening the existing program ministries—the Methodist Home for Children, the Retirement Home, the Pastoral Care and Pastoral Education programs at Duke Hospital, the Good Shepherd Home at Lake Waccamaw, Golden Cross. (Reports from these program agencies are included elsewhere in this report.)

The Board is seeking to initiate new ministries within this area of concern. We are, at present, seeking to strengthen the work of SEMAR (Southeastern Methodist Agency for the Retarded). Our Long Range Planning Committee has several additional programs under study.

We seek the continued support of the Annual Conference as we try to strengthen our witness and ministry in this area of concern.

TRUSTEES OF THE METHODIST HOME FOR CHILDREN, INC.

PART I — REVIEW OF THE YEAR

The Conference year 1970-71 has been devoted primarily to careful efforts to refine and improve the services provided for children by the Methodist Home for Children. There have been no radical changes.

The older students are being involved more and more in making plans and decisions that affect them more directly. One way in which this is expressed is in the conferences held at the time a child is admitted, and annually thereafter, for the purpose of making plans for his life at the Methodist Home. These conferences include the child involved, as many members of his family as can attend and the members of our staff who will be involved in his care. In these conferences everyone faces realistically the reasons why the child is being cared for by the Methodist Home. Definite goals are set. The responsibility of the child, his family and the Methodist Home are discussed until they are clearly understood. The child is helped to understand that he has a real contribution to make toward the success of his life at the Methodist Home. This philosophy of involving the child in these decisions is applied with reference to school, his life in the cottage, his participation in all kinds of community activities and in the planning of campus activities.

A notable aspect of our educational program is the recruitment and use of approximately ninety volunteer workers who serve as tutors under the supervision of a regular member of our staff. The tutors provide individual help for specific children on a continuing basis from week to week. The response from the children has been quite positive and many of them have shown marked improvement in their attitudes and motivation, as well as in their educational achievements.

Miss Minnie Burton, one of our senior girls, died on March 19, as the result of a heart attack. This is the first death that has occurred on our campus in more than ten years. It was a traumatic experience for all of our children, but the staff and the children handled the experience in a commendable way. Minnie had a congenital heart defect for which corrective surgery had been performed in 1963. The funeral was conducted in Edenton Street Church, attended by a great host of young people from the community as well as the Methodist Home family and Edenton Street Church people. Interment was in the Methodist Home burial plot in Oakwood Cemetery.

One interesting experiment this year has been an arrangement with the School of Social Work of the University of North Carolina for eight graduate students to do their field work placement at the Methodist Home for Children under the supervision of our staff. These students have actually given approximately half-time during the year and have functioned as regular members of our staff. Six of them have been assigned to work as caseworkers and two of them have been assigned to group work projects.

Certain improvements have been made to our property. A new water main system to provide adequate fire protection was installed. Most of the Glenwood Avenue frontage of the campus has been graded and is in the process of being developed with the hope that this area along Glenwood Avenue will become one of the very attractive parts of our campus. A plan for the replacement of our vehicles has been adopted and the first step was the replacement of one of our busses, which was fourteen years of age, with a new 48-passenger Chevrolet school bus. This particular school bus will be the coupon project for the current year. We hope to be able to raise the funds for this particular vehicle by the collection of coupons and trading stamps. A home has been purchased in the Cameron Park area of the city to be used as a group home. It is planned to assign older boys approaching graduation to live in this house under the supervision of a house-parent couple under conditions in which they can take much more responsibility for themselves in the management of their finances and personal life than is possible on our campus. In this way we hope to better prepare these students for graduation. The architectural firm of Adams and Pegram in Statesville, North Carolina, has been engaged to provide architectural assistance in the preparation of plans for the two new cottages to be built and for the renovation of the present buildings on our campus. The architects are working on preliminary plans for this project.

PART II — PLANS FOR THE FUTURE

The staff, the trustee committees, and the Long Range Planning Committee have been working on long-range plans for several years utilizing a study and recommendations made by Dr. A'an Keith-Lucas of the Group Child Care Consultant Services, Chapel Hill. These efforts have culminated in the adoption, by the Board of Trustees in April 1971, of a proposed "Long Range Plan for Development" on the recommendations of the Long Range Planning Committee. This plan included many decisions that have already been made over the past two years together with additional ones that needed to be made to complete the plan. The plan as adopted by the Board of Trustees is too long and involved to be included in this report but it may be summarized as follows:

SECTION I — OBJECTIVES AND GOALS

To provide services in the variety and quality needed by the children accepted and their families in keeping with the standards established by recognized standard setting agencies—church, governmental and professional and to use the available resources of the church and community as well as of the Methodist Home for Children to the best advantage.

SECTION II—FIVE-YEAR PLAN OF ACTION—1971-1975

Child Care—Involve each child, as appropriate for his stage of development, in the planning and decision-making processes that affect him. Make good use of all community resources and opportunities to help the child (1) develop a community consciousness, and (2) develop appropriate skills and ability to function as a member of the community. Develop more fully the "family style" living plan for each cottage living group. Limit each cottage living group to a maximum of twelve children except in short term emergencies and limit the Raleigh campus to twelve such cottage living groups. Develop two off-campus group homes calculated to prepare youth for the assumption of full adult responsibilities when they graduate from high school—one for boys and one for girls.

Personnel—Add to the present personnel policies as soon as possible the following: (1) adequate retirement plan, (2) adequate health insurance, (3) some life insurance, and (4) financial grants for further education for selected staff members under appropriate conditions. In the light of experience and the changing employment conditions in the community revise the current salary schedules and job descriptions.

Business—Develop additional sources of income for operation and secure funding for expansion and new projects from foundations and government sources.

Plant—Develop the Raleigh campus to serve a maximum of 144 children living in twelve cottages. This will require the construction of one additional cottage and the renovation or replacement of several of our buildings. The development of the campus will include space and equipment for recreation in addition to the cottages, adequate living quarters for staff who need to live on campus, and adequate office space and equipment for those requiring such facilities.

Group Homes (Off-Campus)—Purchase and equip a suitable home for girls similar to the one now ready for boys.

Social Service—Establish as a social work staff pattern a ratio of one social worker (not including the Director and office personnel) to each thirty to thirty-five children in care and increase the present staff at the rate of one additional worker each year until the proper ratio has been attained. Recruit additional foster homes and use them as needed for a maximum of thirty children.

Planning for the Future—During this five-year period and in the light of the rapidly changing picture of child welfare services in our area, the staff, the trustee committees, the Long Range Committee and professional consultants will be engaged in a continual process of review and re-evaluation of our existing program and of the needs for services to children in addition to those already provided by the Methodist Home.

THE METHODIST RETIREMENT HOMES, INC.

The North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church in its concern for the needs of all its members realized that there were ministers, ministers' widows, and lay people who, after long years of service to the Church and the community, were spending the latter years of their lives with no one to care for them.

The North Carolina Conference accepted the challenge and on September 1, 1955, the Home in Durham was opened. Its capacity has increased from 40 to 200. The Home has domiciliary facilities for 125, 42 apartments and 48 beds for skilled nursing care.

The Home located in Durham is operated by a Board of Trustees elected by the Conference. Though much support has come through gifts from individuals and through bequests, the major financial support has come through an item in the budget of the Churches of the North Carolina Conference. This is used for mortgage payments and benevolent work.

The basic requirements for admission are a minimum age of 65 (62 for apartments), there is no maximum age limit, a life of service to the Church and the community and the need for the services The Home has to offer. Preference is given to Methodists who are members of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church. Eighty-five percent of the members in the Home are members of the North Carolina Conference. The other fifteen percent are in The Home because they have made a real contribution to their church and community or their children are active in the North Carolina Conference.

Though the decision regarding admission is left to The Home's medical committee after an entrance physical examination, the rule of thumb has been for the member to be able to keep his room with weekly maid service, dress himself, and go to the dining room. Once The Home accepts a member, it keeps him for life. Twenty-five percent of the members will be receiving nursing care at any one time.

The Home has an excellent relationship with Duke University Medical Center and unless the member requests otherwise, he will be sent to Duke Hospital when hospitalization is needed. He will be returned to The Home as soon as he is released from the hospital.

The prospective member will file an application which will place him under no obligation. The Admissions Committee of The Home will consider the application and if the basic requirements are met, the member will be accepted tentative to there being a vacancy, the approval of The Home's physician after an entrance physical examination and the working out of financial arrangements.

The Home operates like the church, with members paying according to their ability. The Board of Trustees sets the rate at the current operating costs exclusive of depreciation or interest on investment. This is considerably less than the actual total cost of maintaining a member in The Home but it is an amount that a reasonable number of people can pay. The actual charge for an individual is based on the member's ability to pay, the member's physical condition at the time of entry, that is, how soon The Home's physician feels the member might be moving more or less permanently to The Home's Health Care Center, and the member's life expectancy. Some members pay more than the rate per month, either because they have the ability and desire to do so, or because they are requiring an unusual amount of medical and nursing care. There are those who cannot pay as much as the monthly rate. They receive Old Age Assistance and their care is supplemented through the benevolent program of the Church and through special gifts and bequests. Less than thirty percent of the members of The Home have sufficient assets to keep them at the current rate for their life expectancy.

Almost fifty percent of the members in the main building are Old Age Assistance recipients. No one has been turned away because of lack of finances. The cost of caring for an older person is increasing, not just with the general cost of living, but with hospital costs. Industry can become mechanized but there is no way to speed up or mechanize the giving of a bed-bath, spoon-feeding a person, or dressing or walking a crippled or handicapped person. There is no way to mechanize tender loving care which means so much to older persons. This means that when salaries double, the employee will not give twice as many baths, but each bath will cost twice as much.

The current rate of $275 per month charged to members is approximately $100 per month less than the actual cost of care. Some members will reimburse The Home for this by monies left in their wills.

Over fifty percent of the members in The Home are on a life contract. Only one-third of the members in The Home are Old Age Assistance recipients receiving part of their support from the Department of Social Services. The protection and security given the members when they enter into a life contract agreement with The Home prevents many problems that will come later and at the same time add to the happiness and contentment of the members.

If The Home is to give security to its members, it must remain financially solvent. The trustees of The Home feel a moral obligation to the Church to secure all funds available from legitimate means, such as payment for the members, public funds, and then use gifts from the Church to supplement this to make available the services to the members.

To occupy one of The Home's apartments, the member or members must be acceptable as paying members of The Home. In addition, they will make a capital gift of $10,000, which will give them the right to occupy an apartment as long as they are members of The Home though they may move into the main building on their request or on doctor's orders, thus releasing the apartment.

There are twenty million people in the United States over 65 years of age. This number will double within the next few years. Approximately 25,000 members of the North Carolina Conference are over 65 years of age and at least 6,000 are daily requiring someone to care for them.

With it becoming increasingly less possible to find someone to go into a private home to care for an aging or sick person, people must turn to a boarding, nursing, retirement home or hospital to find care for their loved ones. With steadily increasing cost more will depend upon the government or a benevolent organization to provide these services. In the foreseeable future thousands of members of our Conference will seek these services in a home provided by their Church for their church home offers the plus which Christian people need and deserve.

Many people have been misled in thinking that medicare will provide for all nursing care when needed. This is far from the truth and as people discover this, they are turning to the Church. If your Church is to meet the needs of its old and lonely members, it must make additional facilities available to care for more retired people and to care for the chronically ill. The Board of Trustees continues to be interested in making available another home strategically located within the Conference.

The trustees are aware of the fact that many people with good intentions of entering a retirement home through a stroke, a fall or some other sudden tragic experience, find themselves chronically ill or nursing cases. The Board of Trustees has appointed a committee to study the need for and a method of financing a Health Care Center strategically located within the Conference. The trustees will welcome help from individuals and groups for making these facilities a reality.

Bishop William R. Cannon reminds us "from time to time to think about our own home and the love and care our parents have given to us in the past. When we were little children, we were entirely dependent upon them and the responsibility of our well-being was on their shoulders.

"As our parents grow older the role is reversed and they are dependent upon us for the love and care, often the financial support and all else that makes for their well-being and happiness. We are glad to look after our own but we should extend this beyond our own family circle to all those we know who are aging and need help. When we think about our own mothers and fathers we should think about the mothers and fathers of the whole world, especially those within the bounds of our Conference who live about us. Therefore, we should generously support The Methodist Retirement Home in Durham. It is an institution which at the same time is a home for many. Older people find there the strength and sustenance of the family circle. These people are people of God, and a real community has been created for them at The Methodist Retirement Home in Durham. For this Home to adequately function and provide for all its needs we must give and give generously to it. If we are going to meet the needs of the retired people of our Conference we must make it possible for our Church to provide additional facilities for retirement and for the care of nursing cases and the chronically ill.

"May God bless you and you in turn are made a blessing to others."

DUKE UNIVERSITY MEDICAL CENTER

P. WESLEY AITKEN, Chaplain

The Pastoral Care and Pastoral Education programs at Duke Hospital have reached their maximum size in all areas this year. In terms of pastoral care to patients, during this Spring semester, there are fourteen chaplains and twenty-seven student ministers available to patients and their families for ministry. Even though the capacity of the hospital continues to be expanded, at present we feel we have reached our saturation point. We fully respect, and try to protect, the right of any patient not to see a clergyman, but we also believe that no patient should be denied this opportunity if he discloses his wishes in any way. Pastoral care is truly an integral part of patient care at Duke Hospital. Clear evidence of Duke University Medical Center's commitment to this belief (good patient care includes good pastoral care) is seen in the fact that, for the year 1970-71, it will have spent $25,195 for pastoral care of patients which they pay to our staff of trainees as salary "for service rendered," and not as educational scholarships. In terms of Pastoral Education, all programs offered in the Medical Center (other than the short-term Pastoral Care Clinics or Workshops) are creditable toward degrees in education for the ministry. Any minister may apply for any program in the Medical Center as a non-degree program as well. The financial support provided by the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries is vitally important to the ongoing programs in Pastoral Care and Pastoral Education. We express our appreciation for it, request its continuation, and urge that it be increased whenever possible.

GOOD SHEPHERD HOME

J. C. (CHICK) DUNN, Director

We at Good Shepherd Home are privileged to have concerned people to support our endeavor to help alcoholics to be regenerated in Christ Jesus. We have had 2150 men since opening July 1956. Having an average of about 150 men per year, last year we had 160 men at a cost of $32,000. Our expenses keep increasing with the rise in cost of living. Our contributions have increased also, but this has not been so easy to accomplish at times.

We have operated at full capacity for nine of twelve months with a waiting list. And since we make no charge for these men to stay with us a required eight weeks, we must continue to look to you who are interested in fulfilling His words: "Whatsoever ye do to the least of these my brethren, ye do also unto me." It is our hope that all men be given opportunity to become 'new creatures in Him.'

Most all ministers and laymen alike who have served on the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries (formerly Hospitals and Homes), and especially the committee of the Golden Cross, have understood, cared, and supported our efforts at the Home. This interest also has applied to each of our distinguished Bishops and every District Superintendent whom we have had the privilege of serving us in Wilmington District. We praise God for warming their hearts and express our sincere thanks to all the people who have been concerned enough to keep these needs under consideration.

The Board of Health and Welfare Ministries has recommended through the Golden Cross Committee that the North Carolina Annual Conference continue to support The Good Shepherd Home for the year 1971-72 in the amount of $2,500.

We pray that the above meets with your approval and that you will keep in mind our needs at the Home. And when such time as is possible, we would like to have your support increased to help fill our always pressing needs. They need us . . . we need you!

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF THE LAITY

Chairman: JAMES T. PATRICK

Secretary: GRIER L. GARRICK, JR.

Report No. 1

The Board of the Laity at the Annual Conference session presented a plaque to Roy L. Turnage, Jr. in appreciation for his seventeen years of service to the church and the Board. A resolution suggesting the addition of youth to the Program Council was presented, but it was amended and defeated. On April 3, 1971, the Board voted to add the District Presidents of United Methodist Youth Fellowship to the Conference Board of the Laity. At the same meeting the Board voted to add the District Presidents of the Women's Society of Christian Service to our Conference Board. Having previously added former Central Jurisdiction members to our Conference Board, we feel that we are moving toward making our Board truly an integral part of the "United" Methodist Church.

The chairman and Program Council representatives met with the District Boards of the Laity in June to discuss program plans for 1970-71.

We had forty-two persons from the North Carolina Conference at the SeJ Laymen's Conference at Lake Junaluska in July.

The second Lay Renewal Conference for the Raleigh area was held at Trinity United Methodist Church in Jacksonville in August with about one hundred fifty persons in attendance. Our Board cooperated with the Institute for Church Renewal of Atlanta in the sponsorship of this "renewal" effort.

We continued to support the Lay Witness Mission as an unstructured evangelistic effort, with fifteen laymen serving as coordinators and approximately 500 men, women, and youth serving as "lay witnesses."

Our Board cooperated with other Boards and Agencies in sponsorship of the first "Renewal and Re-creation" week and weekend. We sponsored the Sunday afternoon rally where all segments of the church shared in Christian witness and fellowship singing.

In September our Board sponsored an overnight "Youth Encounters Christ" seminar to look at techniques and methods used by campus and church youth organizations in successfully helping high school and college youth achieve a "personal encounter."

We encouraged the observance of Laymen's Day in October (or at some other time if more convenient) in the local churches.

October was designated as the month of Stewardship Emphasis, and information was supplied to pastors and key laymen to assist in this program in the local church.

At our November meeting we had reports from Dr. Cecil Robbins, President of Louisburg College, Dr. Thomas A. Collins, President of North Carolina Wesleyan College, and Mr. Frank Eason, representing Methodist College, concerning the "distinctive Christian character" of their respective colleges. It was the consensus of those present that we felt satisfied that the presidents and administration at these colleges are making a concerted effort to maintain and improve the "distinctive Christian character" of the administration, faculty, and students.

In January, eleven Every Member Commitment Training Workshops were held in the districts with 1,802 pastors and laymen in attendance. It is estimated that over 264 charges used the materials and ideas presented in these workshops in putting on intensive Every Member Commitment programs this spring.

Several districts held Lay Speaker Training Sessions in January, pointing toward our target of having such sessions in each district by November, 1971.

The Lay Rallies in February were planned by the District Boards of the Laity and were well attended, with over 7,000 total attendance. Eight districts are now including "laywomen" and, hopefully, next year all will be attended by men, women, and youth.

In March we had a pilot Lay-Clergy dialogue involving Bishop Cannon and the Cabinet and thirteen members of our Board. It is hoped that each district superintendent and district lay leader will plan similar sessions in the districts during 1971-72.

The Board at its March 13 meeting decided to request Program Council approval to hold a United Methodist Men's Retreat at Methodist College, August 21-22. This approval was granted on April 3, and plans are moving forward toward an inspirational and educational experience that weekend.

We will continue our financial, moral, and personal support of the "R and R" week and weekend.

During May, district and/or sub-district meetings were held with lay delegates to Annual Conference to discuss with them the recommendations for actions by the Annual Conference and to discuss the duties and responsibilities of a lay delegate. Our Board provided each lay delegate with a copy of the "Manual for the Lay Member of the Annual Conference" as prepared by the General Board of the Laity.

The work of our Board has been a cooperative effort involving many persons who have given sacrificially of their time and talents. To them we extend grateful appreciation. We are indebted to Bishop Cannon and the Program Council staff for their counsel, patience, and encouragement as we "volunteers" have tried to do our part. Special thanks are due to Reverend O. L. Hathaway and Mrs. Gwendolyn Mayes.

Report No. 2

THE COMMISSION ON LAY LIFE AND WORK

Lay Ministries. As laymen with a ministry we cannot sit quietly back and expect professional men, such as the clergy, social workers, missionaries, teachers, etc., to be the total witness for Christ in the world. We can no longer relax by the side of the road and just "be a friend of man." Laymen must move out where the mainstream of the traffic flows in varying speeds and in various directions. The laity of the Church are also called to serve and, if need be, to suffer for Christ's sake.

We wish to cooperate with other program agencies of the church in supporting the laity for life and ministry in the church and in the world. It is recommended that learning opportunities be available at the "R and R" weekend sessions and at the United Methodist Men's Retreat that would prepare our laymen to better serve in the local church and in the world. We further recommend that each District Lay Leader and District Directors of Lay Ministries establish training sessions within the district that are best suited to the needs of the local church. We also remind Lay Speakers and ministers that November 1971 has been set as the goal for all Lay Speakers to be certified by the recommendation of the charge conference and by completion of the basic training course for Lay Speakers.

Spiritual Life. We propose that the laity of our Conference search for and work toward more meaningful ventures in evangelism. We recommend that the Lay Witness Mission movement continue as an unstructured ministry within our Conference and that we support this work with our efforts and time. We propose that other avenues of participation be explored such as Christian Growth Conferences, Design for Witness, and other forms of "renewal." We further recommend that the District Lay Rallies be continued with program content and plans to be the responsibilities of the District Lay Leader and District Superintendent with the guidance of the District Program Council.

We suggest that each District Lay Leader and District Superintendent consider the possibility of having Lay-Clergy dialogue sessions at the district, sub-district, or local church levels.

United Methodist Men. We recommend that continued effort through District Directors, Lay Leaders and Pastors be made to organize new fellowships and strengthen those existing groups. We propose that each club review the basic principles of United Methodist Men, that is, to deepen the spiritual lives of the men in the church and to undergird all phases of the program of the local church under the direction of the pastor. We recommend that a United Methodist Men's Retreat be held in the summer of 1971. We support the plans and encourage the participation of our laymen in the Regional Evangelism Conferences for Men sponsored by the Evangelism Divisions of the Baptist State Convention and the United Methodist Church in the month of October, 1971.

Report No. 3

THE COMMISSION ON STEWARDSHIP AND FINANCE

1. We recommend that continuing emphasis be given in the local church to the cultivation of Christian stewardship among all segments of the church clergy, laymen, lay women, youth, and children.

2. We recommend the cooperation of the District and Conference Boards of the Laity with all other Conference agencies in the area of providing greater financial stability for our church-related institutions and agencies.

3. We recommend that during the month of October, 1971, the Board of the Laity institute a promotional and educational program on tithing to reach into the local church.

4. We recommend that the District Board of the Laity as part of the 1972 Lay Rallies give some time for the Tithing emphasis.

WALTER F. ANDERSON, Chairman

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE LAY WORKER

The Committee on the Lay Worker has pursued the alerting of possible candidates to this new relationship (to the United Methodist Church) for full-time lay employees; the clarifying of the requirements and standards of this relationship; and the encouragement of local churches to meet the provisions of the Discipline concerning the office Lay Worker.

The several meetings of this committee this year have been to the above ends and have primarily centered around clarifying for the committee members, lay workers, and interested local churches the procedures for enrolling the lay worker in the Lay Employees Pension Fund, around the Blue Cross-Blue Shield group hospitalization for lay workers, and around the possibility of group life insurance for these employees.

THE METHODIST FOUNDATION, INC., 1970-71

The past year, our sixteenth, has again reflected a favorable performance. Estimated annual income is now in excess of $185,000. During this past year we have experienced a comparatively favorable investment market—once again proving that the quality of our portfolio withstood the unfavorable erosion of 1969-70. Values have rebounded to their original levels. Throughout this market swing our earnings showed steady improvement. It would appear that our investment objective of maximizing earnings—within the context of a diversified and reasonably flexible portfolio—was accomplished. New earning assets added during the year were limited generally to “blue chip” equities and fixed income investments yielding in excess of 8½%. There is every reason to believe that our fund will continue to perform favorably during the coming year.

S. L. GULLEDGE, JR., President

DEPARTMENTS OF GIFTS AND WILLS

In the new structure of our Conference, I was elected as Associate Director of the Program Council and given the area of Stewardship. There was placed under Stewardship the Department of Gifts and Wills, the Board of the Laity, and other duties as called for by the Director of the Program Council.

I would like to share some of the activities in Stewardship and Gifts and Wills.

During the month of January we directed for the Board of the Laity an Every Member Commitment Training Workshop in each district of the North Carolina Conference. We had a total attendance of 1,802 persons. We feel that our Department of Gifts and Wills will benefit from the good stewardship program in our Conference. Dr. T. L. Williams was director of these workshops and 264 packets of materials were purchased to be used in the local churches. We are beginning to get reports from churches who are making good use of the materials. Some are over-subscribed on their budgets for 1971-72.

During the year the director attended the following conferences: July 12-19, 1970, Laymen's Conference at Lake Junaluska; August 9-16, 1970, "R and R" Conference at Methodist College, Fayetteville; August 21-23, 1970, Lay Renewal Conference at Jacksonville; October 13-14, 1970, annual meeting of the Methodist Foundation Associations in Albuquerque, New Mexico; since organization it has been my privilege to attend two of the three meetings; October 31, 1970, Southeastern Jurisdictional Workshop on Stewardship at Hinton Rural Life Center near Hayesville, N. C.; March 15-19, 1971, Southeastern Jurisdictional Program Council, Lake Junaluska.

We have continued to work towards increasing the funds that have been set up in the Department of Gifts and Wills and invested in the Methodist Foundation, Inc. We have promoted the Ralph E. Fowlkes, Jr. Memorial Scholarship Fund that was set up in this department in memory of Ralph E. Fowlkes, Jr. We have conducted a mailing campaign for funds. We have had many conferences with individuals concerning their gifts and making wills. These wills will strengthen our work when they are probated. We have helped the Carrboro United Methodist Church to receive a gift of $25,000. We received help from our chairman, I. Lee Parker, Jr., and the Trust Department of the Wachovia Bank & Trust Company in helping us work out the arrangements for this gift. We have helped in the preparation of wills, and have added to the scholarship funds to be used for our three Methodist colleges—Louisburg College, Methodist College, and North Carolina Wesleyan College. We are hoping to announce another scholarship fund in the very near future.

I have attended meetings of the Program Council, meetings of the boards and agencies I was assigned to during the year. I have preached in local churches and spoken to the Methodist Men's Clubs and other groups. I have served on the Board of Trustees of Methodist College, the Methodist Retirement Home, and by appointment from Bishop Cannon, chairman of the Committee to Study Ministers' Salaries, and as a Director of the Goodwill Industries, Inc. I have been elected to another three-year term to this board.

Our Department of Gifts and Wills has been most fortunate in securing the services of Mrs. Gwendolyn J. Mayes through the years of our Department's history. I would like to pay tribute to her wonderful spirit, her dedication to our work and the many hours spent above her regular working time. She is truly a great servant of our church, and she has employed her talents in a wonderful way to help us grow in service to our people.

I would like to thank Mr. I. Lee Parker, Jr., chairman of our Department of Gifts and Wills, for his leadership and his time and talents in our program. It has not been an easy transition for any of us in the new structure of the church. We have all shared his great love for our Savior and for his devotion to our cause.

We wish to thank Bishop Cannon, the District Superintendents, the pastors, and lay people for their help during the year. We ask for your continued prayers and helpfulness in our work.

O. L. HATHAWAY, Director

THE ORIGIN OF "CENTRAL FUNDS"

By MARVIN J. COWELL

(Central Funds in the North Carolina Conference Treasury consist of: Total receipts, less disbursements of all items included in the annual budget as recommended by the Commission on World Service and Finance; and special offerings, etc., while held in the treasury for disbursement.)

Annual Conference in session in October 1953 directed the establishment of a Central Treasury by its approval of Report #1 of the Commission on World Service and Finance as reported in the 1953 Conference Journal, pages 167-168. Disciplinary authority for the action is cited as follows, Discipline, Section 805: "For the sake of economy and efficiency the Annual Conference may constitute the Conference Treasurer as a depository for funds designated for all conference boards and agencies participating in Conference benevolences, eliminating the necessity of a treasurer for each and to disburse the same on proper order from each board or agency, respectively."

We may say at this point came the birth of "Central Funds" in the Treasury of the North Carolina Conference. It now became clear that the best accounting procedure was to keep strict records of funds received and/or disbursed for each agency and to consolidate the banking in order to keep adequate balances; yet to be able to realize interest income on funds held for future use. These funds come from several sources, to-wit:

1. The Annual Conference Budget for support of District Superintendents, our retired people, Minimum Salary Fund and all other items of conference program which recently were merged into the Program Council, are received during each year under the current year's budget for use in support of program the following year.
2. Funds in hand at the beginning of each year for current year support of these same program items which are disbursed systematically during the year as and when they are payable. This has made for regular and dependable remittance of salary and pension checks and all obligations.
3. Other funds, such as World Service, Special Offerings, College Sustaining Fund, Ten Dollar Club, and our Children's Home and Retirement Home, etc., are disbursed according to varying schedules.

These floating funds have resulted in earnings from savings accounts and investments which have totaled more than $1,000,000.00 since November 1, 1953. You will be interested to know that this million dollars has all been used when needed to bolster up the conference budget by covering non-payment by charges and also to meet other expenses deemed essential by Annual Conference.

As an outgrowth of these investments, it became necessary to establish an investment committee and this in turn grew into what is now Methodist Foundation, Inc.

Our Conference Board of Pensions, Ministers' Retirement Fund, Conference Board of Trustees and others joined with the Commission on World Service and Finance in establishing and building up Methodist Foundation as a joint investment agency.

It should also be noted that the Treasurer acts for any agency with reserve funds exceeding budgetary requirements to invest said funds in their name with earnings to accrue to them. Central Funds investments have always had a conservative cash position with ample short term notes, etc., to meet all obligations as and when due.

In earlier years, our North Carolina Conference was unique in Methodism in its adoption of Central Funds and in setting up Methodist Foundation, Inc. Many inquiries have been made as to our procedures. We believe we still excel in this field.

REPORT ON METHODIST MINISTERS' CREDIT UNION

This year was a historic one for the Methodist Ministers' Credit Union, for since the last Conference assets have grown to more than one-half million dollars. The assets totaled more than $516,000 on May 31, 1971.

This growth has made it possible to render a larger service to the parsonage families of our Conference. And yet, the needs of our members seem to grow faster than our ability to meet them.

You can help increase our ability to meet the needs of our preachers for consumer credit by investing in Methodist Ministers' Credit Union.

Laymen and churches can invest in deposit accounts and earn 5% per annum compounded quarterly. This is guaranteed interest, and will not be cut without first giving each investor ninety days' written notice of such anticipated reduction.

Our ministers' children can now join regardless of age. The spouse of these children can join, too. Grandchildren of our ministers may join also if their parents have joined. This enlarged field of membership broadens our base of investors. Let us bring in many of these potential members who have recently become eligible for membership.

We continue to offer the Estate Loan Contract to our members with benefits too large to be easily believed. Read about them. They are true!

You borrow $2,000 to be repaid in thirty-six monthly installments of $60.85. The interest cost on this loan is $190.60. The loan is insured against death to age 70 and total and permanent disability to age 60 without additional cost. This is a true APR of 6%.

The $2,000 shares purchased by the loan will earn dividends of $282.15, if left to be compounded annually at the current rate of 4.5% per annum. This $2,000 earns life insurance, too—$2,000 if purchased before age 55—$1,500 if purchased before age 60—$1,000 if purchased before age 65—or $500 if purchased before age 70.

There is also double indemnity on the life insurance to age 65. An accidental loss of sight and dismemberment rider provides that the principal sum of insurance in force will be paid in the event of accidental loss of two members (eyes, hands, feet) before age 65, and one-half the principal amount if only one member is lost by accident.

Yes, all this protection is in force for your family, and you make a profit of over $1.00 in thirty-six months for saving $60.85 per month. Can you believe this? Can you afford to miss out on this protection for your family?

If you cannot enter into a contract to save $2,000, we will make a loan to fit your need and ability to pay.

When you save like this, you not only help yourself but you make funds available to help others. Save now and buy later. This is cheaper than "buy now and pay later."

Let us be good stewards of our money!

Our Credit Union exists not for Profit,

Not for Charity,

But for Service.

We invite you who are not yet members to join Methodist Ministers' Credit Union today and enter into this fellowship of service.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONS

EDWARD F. SMITH, President

AMOS H. STONE, Secretary

The Conference year 1970-1971 has been a good year for the Board of Missions. Working with the Program Council of the Conference has been a challenging and rewarding experience. The structure of the Board of Missions continues to change to respond to the changing task of the Church as we seek to interpret and witness to the power of Jesus Christ to redeem human life even in a world of rapid change.

Appreciation is expressed for the faithful and effective service of the Reverend L. C. Green, Associate Director of the Program Council, with responsibility for Witness and Outreach. By the very structure of his job, he wears "many hats," but he has through his year balanced them well and ably presented the cause of the mission of the Church of Jesus Christ in our world. The chairmen of the committees and sub-committees have given exemplary service for which all of us have cause to be grateful.

Because the Board works through these committees, the report here given is the report of these committees, which represents a summation of the work of this Annual Conference Board.

I. CHURCH AND COMMUNITY COMMITTEE

REGINALD W. PONDER, Chairman

The Church and Community Committee is a resource committee for the North Carolina Annual Conference. We believe that our function is to be trained in the several areas of responsibility that are given to us so that we can advise the leadership of the Annual Conference in the planning of strategy and program for the mission of The United Methodist Church in eastern North Carolina. The work of the Church and Community Committee is shared in three sub-committees.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON TOWN AND COUNTRY WORK

LEO C. THOMPSON, Chairman

1. We have joined with the Sub-Committee on Urban Work to implement a new "Recognition Program" to replace the "Rural Church of the Year" program of recent years. The new awards program will recognize one "rural" and one "urban" church for 1970-71 at the Annual Conference session in Fayetteville in June, 1971.

2. We have continued to cooperate with all Conference agencies, the Cabinet, and the various Charges toward fuller development of the larger parish concept in our Conference. Two "Parish Development" grants have been made—one each to Pamlico Parish in the New Bern District and to the Northern Wayne Parish in the Goldsboro District (which is being used to make initial studies of the area).

3. We sent two delegates to the Annual Meeting of the Fellowship of Town and Country Leaders of the Southeast at the Hinton Rural Life Center, Hayesville, N. C., October 20-23, 1970: the Reverend James Coile and Miss Jennie Flood, both of the Pamlico Parish. The chairman of the Sub-Committee on Town and Country Work attended the Annual Executive Committee Meeting of the Fellowship of Town and Country Leaders of the Southeast in Atlanta, Ga., December 11-12, 1970, at which plans for the next Annual Meeting were made.

4. We financially supported the United Methodist Parish Fellowship Retreats held in Raleigh and Kinston on February 22-23, 1971.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON URBAN MINISTRIES

F. OWEN FITZGERALD, JR., Chairman

During the Conference year 1970-1971 the Committee on Urban Ministries engaged in agreement with Triangle COMPLEX, Inc., of Raleigh on an experimental basis for the Conference year 1971-1972 to assist urban churches and groups of churches of the North Carolina Conference in building more effective ministry by discovering and focusing upon creative options for mission. COMPLEX is to bring resources of training, communication and planning to bear on areas of weaknesses in mission and problems of the changing urban community as perceived by the church (churches) to be detrimental to effective ministry, and to assist them in developing meaningful and effective urban mission.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON PARISH DEVELOPMENT AND COMMUNITY SERVICE

CHARLES E. OWENS, Chairman

I. Function

The function of this sub-committee is not to make policy, but rather to work with various boards and agencies and with local church groups to help develop ministries to meet the needs of parish areas. We stand ready to serve local church groups in the area of planning, discovering needs, and setting goals as a prelude to devising ministries.

II. Orientation

The continuing shortage of professionally trained pastors demands that we utilize this trained leadership in cooperation with those less well-trained so as to provide the best possible ministry for all areas and all people. We can no longer afford the "prima donna" minister who does "his thing" oblivious to the needs and opportunities around him. Neither can the individual church or charge chart its course without reference to the existence of the needs and aspirations of neighboring churches and charges. Ours is a total ministry to the whole man, and to the total community. We must bring the total resources of the Church—its leadership, its financial resources, and its prayerful concern—to bear and focus on a united ministry in cooperation with the various churches and the lay and pastoral leadership in a given area.

III. Cooperative Ministries

This committee in cooperation with Dr. Ralph Nichols of the National Division of the Board of Missions, has visited or had reports of cooperative ministries and special projects in various areas of our conference.

- A. In Moore County ministers and laymen are studying together the needs of people and churches, and potential interest exists for a cooperative ministry.
- B. In Robeson County, a ministry across denominational and racial lines, and functioning on many levels of community service registers the concern of the Church for all people especially the poor, the alienated, and those whom the Church so often neglects. Miss Mary Cameron is the Church and Community Worker.

- C. In Pamlico County, a cooperative ministry is in operation. Miss Jennie Flood is the Church and Community Worker in this project.
- D. In Harnett County, a group of ministers is studying the possibility of cooperation.
- E. In Salemburg in Sampson County a cooperative effort is carried on among various churches. Miss Bernice Ballance is the Church and Community Worker.

Other areas are studying the possibility of cooperative ministry. Guidelines for Parish Development Grants are available through the chairman of the Church and Community Committee. These guidelines are of some value for any group studying the possibilities of cooperative patterns of ministry, even if no outside funds are solicited.

IV. Rural Economic Development

Representatives of this committee met in November with Dr. Shirley E. Greene of the National Division of the Board of Missions, Department of Town and Country Ministries, concerning Rural Economic Development projects in our Conference. This National Division program encourages small self-help enterprises, many of which might produce articles which could be marketed through church channels. Examples of this type article are quilts, fruit cakes, and handcrafts in wood, leather and metal.

V. United Methodist Parish Fellowship Retreats

This sub-committee shared with the officers of the United Methodist Parish Fellowship in the planning and implementation of the annual retreats. The retreats were held on February 22 at Fairmont United Methodist Church in Raleigh and on February 23 at Queen Street United Methodist Church in Kinston. The leader for the retreats was Dr. Melvin West from St. Louis, Mo.

VI. Hinton Rural Life Center

This sub-committee supports the efforts of Hinton Rural Life Center in Hayesville, N. C. in the development of a greater understanding of the parish within the structure of the United Methodist Church.

COMMITTEE ON CHURCH EXTENSION

W. B. CHALK, Chairman

1. During the year we have emphasized the organization of District Boards of Missions throughout our Conference and are happy to report that the Greenville District and the Raleigh District have active Boards of Missions and Church Extension. The purpose of these boards is to carry on the program of church development, special ministries, and Church Extension within the districts.

2. The Ten Dollar Club is still an active organization even though this year we have had to issue only one call, since our Church Extension program has caught up with the number of new churches organized. The third Sunday in February (February 20) will be observed as Church Extension Sunday this coming year.

3. During the year the committee has been working on several items and will duly forward these recommendations to the full Board, the Program Council, and on to the Annual Conference.

II. REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION AND CULTIVATION

RUFUS H. STARK, II, Chairman

Our purpose is to bring the challenge of our corporate mission before the churches of our Annual Conference as a matter of major priority. It is exciting to unite with Methodists across the nation and world in ventures designed to make our Lord known in words and work.

Itineration: An excellent round of visitations from mission interpreters was held in February and March.

Miss Lorena Kelly, retired missionary to the Congo—February 7-13, New Bern District, February 14-20, Wilmington District

Dr. William M. Pickard, Jr., missionary to the Philippines—February 14-20, Goldsboro District, February 21-27, Greenville District

Donald E. Collinson, Agricultural missionary to Africa—March 14-20, Burlington District, March 21-27, Durham District

Rev. Charles D. Stokes, missionary to Korea—March 14-20, Raleigh District, March 21-27, Sanford District

Rev. Eugene M. Westley, missionary to Nigeria—March 14-20, Rocky Mount District, March 21-27, Elizabeth City District

Through these interpreters many persons received a first-hand insight into the missionary outreach of the Church.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON MISSION STUDIES

E. R. PORTER, Chairman

Both in the summer of 1970 and 1971 our Conference engaged in a Program Council-sponsored Training Experience called "R and R." The Sub-Committee on Mission Studies was glad to cooperate in this united venture. Church-wide study materials received excellent treatment and those attending gained valuable training.

Although the use of church-wide study materials is properly the business of the whole Church, this committee has been asked to lead in training opportunities on district level. This year 1153 persons attended sessions in our eleven districts in preparation for local church studies. The level of participation in our Annual Conference was second of sixteen in our Jurisdiction and fourth out of seventy-two in our entire church. There was widespread use of the study theme on Latin America and Communication of the Gospel in local churches of the Conference.

SUB-COMMITTEE ON THE ADVANCE

PAUL G. BUNN, Chairman

Advance Specials provide an opportunity for local churches to designate their support of specific projects of our mission. This support is "second mile" giving over and above World Service. The level of Advance giving in our Conference has been marginal for many years. In spite of increased cultivation we gave only 32 cents per member in the Jurisdiction as compared with 94 cents per member average in the Jurisdiction. Our level of giving was 16th of sixteen Annual Conferences.

1. Non-Recurring. We have completed raising $25,000 for the La Merced Elementary School in Peru. The school is to be built as a memorial to James Stanford who died while serving there. Work can now begin on this important project.

2. Recurring. Many churches are expressing interest in putting a missionary on their staff. Missionary salary support is a contracted item. The local church pledges a certain level of support to a missionary of its own choosing. The level of support for Hinton Leadership Center at Hayesville and the Lumbee Indian work is growing.

OTHER MATTERS

Missionaries from our Conference currently serving are Rev. and Mrs. Rudolph Benesh, Austria; Rev. and Mrs. Clyde Dunn, Taiwan; Rev. and Mrs. Bill Garrison, Brazil; Rev. and Mrs. Justin Haruyama, Japan; and Rev. and Mrs. George Megill, Brazil.

It is most appropriate that a word of appreciation be expressed to the District Chairmen of the Work Area on Missions who have given outstanding leadership this year. They are George W. Johnson, N. H. Byrd, J. Claude Chaffin, N. B. Hill, Jr., Dr. Lee Adams, E. R. Porter, P. D. Midgett III, Paul G. Bunn, J. Thomas Smith, G. Lloyd Edge, and Charles H. Mewborn.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE ON PARSONAGE STANDARDS

Copies of the brochure on Parsonage Standards, prepared in 1961 by the Conference Committee on Parsonage Standards, are still available, free of charge, by writing to the Board of Missions, The Methodist Building, 1307 Glenwood Avenue, Raleigh, N. C. 27605.

Another booklet which proves valuable to those planning to build a parsonage is en-itled "Parsonage Planning," and may be obtained at the cost of $1.00 from the Division of National Missions of the United Methodist Church, 475 Riverside Drive, New York, N. Y. Along with other vital information this booklet contains suggested floor plans. However, working plans are not available. This book lists firms which you may contact if you need a plan which satisfies your needs.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Meetings of the Conference Board of Trustees during the year 1970-71 were held as follows: June 3, 1970, Jarvis Memorial Church, Greenville; September 3, 1970, Methodist Building, Raleigh; November 23, 1970, Methodist Building, Raleigh; and April 19, 1971, in the Methodist Building, Raleigh.

The financial statement by the Board of Trustees presented by the Conference Treasurer to the 1970 Conference showed that funds totalling $388,364.57 were held by the Board. This statement showed that the distributions made in the year ending 1970 were as follows: Episcopal Residence, $3,148.16; Board of Pensions, $8,000; Edgerton Fund Dividends, $252.86.

At the meeting on September 3, 1970, the following officers were elected: J. W. Jenkins, Jr., Chairman; Wallace H. Kirby, Vice-Chairman; J. L. Joyce, Secretary.

During the Conference year title to the parsonages in the Raleigh Area, used for Conference staff members of the various agencies, was transferred from the various boards and agencies to the Conference trustees. A program was instituted for maintenance and repair to these properties. An inventory was made of these parsonages. A parsonage committee was appointed from the Raleigh Area to assist with the maintenance and decorating of these properties. The committee consists of Mr. Hal Thompson, chairman; Mrs. Ralph Stevens and Mr. John Harris; Mr. J. W. Jenkins, Jr., ex officio, and Mr. Charles McAdams, ex officio.

During the year decision was made to sell the parsonage owned on Toxey Drive as it was not deemed suitable for continued use as a parsonage. This sale was consummated for the sum of $27,500. The parsonage held at Hampton Road in Raleigh which had previously been leased was deemed suitable for further use as a parsonage and the trustees decided to retain this and to lease it until it is needed.

The Burgaw Church was authorized to sell the one-half acre of land which it held on the Wagstaff farm for the sum of $250.00 and to apply the proceeds to the building program of the Burgaw United Methodist Church.

The Board of Trustees authorized the transfer of old Asbury Church seven miles north of Rowland to Asbury Memorial Church and Cemetery Association for maintenance by them as a memorial. The transfer was made with a reversion clause that provided: Should the property cease being used as a memorial and for historic purposes, it should be reverted to the United Methodist Church.

The trustees authorized the sale at the request of the Nags Head Church of property given to the church by W. G. Tillet to Mr. Luther Johnson, grandson of Mr. Tillet and his only living heir. This property had not been used for church purposes since 1939.

The trustees authorized the transfer of the Centenary Church of the Rowland Charge to Centenary Memorial Association to be used as a memorial and for such religious purposes as the Administrative Board of the Rowland Church might designate, provided the property revert to the United Methodist Church in the event the association should be dissolved or the property cease to be used for church-related purposes. The Centenary Church is joining with the Rowland Church.

The trustees have submitted budget requests to the Commission on World Service and Finance as required.

The audit report of the Conference trustees will appear in the Conference Journal and will show the current status of funds held by the Board of Trustees.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF COLLEGE VISITORS

Members of the Board of College Visitors visited North Carolina Wesleyan and Louisburg Colleges in March. Noting a slight decrease in enrollment at each college, all have agreed that the one greatest need of the hour is for pastors and laymen throughout the North Carolina Conference to promote and recruit for our colleges. The students at North Carolina Wesleyan undertook a vigorous recruiting campaign in the spring, and the administration has plans for a three-year teaching improvement program.

Everyone in the Fayetteville area has high praise for our Methodist College students, who helped victims of the tornado which left much devastation in the spring. Methodist College alumni are responding favorably in promoting tuition equalization, and there is a need for more resident students at our Fayetteville campus.

Louisburg College officials report that pledges for capital improvements are coming in very well. However, the two great needs at the present are the Student Center and the Academic-Science Hall.

On each of our campuses the administration, faculty, and students are all well aware of their school's financial burden. In some instances, it has been necessary to reduce the number of faculty members, and we have lost some good teachers. It should be pointed out that faculty salaries are below some other schools of comparable size.

During the past four years there has been an average increase of two to three thousand students to public institutions. Unless some type of state aid is granted and more Methodists are willing to give to support our schools, the trend to the lower cost, state-supported school will continue to grow.

In all of our visits we found good communication and teaching and the unanimous desire by each campus for a closer tie to their respective communities. We are grateful to our colleges for their achievement in the past and their task of Christian higher education in our day.

REPORT OF THE WOMEN'S SOCIETY OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE AND WESLEYAN SERVICE GUILD

The third annual meeting held jointly by the Women's Society of Christian Service and Wesleyan Service Guild was a celebration using the theme, "Risk and Reality." This one-day meeting of the society and guild was designed to take care of the period of transition for a new program-officer-fiscal year, January 1 through December 31. There were 510 in attendance at St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Goldsboro. Mrs. Carl King and Mrs. C. H. Boyd, both members of the Women's Division, participated in a dialogue concerning the work of the board. The next annual meeting will be held October 5-6, 1971, and every fall thereafter.

As of December 31, 1970, approximately $206,000 was sent to the Women's Division for use in our mission program. Over and above this amount approximately $10,000 was sent for support of our North Carolina projects; approximately $3,100 was awarded in scholarship for youth attending one of our Methodist colleges and planning to serve full-time in Christian work; and $4,500 was sent to the James Stanford Memorial Fund for our school in La Merced, Peru.

On June 5-6 at Wesleyan College, Dr. Lois Miller, associate general secretary of the Board of Missions, led a Spiritual Growth Conference, and Mrs. Henry Henderson of Cincinnati, Ohio, was special soloist. Later in June the officers attended the South Atlantic Regional School of Christian Mission at Lambuth College in Jackson, Tenn. The Southeastern Jurisdiction Society-Guild was held November 6-8 in Tupelo, Miss.

The president serves as Southeastern Jurisdiction representative on the Women's Division Long-Range Planning on Consultation on Jurisdiction Society-Guild.

The executive committee has enjoyed having two of its meetings in local church settings—one at Highland Church, Raleigh, and the other at Ann Street Church, Beaufort.

The Women's Division Advisory Committee of the Atlanta Region met on March 12-13 at Pembroke; and a conference on Consultation on Racism was held May 21-23 at Camp Chestnut Ridge.

The WSCS Task Group on Abortion met with the Task Force on Abortion from the Board of Social Concerns and formulated a statement for the Board to consider for inclusion in its recommendation to Annual Conference.

We have been at work on our three goals: (1) gearing all promotional material so that women will become increasingly aware of their roles in the whole task of the church; (2) working toward increased women leadership on the North Carolina Conference boards and agencies; and (3) discovering ways to involve young women on every level of the church.

This has truly been a year of risks in order to face the realities of needed changes within our society program. They have been joyful risks made with confidence in God's unchanging love for us.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

Discovering the relationship between Christian worship and Christian evangelism, enriching the service of Confirmation by helping candidates for confirmation meet the Bishop, and participating in the attempt to define the purpose of the Church—these activities have occupied the Conference Commission on Worship in the year 1970-71.

THE COMMISSION PREPARES

The private dining room of the Holiday Inn at Selma was the location of a meeting of the full Commission on November 10, 1970. Preparation for the events of the spring for which we share responsibility was the purpose for which the meeting was called. The Program Council, however, had asked each agency of the Conference to brain-storm the entire matter of purpose and priorities. A serious consideration of the purpose of Christ's Church consumed much time and effort. Input was received from each person present, and personal views were compared with the definition of the Church found in the Articles of Religion and statements by the general boards.

After lunch a careful examination was made of a communication sent at our request by Kimsey King, Chairman of the Board of Evangelism, opening discussion toward formulation of a plan for the district workshops on Worship and Evangelism. A joint committee to be named by the chairmen of the two agencies responsible for the series was recommended.

Woodland was the scene of the first meeting of the joint committee on December 18. Leaders for the eleven district workshops were named from the two sponsoring agencies. On January 22, these leaders met with the Joint Committee at the downtown Holiday Inn in Rocky Mount to draft more detailed plans for this Conference-wide study.

A second joint committee from the two agencies, Worship and Evangelism, was appointed by the chairmen to plan the Bishop's Meeting with Confirmation Classes, and met at St. Mark's Church in Raleigh on March 8. Plans developed there were then submitted to Bishop William R. Cannon, and after being amended by him became the program for the two sessions of the Bishop's Meeting.

WORSHIP AND EVANGELISM WORKSHOPS

The 1971 district workshops constituted a forum in which ministers and laymen often expressed their varying opinions and convictions. Real dialogue developed in many cases. Learning from one another, sharing with one another, growing to respect and accept fellow churchmen who have not all been turned out of the same mold, participants in the workshops experienced as friends who are "in it together" the actual inclusiveness of our United Methodist Church. Evangelism and Worship, often considered antithetical, came to be seen as two legitimate expressions of the same faith in God through Jesus Christ. Open and honest examination of evangelistic elements in a service of Christian worship was divided into three parts: the non-sermon parts of the service, the sermon, and the invitation to Christian discipleship. Held during the first seventeen days of March, the workshops varied considerably in attendance and effectiveness.

BISHOP'S MEETING WITH CONFIRMATION CLASSES

Despite a late snow, some seven hundred boys and girls met in the sanctuary of Edenton Street Church in Raleigh March 27, and about half that number at St. James Church in Greenville April 3, when Bishop Cannon went to meet the confirmation class. Most pastors do gather boys and girls preparing for confirmation for several instructional sessions. Many pastors see this as a major opportunity and welcome the enrichment to meet the experience of confirmation which can be derived from helping each confirmer to meet the Bishop and be welcomed into the Church personally by him. Each pastor has his choice of bringing his class to Raleigh or to Greenville for the Bishop's Meeting. Commonly considered a good thing, this annual event has become a tradition in this Conference. In the Church of England, out of which Methodism came, the bishop actually confirms all boys and girls, gathering them from neighboring parishes for the event. In our Church a bishop has so many hundreds of churches he cannot possibly do all the confirming himself, so this North Carolina plan helps to compensate for the absence of the bishop at the actual confirmation service. Several other conferences use similar plans. The Commission recommends its continuance and asks to be responsible for its leadership.

The Commission closes the year grateful to God and to the many persons who have played parts in making its work profitable for the Church. We ask for the prayers and ideas of all members of this Conference and its churches that we may serve well the purposes of our Lord Jesus Christ in the new year 1971-72.

GROUP B: Agency Recommendations, Effective 1971-1972

COMMISSION ON ARCHIVES AND HISTORY

The North Carolina Conference Commission on Archives and History recommends for the 1971-1972 Conference year the following program suggestions:

A. We endorse the project of a Conference Pictorial Directory. The last Conference photograph of our ministerial membership was made in 1887. We believe this project will have both a current value and historical significance, and seek the cooperation of each pastor during its 1971 preparation.

B. The Bicentennial of Francis Asbury's arrival in the colonies will be celebrated September 3-5, 1971, at Lake Junaluska. This national celebration will include persons from all over the nation and from Great Britain. We recognize the churches in our Conference named for Bishop Asbury: Asbury Church of Durham; Asbury Temple Church of Durham; Asbury Church of Fayetteville; Asbury Church of Lumberton; Asbury-Breitz Church of Smithfield; Asbury Church of Washington; Asbury Church of Dover; Asbury Church of Goldston. We encourage each minister to note this historic celebration in our local churches and hope that many churches will send lay delegates to the celebration. Of particular interest to our youth will be the special award for Boy Scouts who hike the Asbury Trail during the Labor Day weekend event, or during the summer months. All United Methodist churches sponsoring Boy Scout troops are requested to make this information available to their scouts and encourage them to share in this phase of the celebration.

C. We recommend to our Conference the project of the Washington County Historical Society which is leading in the restoration of historic Rehobeth Church under the capable direction of Dr. A. L. Whitehurst, lay preacher from Plymouth. This church is being restored.

D. We are seeking the histories of our former Central Jurisdiction Methodist Churches. Mrs. Mollie Briley of Lumberton is seeking information and a history of our black United Methodist Churches.

E. We urge the cooperation of our ministers and laymen who are helping in this project.

F. All Methodist ministers are requested to provide the Conference Commission with any local church histories.

G. In planning for the September, 1972 celebration of the first Methodist sermon preached in North Carolina by Joseph Pilmoor, we request that the Program Committee planning the 1972 Annual Conference consider a special commemoration of this event. The September 28, 1972 celebration is to be a joint cooperative effort with the Western North Carolina Conference Commission on Archives and History.

H. We request the continued support of the monthly worship services at Whitaker's Chapel, consecrated last October as the fifteenth national shrine of the United Methodist Church.

BOARD OF CHRISTIAN SOCIAL CONCERNS

PROGRAM RECOMMENDATIONS

The purpose of the church, as defined by our Program Council, is that of the servant church—witnessing, teaching, sharing, loving, and enlisting in faithful response to serve under the mandate of Christ's own example. Our greatest priority is that of supplying the need for more good servants of Jesus Christ—lay and clerical—who shall be properly undergirded, disciplined, and equipped to serve all mankind under the mandate of Christ's example.

Therefore, we conceive the purpose of this board in light of this and the 1968 Book of Discipline to be that of seeking to show the members of the servant church that the reconciliation which God effected through Christ involves personal, social, and civic righteousness.

We affirm that all of life is under the judgment of God. At the same time we acknowledge the responsibility for the world, individual, social, and physical thrust upon man by God. It is within the context of the tension between the judgment of God and the responsibility of his servants that we dare to interpret situations and to propose programs.

Our society is undergoing radical alteration. This situation of instability is illuminated by several factors, including the following: social power, human rights, justice, law and order, human and environmental resources, the conflict in values resulting from technological change. It is also in light of these factors, as well as our statements of purpose and priority that we offer these recommendations.

I. DIVISION OF HUMAN RELATIONS—Dr. Ross E. Townes, Vice-President

Power is the ability to achieve goals in the face of resistance. Often, organizations of Christians have denied that they have any right to the type of power that enables them to control the administration of society. This attitude is irresponsible use of power by the servant church which possesses it by virtue of its large numbers of members and extensive organization.

Just as every man possesses some degree of power simply because he is, and magnifies that power into social power by joining with others, so every man is created with the right to exercise his power to the limit of his capacity. Nevertheless, large numbers of persons have been, and are being denied that God-given right by structures designed to enhance the rights of others at their own expense.

We see this within the bounds of our conference in attitudes and feelings expressed, and in events which have occurred, viz.:

1. That blacks have openly expressed a feeling of a lack of communication to black churches.
2. That blacks have openly expressed feelings of a lack of trust.
3. That blacks are keenly sensitive to the fact that there is no black in the administrative structure of the conference. Superficially and artificially created positions for black ministers to avoid appointment of a black man to a district superintendency is to evade responsibility and to relegate black leadership to an inferior status.
4. The feeling expressed by blacks that whites seem to be happy when blacks are seeking to be integrated into the white mainstream and failing.
5. The alarm that is often expressed when blacks seek to exercise power by organizing into power blocs such as Black Methodists for Church Renewal.
6. That many blacks—militant, moderate, and otherwise—have expressed a dislike for what they seem to think integration means to many whites—an absorption through which blacks no longer have real power.
7. The rash of racial disorders in the public schools within the bounds of our conference which point emphatically to the problems of power and human rights involving persons whom we are commissioned to serve.
8. The crisis in black higher education.
9. "Had there been no racism in America, there would be no 'racial churches.' The strategy of white Christianity failed in its intent to make black Christians its spiritual subordinates because in accepting Christianity in America when it was finally offered them they accepted not 'American Christianity'—but the opportunity to reidentify with a God and a faith which transcended America."—Dr. C Eric Lincoln, 1970 James A. Gray Lecturer, Duke University Divinity School Convocation.

Therefore, we recommend the following:

1. That the program council of the conference have a two-day consultation on racism, involving the total membership of the conference program council, staff members of the Commission on Religion and Race, and at least 12 persons—lay and clerical—invited by the Board of Christian Social Concerns from the minority races in the conference, to be held sometime in the summer or fall of 1971 on a date established by the Program Council and the Bishop.
2. That the Board of Christian Social Concerns shall cooperate with the conference Women's Society of Christian Service Division of Christian Social Relations in having consultations on racism on district and local levels.

3. That the annual conference establish an annual conference Commission on Religion and Race according to guidelines suggested by the Commission on Religion and Race, and that the chairman of this commission be a member of the program council.
4. That the program council give attention to giving increased publicity to those projects within the conference assisted by funds from the Fund for Reconciliation.
5. That the conference establish a Task Force on Rural Economic Development Program through whom the Southeastern Jurisdictional Task Group and representatives of the National Division of the Board of Missions may seek to promote the program of rural economic development within the bounds of this conference.
6. Whereas, the black constituency of the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church has called upon the Conference to live up to its commitments for black empowerment, and

Whereas, the artificially created post of Administrative Assistant to the Cabinet is not regarded by many Conference members, especially our black colleagues, as equivalent to a district superintendency, and

Whereas, the Western North Carolina and the Virginia Conferences which, along with the North Carolina Conference, pioneered in merging with the former Central Jurisdiction, and that these Conferences, Virginia and Western North Carolina, have black district superintendents, and

Whereas, the Board of Social Concerns has been approached by the laity in general and the W.S.C.S. and W.S.G. in particular, asking for black empowerment by requesting that a black district superintendent be appointed, and

Whereas, the world is watching the Church of Jesus Christ to see if we practice the gospel of Jesus Christ and the expressed inclusive polity of the United Methodist Church, and

Whereas, the youth of our Conference are saying that the public schools are attempting to practice as well as profess racial inclusiveness and black empowerment and are asking if and when the Church will offer constructive leadership by example as well as precept,

Be it Resolved, that the North Carolina Conference informs the Bishop and the Cabinet that it is now ready to follow the leadership of a black district superintendent appointed to a specific district within the Conference this year and no later than the 1972 Annual Conference.

II. DIVISION OF GENERAL WELFARE—Rev. Charles Hutchinson, Vice-President

In the Christian view the family is the basic unit of society. Many forces help shape a person's life, but the influence of the family has most significance. As Christians we are concerned about the health and welfare of all people. We must work toward having strong effective units within our society. Many of the problems of our unstable society stem from poor family life; lack of love, poor housing and inadequate food. In a society that is constantly faced with war, hunger, and vice on the one hand and with affluence, committed to our care receive a solid faith and base from which to face the world.

In order to fulfill our purpose and priority of servanthood in making for stronger family life to deal with some of the physical, spiritual, and emotional problems that grow out of distorted family relationships, we offer the following recommendations:

1. Family Life Ministry. We encourage the council on ministries in each local church, through the coordinator of family ministry, to develop a full program to strengthen family life. The best way to avoid emotional problems is to promote good mental health through family relationships. The church has a responsibility to help families understand their role. The church provides family life resources, and each church would do well to begin study group using these resource materials.
2. We recommend to our local churches the utilization of materials and personnel of The United Methodist Church in developing a local church program on human sexuality.
3. Mental Health Seminars. Most of our servants within the servant church are extremely inadequate in the area of ministering to people with mental health problems. There is an ever-increasing problem with mental and emotional sickness in every community. The historic concern of United Methodism with alcohol and drug abuse is a part of the mental health picture. Therefore, it is imperative that the conference provide information-training seminars on mental health during the coming year. We propose that a task group of this board, working with the conference program council staff, work to secure professionally qualified help in conducting mental health seminars in each of the districts of our conference during March of 1972. The implementation of these seminars would be through the district program council, the purpose being helping ministers and laymen learn to deal with and help persons afflicted with mental and emotional problems. Each minister and two key laymen from each church in the district would be expected to participate. After these seminars are held on the district level, each local church or charge shall conduct a mental health seminar to the end that persons in local churches shall be able to provide a more meaningful Christian response to those who are afflicted with mental and emotional problems.

4. We recommend that a task force be formed involving this board, the board of education, and the board of missions make an intensive study of infant and child day care for the purpose of determining:
 - a. need within the bounds of the conference.
 - b. standards for day care centers in the United Methodist Churches of the conference.
 - c. sources of assistance to local churches in establishing day care centers
 - d. other pertinent information

To this end, we name the Rev. T. M. Faggart, Mrs. R. Jack Smith, and Mr. Floyd R. Evans to such a task force.

5. Senior Citizens. We recognize that senior citizens are often the forgotten people in our communities, and that the church has responsibility for ministering to these persons. We therefore recommend a one-day annual conference senior citizens seminar to help persons, particularly pastors, learn how to minister more effectively to senior citizens.

III. DIVISION OF WORLD PEACE—Rev. Charles M. Smith, Vice-President

The position of the United Methodist Church on World peace is crystal clear. The social creeds of both the former Methodist and former Evangelical United Brethren Churches emphasize the universal nature of Christianity. Peace and good will foster the understanding and mutual trust which is so necessary as a steadying factor in today's unstable world. Our concern for peace springs from our Biblical faith and from the two century-old tradition of the two predecessor denominations of The United Methodist Church. We therefore made the following recommendations:

1. World Order Sunday, October 17, 1971, shall be observed in each local church with appropriate sermons, bulletin inserts and other materials. We especially recommend the reading or distribution of The United Methodist Church and Peace available in the 1968 Book of Resolutions and in pamphlet form from the Service Department of the Board of Christian Social Concerns, 100 Maryland Ave., N.E., Washington, D. C. 20002, or the Service Department of the Board of Missions, 7820 Reading Road, Cincinnati, Ohio 45237 at $5.00 per 100. A report on the observance of World Order Sunday shall be made in each district conference.
2. There shall be a study tour for laymen and clergy, interracial and inter-generational, of New York and Washington, with visits to Congress and the United Nations, including a two-day seminar conducted at the Church Center at the United Nations, focusing on the role of the United States in Southeast Asia. This tour should be in September or early October.
3. We recommend that the Council on Youth Ministry continue the spring New York and Washington study tours for United Methodist Youth. We feel that this educational experience is an important factor in the fostering of Christian attitudes in international relations.
4. We recommend that youth groups in each local church "Trick or Treat" for UNICEF. In accordance with United Methodism's commitment to the United Nations we see this as perhaps the best available means of involving the most numbers of people in a meaningful program of education and action in support of the work of the United Nations.

5. Continued sponsorship of the Peace Education Booth at the North Carolina State Fair. Traditionally, this board has served as one of the sponsors of this educational display which effectively witnesses to thousands of fair-goers our concerns in world peace. We were pleased that in 1970, 1,217 fair-goers signed a petition calling for an immediate cease fire in Indochina, and that 1,355 petitioned the North Carolina congressional delegation to refuse to extend the draft beyond its June 30, 1971 scheduled expiration.
6. That a task group be formed under the direction of the World Peace Division of the Board of Christian Social Concerns be formed to study the desirability of national service as an alternative to the draft, such study being reported to the 1972 annual conference for possible resolution.
7. We further affirm earlier statements of this board, pp. 316-317, 1970 Journal, calling on the United Methodists of the North Carolina Conference to become involved in the continuing struggle against over-population, environmental pollution, nationalistic militarism.
8. Finally, the Board of Christian Social Concerns calls on the Church Universal, and in particular, the United Methodists of the North Carolina Conference, to become more acutely concerned with the salvation of man whereby true world peace will become a reality as men are brought into a saving relationship with Jesus Christ, the Prince of Peace.

REPORT OF THE STUDY COMMITTEE ON ABORTION

We acknowledge that it is a person's moral responsibility to make decisive judgments concerning his own future in awareness of sound principles of Christian ethics;

Therefore, we affirm that it is a woman's responsibility to determine whether she should or should not bear a child. This personal responsibility is not, however, a private or exclusive prerogative inasmuch as another life, and usually other lives, are affected by such decisions. We think it important, therefore, that the woman consider with utmost seriousness the variety of factors and lives which impinge upon her decision.

This responsibility should include the privilege of contraception, therapeutic abortion and voluntary sterilization. Abortion may be preferable to other alternatives, but we think it is a regrettable option. This responsibility of choice and decision should be illumined, shared and supported by the Church and undergirded with adequate professional guidance.

JOINT COMMISSION ON CONTINUING EDUCATION

The Commission on Continuing Education for the Ministry operates on a statewide basis and is composed of representatives from the two United Methodist Conferences, the Duke Divinity School and the Duke Endowment. The Commission reports very satisfying relationships and responses during the past year. At the statewide level the Commission assists in the coordination of the planning and promotion of programs of continuing education for ministers. Special attention is called to the work and report of the Annual Conference Committee on Continuing Education for the Ministry. It is through the conference committee that specific programs are executed in local areas. Only through the cooperative efforts of the several participating committees can we provide a program of quality and variety.

The following statewide programs are scheduled for the conference year 1971-72:

The Duke Divinity School Summer Clinics, August 2-12, 1971.

One In-Residence Reading Program during the fall semester, 1971.

Two In-Residence Reading Programs during the spring semester, 1972.

The Duke Divinity School Summer Clinics, July 31-August 10, 1972.

A representative committee has been set up to secure funds and provide a very limited number of scholarships for persons to attend continuing education programs other than those sponsored by the participating institutions.

STUART C. HENRY, Secretary

CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON CONTINUING EDUCATION

The North Carolina Conference Committee on Continuing Education is the instrument by which the N. C. Methodist Commission on Continuing Education seeks to stimulate response on the part of individual pastors to continuing education programs. Also, the committee, on a district or multidistrict level, initiates courses, seminars, etc., in various areas of pastoral concern. The intent is to encourage pastors to maintain a continual involvement in the enlarging of their pastoral competence and understanding by going on to enrollment in courses sponsored on the state level or in other parts of the country.

The Committee on Continuing Education recommends the following program for the 1971-1972 conference year:

1. Full support and participation by district superintendents, Conference officials and pastors in continuing education programs recommended by the North Carolina Methodist Commission on Continuing Education. We recommend the approval of scholarship aid to individual pastors applying for participation in continuing education held out of state.
2. A course in preaching open to all pastors, but designed primarily to meet the needs of pastors who have not completed requirements for Conference membership, this course to be given in the Elizabeth City district.
3. A course to be given in the general area of the Sanford district, open to all pastors, but designed primarily to meet the continuing education needs of pastors who have already met the requirements for Conference membership.

COMMISSION ON ECUMENICAL AFFAIRS

RECOMMENDATIONS FOR 1971-1972

The Commission on Ecumenical Affairs recommends that during the 1971-72 Conference year emphasis be given to the study of "A Plan of Union" in connection with the Consultation on Church Union.

Some of the plans for this study have already been made during the 1970-71 Conference year. On October 2, 1970, four representatives of our Conference, including Bishop William R. Cannon, Dr. N. W. Grant, Reverend L. C. Vereen, and Dr. C. W. Robbins, attended a meeting of representatives from the nine member communions of COCU from the Southern states. At this meeting it was decided that individual denominations would wait for a State COCU Plan of Study. Dr. Grant served as the representative from our Conference on the North Carolina Committee. The state-wide committee has recommended the following schedule:

1. Planning Conferences at Goldsboro February 26-27, 1971, and Statesville March 5-6, 1971 (already held).
2. One-day meetings for all pastors and one layman from each charge from April 20 to May 7, 1971, with meetings held in Burlington, Raleigh, Williamston, Jacksonville, and Fayetteville (already held).
3. Local studies with representatives of the COCU communions participating in the churches October 1, 1971 to January 31, 1972.
4. Local church response February 1, 1972 to June 1, 1972. All local Methodist churches are urged to make their evaluation on "A Plan of Reunion" and recommendations for future plans.

Each local Methodist church is asked to join the other member communions of COCU for this very timely study. The pastor and the local church Committee on Ecumenical Affairs are urged to take the initiative and to see that an honest and serious study of this document is made available. This can be one of the most rewarding experiences during the coming Conference year, and we urge all of our people to read the book, A Plan of Union, to participate in the ecumenical study, and to make their response in order that the leaders of COCU may know how to plan for the future.

It is inspiring to know that at a time when the world seems to be falling apart, Christians are thinking of coming together to make their witness for Christ.

The Conference Commission on Ecumenical Affairs and the District Directors of Ecumenical Affairs will be glad to be of any help possible in developing this study in local communities.

BOARD OF EDUCATION

Recommendations

SECTION A.

Committee on General Church School Ministry

CHRISTIAN WHITE, Chairman

A. LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT

In view of the changing patterns in the whole structure of Church organization, we see our task shifting more to a role of leadership development. Further, this role seems to be one of response to rather than initiator. By this we mean, we are seeking to discover where the churches need us to plug in rather than have us plan for leadership enterprises and then ask them to participate.

1. In light of this pattern, we recommend to the Program Council that:
 - a. More of our leadership development be geared to pastors on a long-term regular continuing education basis.
 - b. The purposes of this training be to enable pastors to understand and practice leadership skills and set up leadership development enterprises for training their own lay people to minister and be in mission.
 - c. That these leadership efforts be reported to the district program council for evaluation and to be shared with other churches.
2. We recommend that the District Program Council become the central agency through which leadership development is funneled in the district. We have two immediate concerns here.
 - a. We urge the District Program Councils to find a suitable medium of introducing pastors and churches to the new Resource System for Local Church Council on Ministries.
 - b. We see value in bringing together clusters of churches to help them enlarge their vision of ministry and to learn from them where they need help from the district and conference resources in developing leadership.

3. Leadership Development in Black United Methodist Churches

The Reverend Willard A. Williams has recently been employed as Assistant to the General Secretary of the Division of the Local Church, United Methodist Board of Education, to work with annual conferences in designing a process by which effective Christian education can be promoted in black churches through leadership development.

We recommend that the North Carolina Annual Conference endorse this effort and give its support to finding ways in which we can work with the black churches of the conference to enrich their Christian education ministries, utilizing the services of Mr. Williams.

4. Leadership Development in Churches of Small Membership

Approximately 62 per cent of all United Methodist Churches have 200 members or less. In the North Carolina Conference, 536 of 868 churches, or 62 per cent, have less than 200 members, and 364 of these have less than 100 members. Small congregations tend to have less than average opportunities for developing skilled leaders.

The Division of the Local Church Board of Education, The United Methodist Church, has assigned Miss Jennie Youngblood as Director of Services to Designated Leaders in Churches with Small Memberships. She is available to assist the North Carolina Conference in developing a plan for assisting small churches in improving their educational ministry.

We recommend that our conference endorse this project and request the Program Council to begin an effort to design a process for effective Christian education through leadership development in churches with small memberships, utilizing the services of Miss Youngblood.

5. Area and Cluster Group Schools and Workshops

We recommend that Area and Cluster Group Workshops, Leadership Training Schools, and Laboratory Enterprises be continued wherever a need is expressed for these.

B. SPECIAL DAYS

We recommend that each local church observe the following special days as required by The United Methodist Church and that they take the special offerings called for after explaining the purpose and importance of each. We call attention to the fact that certain of these special offerings are not included in the "Single Figure Asking" of our conference.

1. Methodist Student Day, June 13, 1971. Special offering for United Methodist Student Loan and Scholarship Fund. (Not included in "Single Figure Asking").
2. Promotion Day in the Church School, August 29, 1971. (No special offering).
3. Christian Education Sunday, September 26, 1971. (Included in "Single Figure Asking").
4. College Day, November 7, 1971. (No special offering required).
5. Student Recognition Day, December 26, 1971. (No special offering).
6. Race Relations Sunday, February 13, 1972. Special offering for United Methodist Negro Colleges. Goal for North Carolina Conference, $35,000.00. (Not included in "Single Figure Asking").
7. National Family Week, May 7-14, 1972. (No special offering).

SECTION B.

Committee on Children's Ministry

E. CLIFFORD SHOAF, Chairman

Recommendations for 1971-1972

A. In keeping with the purpose, mission and five priority goals set by the Board of Education and the Program Council, and based upon the five priority needs for work with children identified by the Committee on Children's Work, the following program recommendations are made for next year:

1. That a pilot project to strengthen the role of the District Coordinator of Children's Ministries in Communicating, Resourcing, and Enabling be undertaken this year by the Council on Children's Ministries. The objective is to improve the work of District Coordinators and strengthen the effort of District Program Councils in work with children. This project is in keeping with our aim to get leadership training as near a local church needs as possible. We request Program Council funding of about $600 for this project.

2. That a cadre of new workers with children be recruited and trained to conduct leadership development projects and teacher training programs of all kinds with local workers with children. Our need for competent resource leaders to work as trainers is great. The demand to do teacher training at district and local levels requires a large group of well-equipped resource leaders. We request the services of the Conference Director of Nurture and Training to develop a project design and to provide guidance in undertaking this project.

3. That the Teacher Improvement Workshops be continued next year and especially adapted to: (1) be conducted as close as possible to the churches of small memberships, (2) holding more than one in each district, (3) held at times of day when the widest possible participation can be secured, and (4) include training for all workers with children: VCS, church school, week-day, children's choirs, etc.

We recommend that the Program Council give consideration to scheduling these in the spring and that adequate funding be made available for them (our estimate is about $1,200).

4. That the Camp Committee be requested to continue its program focus on ecological studies and stewardship of natural resources; and that continued study of the content and format of the camp curriculum be made in an effort to keep the program on good Christian education standards for children.

5. That a more intensive effort to reach children outside the church with Christian education be made by local churches. Assuming that many parents and children will not come into the church building, this proposal recommends that special outreach educational projects be undertaken in areas where there are concentrations of unchurched children. In an original effort to initiate this project it is recommended that a Conference staff representative be assigned to obtain information from SINNEX concerning successful programs of this nature being done in other churches, and that the Council on Children's Ministries be asked to develop a plan to work with some local churches in installing such a project in selected areas. We request funds be budgeted in the following year for this project.

6. That the Committee on Music Ministry be encouraged and supported in the effort to conduct a Children's Music Workshop in 1971-72, and that they also implement the "Hymn of the Month" emphasis with recommendations that local church children's choirs learn and use the great hymns of the church.

7. That a special workshop for local church workers with children be conducted Conference-wide in October and November, 1971, to review the use of our curriculum materials and the teaching procedures they encompass. We recommend using resource teams and conducting these at the sub-district level. The aim is to reach the many new teachers who have never been oriented to these materials and practices, and to get at the problem of many churches who have discarded the curriculum. We request $600 to fund this project.

8. We recommend one more year's support of EXIS, the Experimental Information Service, which began operations this year, and we will evaluate the results next year.

Committee on Camps and Conferences

SEABORN BLAIR, Chairman

Recommendations for 1971-1972

A. PROGRAM

1. Summer Camps

a. We recommend that the eight weeks of resident camp at Chestnut Ridge, Don-Lee, and Rockfish be continued.

b. We recommend the following special summer camps in 1971:

- 1) Family Camp at Don-Lee, July 11-17.
- 2) Camp for the Mentally Retarded at Don-Lee, August 15-21.
- 3) Camp for the Mentally Retarded at Chestnut Ridge, July 11-16.
- 4) Senior High Aquatics Camp at Kerr Lake, July 11-17.
- 5) Local church camps at Rockfish from July 18-August 14.
- 6) Four consecutive two-week camps at Don-Lee.
- 7) Two consecutive four-week camps at Don-Lee.

c. We recommend that explorations be made concerning the feasibility of a resident staff person at Kerr Lake during the summer of 1971. This person would supervise the new day use area and coordinate schedules and programs by groups and individuals using the camp.

d. We recommend that the Conference Board of Education be authorized to continue to receive funds for the Campership Fund to help disadvantaged youngsters attend camp.

e. We recommend that efforts continue to develop an inclusive camping program at both the staff and camper levels.

f. We recommend that possibilities be explored for ecumenical and cooperative approaches to camping.

2. Retreats and Year-round Camping

a. We recommend that local churches be encouraged and helped to make better year-round use of our four campsites for Day Camping, Retreats, Planning Sessions, Fellowship Groups, Enrichment and study settings, etc.

b. We recommend that work camps and service projects be encouraged and planned for at each of the camps.

B. MAINTENANCE

The proposed budget of World Service recommends $50,000 for camp maintenance for use in 1972-1973. This amount is needed if the four conference camps are to be kept in order and in good repair for the more than 6,000 persons who will use them each year. We recommend that these funds be allocated by the Camp Committee, as in the past, to continuing and special maintenance needs at each of the camps.

C. DEVELOPMENT

Whereas nearly one-third of the $300,000 pledged to the Conference Camps Crusade has not been paid, and

Whereas, immediate emergency needs at each of the camps will not be met if the Camps Crusade is not completed, we therefore recommend:

1. That a small committee be appointed in each district by the District Superintendent to develop a strategy for the completion of the Camps Crusade, and

2. That the Camp Committee be authorized to proceed with the construction and development of priorities at each camp, based on priorities considered and set by the Camp Committee, as funds become available without incurring indebtedness.

II. COLLEGE SUSTAINING FUND 1971-1972

We recommend that the proposed College Sustaining Fund Budget of $550,000.00 for 1971-1972 be distributed to our conference-related institutions as follows:

Operating Budgets $525,000.00

Bennett College	$ 2,000.00
Duke University (Divinity School)	21,966.00
Greensboro College	16,736.00
High Point College	16,736.00
Louisburg College	125,520.00
Methodist College	171,021.00
North Carolina Wesleyan College	171,021.00
Total Operating	$525,000.00

Capital Debt Retirement $25,000.00

Louisburg College	$ 5,000.00
Methodist College	10,000.00
North Carolina Wesleyan College	10,000.00
Total Capital	$ 25,000.00
GRAND TOTAL	$550,000.00

We further recommend that these funds be paid to the institutions quarterly from current receipts.

III. Capital Funds Crusade

While our Capital Funds Crusade has been officially terminated, the need for additional funds for debt retirement and the enhancement of academic programs of our colleges continue. We commend those churches that continue to honor their commitments and still make payments through the conference treasurer's office. We also support the efforts of our colleges to secure additional funds through general campaigns and private solicitations.

IV. College Day

We recommend that Sunday, November 7, 1971, be observed as College Day in all of our local churches at which time our people be informed concerning the unique opportunities our conference-related colleges offer our youth and the need they have for our continued support.

V. Study of Conference-Related Colleges

The 1970 Annual Conference authorized the commission to make a study of the relationship of the conference to its colleges and to report its findings to the 1971 Annual Conference. A number of meetings have been held with representatives of Louisburg, North Carolina Wesleyan, and Methodist Colleges; conference officials; and agencies of the National Church. From these meetings, it is obvious that a major report to the Annual Conference is needed. The report must include careful study and review of the conference commitment to Christian Higher Education and recommend a conference policy in unmistakable terms so that we can be guided to appropriate action during the next quadrennium and beyond.

In the assessment of a conference policy, the following must be studied in collaboration with the N. C. Regional Commission on Christian Higher Education and Campus Ministry: the role of each college (Louisburg, North Carolina Wesleyan, and Methodist); an evaluation of the contributions of each of the above, the relationship of the North Carolina Conference to Duke University, Greensboro College, High Point College, and Bennett College; and the level of conference support which will be needed to maintain both quality of stitution and the historic relationship of this conference to Christian higher education. Two studies leading to possible state support of North Carolina students enrolling in private colleges and to the institutions themselves have been in progress during 1970-71. Both of these state-wide studies have made recommendations to the North Carolina General Assembly and any action, positively or negatively, will have a direct bearing upon the future of the conference colleges. Federal support is also at a stage where conclusions are not possible at this time. We, therefore, request that the Annual Conference grant an extension of time for making this study with the expectation that a report will be made to the 1972 Annual Conference.

VI. Race Relations Sunday Offering

The 1970 General Conference, recognizing the fact that the twelve black colleges historically related to and supported by the United Methodist Church fill a vital place in the structure of higher education in America and are in serious financial difficulty, recommended that a special effort be made to secure four million dollars annually for two years through the Race Relations Sunday offering for these institutions. The quota suggested for the North Carolina Conference is $35,000 per year for the two years.

We recommend that a vigorous effort be made in each local church to secure its fair share of this amount in 1971-1972.

We recommend that the 1971-1972 Race Relations Sunday offering be distributed as follows: Paine College, an amount equal to that which it will receive in 1970-1971; Bennett College, that amount received above the Paine College commitment. We further recommend that the plan of distributing this fund be reviewed next year.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON ENLISTMENT FOR CHURCH OCCUPATIONS

1. We recommend the continued updating of the Church Enlistment Questionnaire for our central filing system in the Program Council office.

2. We recommend participation in United Methodist Guidance Center at Wesleyan College in Rocky Mount, N. C.

3. We recommend the establishment of a Vocational Intern Program. This Vocational Intern Program (VIP) will be designed to provide graduating high school students and college age young people a summer opportunity to serve in a "local situation" and gain on-the-job experience for church-related careers.

4. We recommend a yearly banquet for all men coming into the Conference in Full Connection. This banquet should be held the day before the Annual Conference convenes in 1972. The purpose of this banquet is to give special recognition and official welcome to these new Conference members by our Bishop and other selected Conference leaders.

5. We recommend that the Commission join in a cooperative effort with the Committee on Youth Ministry to offer a one-day meeting for Junior Highs and Senior Highs who are interested in the pastoral ministry. Each pastor would be encouraged to bring his youth to this important meeting.

6. We recommend the organization of short term mission teams of trained persons, both in and out of college, who would be willing to work in special needed mission settings.

7. We recommend the continued support for the Lay Rally scholarship offerings and request that each district, when feasible, have recipients of the scholarship make a statement on behalf of this special offering.

8. We recommend the mailing to every pastoral charge of the North Carolina Conference a 1972 edition of the Annual Directory of Church Occupations and Voluntary Service.

9. We recommend producing a Conference movie on the ministry. This film would interpret the pastoral ministry within the context of the church's ministry in an attempt to motivate persons to consider the pastoral ministry as a vocational opportunity. We further recommend the establishment of a coordinating committee by the Program Council from agencies including the Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations, Board of the Ministry, Committee on Youth Ministry, TRAFICO, and other appropriate persons.

10. We recommend that this Commission cooperate with the Committee on Youth Ministry in offering "explorer weekends."

11. We recommend the continued promotion of Ministry Sunday with the Board of the Ministry.

12. We look with favor upon the continued effort being made to recruit seminary graduates for the North Carolina Conference and would strongly urge the establishment of a committee with selected persons from the Cabinet, Board of the Ministry, Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations and any other Conference leader who may be appointed by our Bishop. The cost of this recruitment would be defrayed by the above mentioned groups.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

INTRODUCTION

From every hand we are hearing about the renewal taking place in the United Methodist Church. If this renewal is to be genuine, we feel that the task before the North Carolina Conference is threefold:

1. If the church is to be renewed, it must get back into the business of proclaiming the Good News.
2. Your Board of Evangelism feels that we must confront people with a specific invitation to Jesus Christ and His Church.
3. Believing that prayer is the vital breath of Christianity, we must strengthen the spiritual life of our people through prayer and Bible study.

We call upon each pastor and each work area chairman in the field of evangelism to address themselves to the wonderful opportunities that challenge them.

I.

JUNE THROUGH AUGUST 1971

(Period of Discovery of Local Church Evangelistic Needs, Development of Local Leadership, and Planning with the Local Church Council on Ministries)

God is calling each congregation to a particular program of evangelism. It will vary from church to church because the needs of congregations vary. First, the pastor must examine himself and look at the evangelistic needs of the church he serves and the community about him. Second, the lay leadership in the work area of evangelism must meet with the pastor and plan a program for the local church which will involve the discovery of the evangelistic needs of that particular church and community.

1. We strongly urge that the district secretaries write a letter to each local church chairman in the area of evangelism as soon as names and addresses are available emphasizing that he is the key person to promote evangelism in his local church and that from him much will be expected. We also urge the use of the new handbook for the work area on evangelism.

2. We recommend that the district secretaries attend the Candler Camp Meeting and Southeastern Jurisdictional Conference on Evangelism at Lake Junaluska, August 15-20, 1971. We also urge local church leaders in evangelism to attend the Conference on Evangelism.

3. We urge pastors and workers in evangelism to study the new Design for Witness program of lay ministry. Design for Witness aims at ministering to the needs of persons, inviting them to discipleship and church membership, care and cultivation of members, and involving them in a witnessing ministry of their own. Resources may be secured from Findings, 1908 Grand Ave., Nashville, Tenn.

Local churches and districts wishing to begin the new Design for Witness program can arrange for workshops under the leadership of general board staff. To arrange for workshops in your church, district, or conference, contact Rev. Ross Whetstone, Local Church Section, General Board of Evangelism, 1908 Grand Ave., Nashville, Tenn. 37203.

4. We urge that our conference consider ways we can relate the program Key 73 to our efforts in evangelism. Key 73 is the name given to a broad-based evangelistic emphasis designed to make a united Christian impact on the life of the entire North American continent leading up to and during the year 1973. Representatives from nearly fifty denominations and religious groups are involved now in the planning. For further information you may write to Joseph H. Yeakel, 1908 Grand Ave., Nashville, Tenn. 37203.

5. All leaders and interested church members, especially work area chairmen on evangelism, are urged to attend the Summer R&R (Renewal and Recreation) sponsored by the Conference Program Council, August 8-15 at Methodist College. As last year, there will be both a week and weekend session. Date for week session is August 8-12 and weekend session is August 13-15.

II.

SEPTEMBER THROUGH DECEMBER)

(A Period of Retraining and Rededication)

SEPTEMBER

1. During this month personally contact the inactive members of your church and church school and challenge them to attendance.

2. The district secretary in cooperation with the District Superintendent plan and conduct the District Pastors' Retreat.

3. Make plans to participate in the Regional Evangelism Conference for Men being sponsored jointly by the Division of Evangelism of the Baptist State Convention and our Board of Evangelism. The dates for these conferences are:

October 18, 1971—Fayetteville

October 19, 1971—Rocky Mount (First United Methodist Church)

October 21, 1971—Durham (First Baptist Church). All services begin at 7:30 p.m.

4. Plan for one renewal experience within your church to offer during the month of November. You might have one of the following: Lay Witness Mission, New Life Mission, Preaching Crusade or Interdenominational Revival.

OCTOBER

1. During October utilize the new United Methodist Continuous Membership Training Material's, "A New Adventure in the Meaning of United Methodist Membership." Time these to be taught during the church school hour for all Senior High, Young Adult, and Adult church school members, particularly those inactive members who have been invited to this series as a means of retraining and explaining the mission of the church and a new doctrinal understanding of personal experience of and commitment to Christ in the individual life.

2. Make The Upper Room available to all students and shut-ins. Note: The Upper Room is now available in recorded form on cassettes.

3. Urge attendance at the Regional Evangelism Conference for Men at Fayetteville, Rocky Mount, and Durham.

NOVEMBER

1. Work with your local Council on Ministries to plan Christmas activities and the New Year's through Easter Attendance Crusade.

2. Continue to challenge persons to faith in Jesus Christ and involve them in His mission.

3. The District Secretaries' Retreat will be held November 13 and 14, 1971.

DECEMBER

1. Work with the Council on Ministries to promote Family Worship and encourage Christian Stewardship.

2. Work with Council on Ministries to plan Advent and Christmas worship gatherings of the congregation.

III.

(A Time of Evangelistic Outreach)

JANUARY 1972

1. Train interested, newly-rededicated Christian church members to seek out the uncommitted outside the church.

2. Make a prospect list and plan a Visitation Evangelistic Crusade. Don't forget the church attendance emphasis with the use of attendance registration materials.

3. Conduct a second confirmation class January 3 through March 26, 1972, using the new confirmation resources..

FEBRUARY THROUGH APRIL

1. We urge each local church, in cooperation with its Council on Ministries, to adopt the program, "Holy Season of Love," which lasts during the Lenten season.

a. Week of Letter-Writing—February 20-26

- b. Week of Phone Calls—February 27-March 4
- c. Week of Remembrance—March 5-11
- d. Week of Prayer—March 12-18
- e. Just for You—March 19-25

2. Spring meeting of the full Board of Evangelism (March 9, 1972).

3. Take confirmation class to Bishop's Meetings for Young Methodists—a joint enterprise with the Commission on Worship.

4. Work with your local Council on Ministries to plan for special services during Holy Week, March 26-April 1.

5. Emphasize the baptism of infants and the confirmation of new members during Easteride 1972. Assign active, committed Christians to be fellowship friends to all new and committed church members.

6. Order and use the Design for Witness materials.

LAY

1. Involve shut-in members in prayer and telephoning for the great day of Pentecostal witnessing to those outside the church.

2. Plan a prayer vigil for the Sunday before Pentecost.

3. Involve all of those who have been trained and have agreed to participate to go out and visit and witness to the uncommitted outside the church on the day of Pentecost.

4. Work with the Youth Age Level coordinator and the Council on Ministries in planning a program of Youth Evangelism for the summer.

IV.

SERVICE MINISTRIES

1. Summer Ministries. A continuation of the summer ministries at Nags Head and at Atlantic Beach and, hopefully, other places will continue to reach thousands of people as they did last summer. An opportunity to worship and give a witness to people while on vacation and during their leisure time has been proven to be a tremendous new form of evangelism.

2. The Fish. In larger population centers churches may join in manning a telephone number which will open the door to those who have emergency needs, such as providing rides for shut-ins, emergency housework for the sick, reading to the blind, talking to the lonely, referring those in critical need to other agencies. The telephone number would be publicized by all the churches of the community through all communication media.

3. Contact. This is another telephone ministry which involves trained, committed Christian shut-ins who can give counsel and help to desperate persons: those who are suicide prone or those who have sudden marital or moral problems. With proper training, a kind, sympathetic listener can save a person from a desperate act and give proper referral.

V.

THE BOARD OF EVANGELISM

We recommend that the full Board of Evangelism meet only one time during the year—in the spring (March 9, 1972).

We recommend that the district secretaries' retreat be held in the fall—November 13 and 14, 1971.

Recommendations

1. We recommend that the Purpose offered by the Program Council be amended to include the divine imperative, which is the prior purpose of and reason for the existence of the church.

2. We recommend that the Board of Evangelism work with the Committee on Youth Ministry to prepare a specific program in youth evangelism.

3. We recommend that each district form evangelistic teams of youth who would serve as resource persons in youth evangelism.

4. We recommend that the Conference Youth Rally be held in the fall with some emphasis on evangelism.

5. We recommend that the Junior High and Senior High Workshops be continued in the summer of 1972 and to include some type training in evangelism. Look at ways young people can reach unreached young people.

6. We recommend that the Board of Evangelism and Commission on Worship jointly sponsor the Bishop's Meeting with Young Methodists during the Lenten season during the conference year 1971-1972.

7. We recommend the reappointment of H. B. Jones, Robert J. Rudd and Tommy Tyson as approved conference evangelists and others who so desire this relationship and so meet the conditions.

KIMSEY KING, Chairman
ROBERT L. BAME, Secretary

RECOMMENDATIONS FROM THE DEPARTMENT OF GIFTS AND WILLS

1. We would like to secure permission to continue the promotion and cultivation of Gifts and Wills in the North Carolina Annual Conference.

2. We would like to continue the Scholarship and Trust Funds, and add to these, and to secure additional help for local churches, boards and agencies, and institutions in the North Carolina Annual Conference.

3. We plan to cultivate selective groups of individuals and interested persons and to hold conferences at selected places and times that would fit into the individual groups.

4. We would like to plan for some specific materials for distribution.

RECOMMENDATIONS OF THE BOARD OF HEALTH AND WELFARE MINISTRIES—1971-72

Golden Cross Committee

The committee recommends that the daily allowances for Golden Cross assistance remain at $25.00 per day for the 1971-72 Conference year.

In view of the fact that the reserve of Golden Cross funds are fastly being exhausted, and that no additional funds are currently being allotted, it is recommended that a careful study be made of the fund during the 1971-72 Conference year to a decision concerning the continuation of the program when present funds are exhausted.

The committee, which has been involved in a study of our insurance program conducted by the Special Committee on Insurance appointed by the last Annual Conference, recommends that:

—We add to our coverage major medical benefits which will cost the individual 36¢ per quarter, no increase for parents and child, and $1.83 per quarter for family policyholders.

—We accept the increased premiums—to become effective July 1, 1971—to maintain our present policy: $38.16 per quarter for individuals; $75.36 per quarter for parent and child; and $107.43 for family policyholders.

The Committee recognizes and commends the work of Chaplain Wesley Aitken and his staff in the chaplaincy program at Duke Medical Center. It is recommended that we continue our support of the program in the amount of $5,500 for the 1971-72 Conference year.

The committee recognizes the work with alcoholics of the Reverend J. C. Dunn in the Good Shepherd Home at Lake Waccamaw, N. C., and recommends that we continue our support in the amount of $2,500 for the 1971-72 Conference year.

The committee recommends that we drop our support of the Damascus Home in Snow Camp, N. C.

Retirement Home Committee

The committee requests the Bishop to appoint the Reverend Joseph F. Coble to be administrator and the Reverend Harvey B. Johnson to be administrative assistant for the 71-72 Conference year.

The committee recommends that the Home be given the privilege of solicitation of funds for the purpose of carrying on the work of The Home and the financing of another home within the bounds of the Conference.

The committee recommends that the Annual Conference seriously consider expanding its ministries to retired people in the following directions:

- A health care center to accept chronically ill. (See recommendation of Long-Range Planning Committee).
- Additional facilities to care for an increasing number of retired "well" persons who need the services of a retirement home. This may be in the form of an additional home or several small homes throughout the Conference. With a health care center available these could be transferred to the center when they became nursing cases. If these facilities are provided members on public assistance, then care can be provided without the church carrying too much of the burden.
- Low and medium cost housing in areas where this is not being taken care of by public groups. This can be in the form of cottages, apartments, condominiums or homes. There is some governmental money available through long-term loans and through rent supplements.

Home for Children Committee

The committee requests the Bishop to reappoint Reverend J. W. Lineberger, Sr. to be superintendent and Reverend James M. Waggoner to be chaplain for the 1971-72 Conference year.

The committee recommends that The Home be approved for privately soliciting and receiving gifts to be directed to that agency by individuals, local churches, foundations, and other organizations.

The committee further recommends that the Thanksgiving season of 1971 be reserved as a period for publicizing and promoting the Church's ministry to children through the Methodist Home for Children, and that other interest and causes not be permitted to encroach upon or conflict with this traditional emphasis.

Long-Range Planning Committee

The present arrangement of having the District Chairmen of Social Concerns represent Golden Cross adds an extra responsibility to their already heavy load and limits the work of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries in the district.

In accord with paragraph 1174 of The Discipline, we request that each District superintendent designate a District Chairman of Health and Welfare Ministries as is now being done for other agencies.

SEMAR (Southeastern Methodist Agency for the Retarded) is an agency recommended by the General Conference which operates under the Health and Welfare Ministries. It has its own Constitution and By-Laws and it operates on its own budget allotted to it from the Jurisdictional Budget. Its objectives are: (1) To render needed services to handicapped, mentally retarded persons to help them attain their full potential. (2) To develop residential services for severely and profoundly retarded infants and young children when they await admission to public facilities. (3) To develop residential day care and rehabilitation for trainable and educatable retarded children and youth. (4). To stimulate local churches to minister to the retarded.

We endorse the work of this new agency and desire that the Annual Conference welcome it into a vital relationship through our Board of Health and Welfare Ministries. We also request that the Annual Conference elect two trustees to SEMAR's Board, one layman and one clergyman, on nomination of our Board of Health and Welfare Ministries.

The trustees of the Methodist Retirement Home have appointed a committee to study the needs for and possibilities of a health care center on the home's grounds in Durham. The need for a 100-150-bed facility, costing approximately a million and a half dollars, has been projected. The home would provide one-third of the costs and borrow an additional one-third. The remaining one-third would need to be secured through memorial gifts in order for such a center to become a reality.

The committee recommends that this committee be encouraged to do a detailed feasibility study, including the possibility of other locations, as well as the one in Durham. Also, that the plans for the operational expenses be included. We further recommend that the Annual Conference lend its weight to this endeavor.

Nominating Committee

The committee recommends that the Annual Conference adopt the following policies concerning the nomination and election of trustees to The Methodist Retirement Home and The Methodist Home for Children:

- That the Nominating Committee of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries make the nominations to the Annual Conference for the two boards after receiving suggestions from the institutions and on approval of the Board of Health and Welfare Ministries.
- That a rotation system be followed at both institutions: tenure of two three-year terms at the Methodist Retirement Home; tenure of one six-year term at the Methodist Home for Children.
- That a person not be nominated to serve on the Board of one institution while holding membership on that of the other. (This would not apply to those who hold membership in an ex-officio relationship.)
- That a minimum three-year period lapse before full-term members can be nominated for another term.

The following nominations are made to the Board of Trustees of the Methodist Home for Children:

Rev. R. Dennis Ricks, Fayetteville, to fill the unexpired term of R. R. Braswell, 1974

For regular six-year terms expiring 1977: Mr. Vincent Lowe, Wilson, N. C.; Rev. S. T. Gillespie, Fayetteville, N. C.; Mr. Frank Steinbeck, Greenville, N. C.; Rev. Norwood Jones, Rocky Mount, N. C.; Rev. W. W. Sherman, Jr., Chapel Hill, N. C.; Mrs. Lawrence Erdmon, New Bern, N. C.

The following nomination is made to the Board of Trustees of SEMAR: Rev. Vassar Jones, Louisburg, N. C.

REPORT OF JOINT COMMITTEE ON DISABILITY

Ministers' Emergency Fund

1. The Sustentation Fund is to be used for emergency relief in the form of grants to effective ministers and lay pastors serving appointments whose salary is paid by the local church or conference treasurer, and who become disabled to the extent that they are unable to continue their work, and whose income is not adequate to meet emergency needs.

2. Emergency appropriations shall be used to bring the disabled ministers' income up to a maximum of $4,320 per conference year. If the applicant receives other personal income in excess of $4,320 such additional income shall be deducted from the emergency grant. In no event shall the emergency funds be used to supplement an applicant's income of $4,320 or above.

3. Payment of this $4,320 will be on the basis of $360 per month. Payments will be made only during those months the applicant qualifies for Emergency Funds. No fund will be appropriated without three-fourths approval of the Joint Committee on Disability

4. The Joint Committee on Disability secretary must place all necessary forms in the hands of the Cabinet members at the beginning of each conference year.
5. In all cases the applications—the district superintendent, the doctor, and the applicant—shall be completed and forwarded to the chairman of the committee before approval of funds will be made. Any minister expecting to receive Emergency Funds at the beginning of the conference year should make application not later than two weeks before the annual conference convenes.
6. The Joint Committee on Disability may require physiological and psychological examination when deemed necessary by the committee. These will be done by a doctor approved by the committee and results of tests will be sent to the committee. In such case the committee may share the expense of the examination in an amount not to exceed $100.
7. Funds will be made payable within thirty days following committee approval.
8. In cases where application for Emergency Funds occur during the session of the annual conference, the applicant's district superintendent, and the applicant, when possible, shall present an oral application to a joint committee of the Cabinet and at least three members of the Joint Committee on Disability. At this time appropriate action will be taken in keeping with the best interest of the applicant and in the spirit of the Emergency Fund. The written forms must be completed and placed with the committee within thirty days of this meeting.
9. All cases shall be reviewed at the middle of the conference year to determine progress made in each case. It shall be the responsibility of each applicant's district superintendent to see that the progress reports—statements from the doctor and the district superintendent—are completed and placed with the committee. Should this review of the applicant's disability reveal that he is capable of reassuming work, it shall be the responsibility of the Joint Committee on Disability to bring this information to the attention of the Cabinet.
10. Should the disability continue beyond one year or through one annual conference we call attention to the fact that the General Board of Pensions makes medical disability payments, based on a man's service years. We also call attention that it is possible that in some cases retirement may offer specific advantages over Emergency Fund aid.
11. Should the disability continue beyond one year or through one annual conference, the Joint Committee will conform to Disciplinary Requirements as found in paragraph 357 which demand annual conference approval.
12. We recommend that expenses of travel, telephone, postage, etc., for the committee be paid from the Emergency Fund.

RESOLUTION

Be it Resolved, that the Joint Committee on Disability and the Cabinet work with the agencies and institutions to utilize talents and abilities of disabled ministers. It is recommended that where it is possible to give full or part-time employment by matching a need of the institution, or agency, to that of the disabled minister, it is strongly urged to do so. It is recommended that the administrative head of each institution and agency supply a list of possible positions to the Cabinet and to the Joint Committee on Disability, who will work for mutual satisfaction and placement. The final decision will rest with the cabinet.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF THE LAITY RECOMMENDATIONS TO THE ANNUAL CONFERENCE

The Board of the Laity, through its Commissions, submits the following recommendations:

The Commission on Lay Life and Work

Lay Ministries. As laymen with a ministry we cannot sit quietly back and expect professional men, such as the clergy, social workers, missionaries, teachers, etc., to be the total witness for Christ in the world. We can no longer relax by the side of the road and just "be a friend to man." Laymen must move out where the mainstream of the traffic flows in varying speeds and in various directions. The laity of the Church are also called to serve, and, if need be, to suffer for Christ's sake.

We wish to cooperate with other program agencies of the church in supporting and equipping the laity for life and ministry in the church and in the world. It is recommended that learning opportunities be available at the "R and R" weekend sessions at the United Methodist Men's Retreat that would prepare our laymen to better serve in the local church and in the world. We further recommend that each District Lay Leader and District Director of Lay Ministries establish training sessions within the district that are best suited to the needs of the local church. We also remind Lay Speakers and ministers that November 1971 has been set as the goal for all Lay Speakers to be certified by the recommendation of the charge conference and by completion of the basic training course for Lay Speakers.

Spiritual Life. We propose that the laity of our Conference search for and work toward more meaningful ventures in evangelism. We recommend that the Lay Witness Mission movement continue as an unstructured ministry within our Conference and that we support this work with our efforts and time. We propose that other avenues of participation be explored such as Christian Growth Conferences, Design for Witness, and other forms of "renewal." We further recommend that the District Lay Rallies be continued with program content and plans to be the responsibilities of the District Lay Leader and District Superintendent with the guidance of the District Program Council.

We suggest that each District Lay Leader and District Superintendent consider the possibility of having Lay-Clergy dialogue sessions at the district, sub-district, and local church levels.

United Methodist Men. We recommend that continued effort through District Leaders, Lay Leaders and Pastors be made to organize new fellowships and strengthen those existing groups. We propose that each club review the basic principles of United Methodist Men, that is, to deepen the spiritual lives of the men in the church and undergird all phases of the program of the local church under the direction of the pastor. We recommend that a United Methodist Men's Retreat be held in the summer of 1971. We support the plans and encourage the participation of our laymen in the Regional Evangelism Conferences for Men sponsored by the Evangelism divisions of the Baptist State Convention and the United Methodist Church in the month of October 1971.

The Commission on Stewardship and Finance

1. We recommend that continuing emphasis be given in the local church to the cultivation of Christian stewardship among all segments of the church clergy, laymen, laywomen, youth, and children.

2. We recommend the cooperation of the District and Conference Boards of the Laity with all other Conference agencies in the area of providing greater financial stability for our church-related institutions and agencies.

3. We recommend that during the month of October 1971 the Board of the Laity institute a promotional and educational program on tithing to reach into the local church.

4. We recommend that the District Boards of the Laity as a part of the 1972 Lay Rallies give some time for the Tithing emphasis.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON THE LAY WORKER

The Discipline of the United Methodist Church defines a Lay Worker in Paragraph 501 in this manner: "A Lay Worker in the church is a person other than the clergy who, by decision to make a career of the work (either full-time or term) in the employed status in the church or church-related agencies is accompanied by the meeting of standards of excellence in the chosen field of service and who has been consecrated by a bishop."

—RECOMMENDED FOR CONSECRATION AS A LAY WORKER (Par. 502, Discipline).

Richard Jerome Williams, Director of Christian Education, Centenary United Methodist Church, Smithfield, N. C.

James Malone Marshall, Minister of Music, Edenton Street United Methodist Church, Raleigh, N. C.

Roger Frank Searles, Minister of Music, St. Paul United Methodist Church, Goldsboro, N. C.

CONSECRATED LAY WORKERS OF THE NORTH CAROLINA CONFERENCE

Margaret Ann Biddle, University United Methodist Church, Chapel Hill, N. C.

Mrs. Charles Davenport, First United Methodist Church, Wilson, N. C.

Miss Ruthann Greenawald, Front Street United Methodist Church, Burlington, N. C.

Mrs. Barbara Johnson Barnes, Jarvis Memorial United Methodist Church, Greenville, N. C.

Mrs. Alma W. Offutt, Queen Street United Methodist Church, Kinston, N. C.

Mrs. Clifton Smith, Highland United Methodist Church, Raleigh, N. C.

The Discipline places with the Committee on the Lay Worker the responsibility of advising the Annual Conference of "ways in which the Annual Conference may be supportive of the work of persons who serve as lay workers."

The Committee on the Lay Worker calls the attention of the Annual Conference and especially the attention of local churches employing lay workers to Paragraph 507.1 of the Discipline which reads: "The employing agency shall include the lay worker in the retirement plan of the Lay Employee Pension Fund (Par. 1377.12) or other such appropriate plan as provided by the Board of Pensions." (This refers to the General Board of Pensions.)

For the sake of uniformity we recommend that the Pension Plan for Lay Workers in the North Carolina Conference be based upon an annual contribution of 9% of the employee's salary—6% to be paid by the employing agent and 3% by the employee.

We encourage local churches employing lay workers to provide a Blue Cross-Blue Shield Insurance Plan and participation in the Conference program of Group Life Insurance.

The Committee on the Lay Worker also calls upon all local churches within her bounds to provide a pension program for all lay employees—not only those who qualify as lay workers.

As a member of the SPECIAL INSURANCE COMMITTEE, we call your attention to IV, page 56 of RECOMMENDATIONS, 1971, "INSURANCE FOR LAY WORKERS," and thank you for voting in favor of the entire report.

REPORT OF THE MINIMUM SALARY COMMISSION

I. Recommendations

The Minimum Salary Commission recommends for the Conference year 1971-72, that the minimum salaries for all ministers who are serving pastoral appointments be as follows:

1. Conference Member: One or more dependent children, $6,600; married, $6,400; single, $6,200.

2. Associate: One or more dependent children, $6,000; married, $5,800; single, $5,600.

In the event that a pastor on minimum salary changes status he will not receive any less than he did the previous year.

3. Lay Pastor: One or more dependent children, $5,800; married, $5,600; single, $5,400.

4. Student: One or more dependent children, $5,000 plus travel; married, $4,800 plus travel; single, $4,600 plus travel.

Travel allowance is based on the distance of student's parsonage from the school he attends. When the parsonage is 25 miles or less, it shall be $100; when the parsonage is more than 25 miles but less than 50 miles, it shall be $200; when the parsonage is more than 50 miles but less than 75 miles, it shall be $300; when the parsonage is more than 75 miles but less than 100 miles, it shall be $400; and when the parsonage is 100 miles or more from the school, $500 shall be the maximum travel allowance.

5. Retired Supply Pastors: $3,000 (including travel and utilities).

6. Part-time Supplies: Ministers of any status who are serving part-time will receive income from minimum salary funds, if any, on a basis negotiated with the church, the pastor, the district superintendent, and the Minimum Salary Commission.

The Minimum Salary Commission is aware of the Scott Resolution of the 1970 Annual Conference, and has investigated the cost of bringing the minimum salaries of lay pastors and associates to the level of conference members with the possibility of supporting fifty-one (51) lay pastors on minimum salary instead of an anticipated twenty-two (22) at an additional cost of $24,500.

The Minimum Salary Commission feels that the above report is the fairest it can arrive at, considering fiscal responsibility and educational incentive, and that the lay pastors should remain in the same relative position.

II. PRINCIPLES GOVERNING THE USE OF MINIMUM SALARY FUNDS

The Commission urges each charge receiving Minimum Salary funds, its minister, and district superintendent so to administer the affairs of the charge that it may move as rapidly as possible toward full financial support.

To enable the conference, the commission, and the superintendents to carry on their cooperative efforts in understanding, harmony, and for the greatest good for all concerned, the following principles and procedures are set forth:

1. All requests for financial assistance on pastors' salaries for the succeeding year shall be presented by the district superintendent to the Program Council not later than June 15.

2. The family or marital status of the pastor at the time of assignment to the charge shall govern the amount paid the minister for he entire conference year.

3. In considering the salary for a charge, we call attention to the fact that the Commission on Minimum Salary must count salary, travel, utilities, bonuses, and expense allowances as salary in making appropriations to the charge. We stress the importance of reporting all contributions, so that all ministers involved may be treated alike.

4. No charge may receive from minimum salary more than one-third of the total salary received with the exception of newly-established congregations. Charges must be arranged so that no more than one-third of the total salary be supplemented from minimum salary funds. Charges asking for more than one-third supplement must make an additional application, indicating the reasons for being given special consideration.

Dividing Charges

5. The Commission on Minimum Salary suggests that, as a general practice, no appointments be made with a membership of less than 400, if the charge is to expect Minimum Salary support. Creation of circuits and/or charges should be on the basis of mutual agreement by all churches on the circuit rather than simply from the desire of the larger church to withdraw for its own benefit and advancement.

6. When the division of a charge is considered necessary and minimum salary is to be requested for either of the new charges resulting from such divisions, such project shall be presented to the Program Council not later than May 1, so that a satisfactory evaluation can be made by the Commission. Without its approval the Commission shall not be obligated to provide minimum salary support for either of the churches resulting from such division.

7. In the division of circuits where one church seeks to become a station, it is recommended that such church assume all salary obligations and its proportionate share of single-figure asking.

a. It is recommended that the remainder of the division pay two-thirds of pastoral support, and its share of single-figure asking.

b. The Commission on Minimum Salary further recommends that each charge which has received, or shall hereafter receive minimum salary aid, shall reduce this aid by 10% each year until the charge has accepted full self-support. The district superintendents are to inform all charges receiving, or to receive aid in the future, of this regulation which district superintendents should report. This requirement must be kept in mind in preparing for any requests.

c. When a charge has been established as a student appointment and desires to be served by a full-time minister, this change may take place at such time as the charge shall pay two-thirds of the amount needed to provide such full-time ministerial support and shall agree to reduce the aid by 10% each year.

d. When there is a division of a charge forming one or more student appointments, the charge must pay two-thirds of said salary.

A New Church as a Charge

8. When a new church is to be established and becomes a new charge, the district superintendent shall present for study the complete details of the proposed project not later than May 1. These details shall be presented by them to the Conference Board of Missions and the Commission on Minimum Salary. If such new church is approved by the Board and Commission, the Commission shall provide Minimum Salary assistance and the Board shall supplement the salary to make it adequate, and shall assist the new charge in providing living quarters for the minister and a place to meet and worship. It shall be understood that each year the new charge shall accept more of the budget until it becomes self-supporting. We recommend that each new church shall become self-supporting in a period of ten years or less.

a. Exception will be made if charge has made a reasonable effort to become self-supporting and is willing and able to increase salary at least $300 annually, increase its percentage askings proportionately, and reach full support within five more years.

We also recommend that the minimum salary supplement be stopped at any time when full-time pastor takes over employment or is not employed full-time and that such a pastor may be reinstated at any time during the year that he returns to full-time ministerial status.

PRESTON D. PAGE, Chairman

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF THE MINISTRY

Report No. I

The Board of the Ministry makes the following recommendations:

1. A Retreat on the Ministry in each district, in which the priorities of our servant-hood would be examined, seems to be a necessity for all ministers of the Conference during the coming year. It should focus on the conservation of the ministry by examining our responsibilities both to the church and to each other, standards of our profession within the framework of our calling, ethics within the church and the community, and ways of developing growth in our personal and family life. The dates and places of these retreats are to be set by the District Program Councils.

2. Every local church is urged to observe Ministry Sunday on September 19, 1971 (or the nearest convenient date) in order that the Ministry, in its nature and function, might be brought to the attention of our people. It is imperative that all ministers seek to enlist highly qualified persons for church occupations.

3. We look with favor upon a continued effort being made to recruit seminary graduates for membership in the North Carolina Conference, and we strongly urge the establishment of a committee of selected persons from the Cabinet, the Board of the Ministry, and the Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations, and other Conference leaders appointed by the Bishop to assume this responsibility. The costs of this effort are to be defrayed by the above-mentioned groups.

4. The use of the Counseling Elder is a most effective means of supervising many of our new and often untrained pastors. It is urged that each of our Lay Pastors who requires the assistance of a Counseling Elder have one assigned to him in accordance with the provisions of Paragraph 353 of the Discipline.

5. The Ministerial Education Fund is becoming one of the most helpful sources of financial assistance for the education of our pastors. We encourage all of the churches of our Conference to accept and to pay their full apportionment for this cause at the earliest possible date.

6. In view of the great need for a counseling service for the ministers of our Conference and their families, we recommend that the Board of the Ministry join with other conference groups to plan and organize an adequate counseling service for the ministers' families. We would also recommend the Interpreters House, Lake Junaluska, N. C., as a valuable and significant facility established for the purpose of aiding ministers and their wives in their personal and professional lives.

7. The Board of the Ministry expects to join with the Commission on Enlistment for Church Occupations in sponsoring during the fall of 1971 an event honoring Members received into Full Connection at the 1971 Conference Session.

8. The area of continuing education for ministers is one of the most crucial matters before us. The people of the church expect their ministers to be aware of and familiar with the changing circumstances of our world today, and without some disciplined study, this is impossible. Each local church is urged to give support to programs planned in the area of continuing education for ministers. The churches should provide time, financial support, and encouragement for their pastors to participate. The Board pledges its support to the Commission on Continuing Education.

9. The ministers of this Conference holding special appointments are required to make a report to the Conference at least once each year, and the report should include a job analysis. Any change in address or nature of service should be reported to the Conference Secretary immediately. The area of service of each special appointment and its relevance to the church should be reviewed each year. Any minister failing to respond to the inquiry of the officially designated committee for a period of two consecutive years, should be considered for involuntary location.

10. Increasingly, there is evidence of ministers becoming part-time servants of the church and part-time or full-time laborers in the business world. Some study must be made and guidelines established for this type of relationship, looking not only at the current pastor in a given situation, but also at anticipated needs in the area of minimum salary, parsonage life, and parish development.

11. In cooperation with the committee appointed by the Annual Conference to study the problem of the minister's compensation, we offer the following recommendations:

a. That the minister's salary should be in keeping with the work level expected by the congregation, adequate to keep the minister from "being embarrassed by his indebtedness," and reflective of his family's needs. (Referred to the Commission on World Service and Finance).

b. That within two years every local church should assume the expense of parsonage utilities. Since the Bishop and Cabinet consider the ministers' total income as salary, the local church's consideration should be the same. (Referred as above).

c. That we petition the 1972 General Conference to urge national legislators to remove itinerant United Methodist ministers from the self-employed category in both the income tax and the social security programs.

REPORT OF THE BOARD OF MISSIONSRecommendations*COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION AND CULTIVATION

RUFUS H. STARK, Chairman

A. The Advance

The Advance is the opportunity provided for every local church to participate directly in the corporate mission of the church through designated giving. It is "second mile giving," going beyond each church's acceptance of World Service.

We recommend:

1. Recurring Advance Goal:

Continued efforts to encourage churches to enter into missionary salary support agreements. In this way a church may choose a missionary from the list of those needing support and agree to supply a definite part of his salary annually, thus making the missionary a part of the local church's staff. The goal is three new salary support churches in each district.

2. Non-recurring:a. World Division Commitments

- 1) Urban Church Assistance, Salisbury, Rhodesia, $21,714.00
- 2) New Hospital—Dispensary, Botswana, $10,000.00
This is a newly-opened field.

b. National Division Goals

- 1) Hinton Center—Rural and Urban Leadership Development Center, $5,000, Hayesville, N. C.
- 2) Lumbee Indian work, $2,500
- 3) That the Robeson County Church and Community Center be supported with a goal in the amount of $10,000.

c. UMCOR goal—$5,000d. Conference Advance Goals

- 1) Seashore Ministries, $2,500
- 2) Ten Dollar Club. Conference and World Church Extension.

3. That an Advance Work Sheet be supplied to each local church along with the budget work sheets to facilitate each church in planning an Advance contribution in each of the four major areas: World, National, UMCOR, and Conference.

B. Missionary Education

It is important to be aware of present and needed action regarding God's mission in the world.

We recommend:

1. Continued support of the Conference Program Council Study-training enterprise, R & R, August 9-12, 13-15.
2. That each district Program Council plan innovative ways to involve local churches in utilization of churchwide study materials with all age levels, preferably in September.
3. That each district Program Council plan itineration of Mission Interpreters (missionaries) in the district at least once during the year.
4. That each district Program Council be involved in planning for wide attendance at the special district-wide mission rally.

C. Training Plans for the Committee on Education and Cultivation. It will be necessary for the District Chairmen of Missions to attend.

1. The Missionary Conference of the SEJ at Lake Junaluska July 19-25.
2. Conference R & R—August 9-12.

D. Special Recommendations to Program Council

We recommend that the Conference Program Council appoint an Interboard Task Force on Leadership Development whose purpose shall be:

1. To coordinate leadership development plans originating in the several boards and agencies that there might be the most efficient and meaningful use of staff and material.
2. To recommend ways in which these plans might be implemented through District Program Councils and in other ways.
3. To give attention to possible future needs in Leadership Development and where necessary to suggest possible action areas to the various Boards and the Program Council.

We recommend that persons on boards, agencies and staff having responsibility for leadership development be assigned to this task force.

Church and Community Committee

REGINALD W. PONDER, Chairman

1. That the goal for the minimum charge size in the North Carolina Annual Conference be set at 400 members (new congregations less than 12 years old excepted) and that serious consideration be given to charge realignment, wherever possible, which would promote inventive forms of ministry in an effort to work toward this goal.

2. That the concept of the parish (see Discipline, paragraph 106.3) be emphasized in communications between local churches and the Annual Conference in an effort to broaden the understanding of the church and its ministry through the United Methodist Church in eastern North Carolina.

3. That the Church and Community Committee be authorized to work closely in the actual planning and implementation of the United Methodist Parish Fellowship Retreats. This closer relationship will allow greater versatility in program and a wider scope of interest and resources.

4. That Church and Community Committee be authorized to continue the Parish Development Grant program initiated last year for the purpose of encouraging cooperative ministries in rural and urban areas.

5. That the Church and Community Committee continue the Church of the Year Recognition Program. This program will honor one rural church and one urban church in our Annual Conference for outstanding ministry for the year.

Sub-Committee on Urban Ministries

F. OWEN FITZGERALD, JR., Chairman

1. Recognizing the constant transition and special needs of the rapidly growing urban areas of eastern North Carolina, the Committee on Urban Ministries requests that district superintendents take the initiative in establishing city and/or district Urban Ministry Committees for the purpose of providing parish study and direction and financial assistance to areas of urban ministry in special crises.

2. The Committee on Urban Ministries requests that particular care be exercised in the appointment of ministers to the inner-city parish, taking into consideration the specialized tasks, training and dedication required for such ministry.

3. The Committee on Urban Ministries is making available and commending to churches and groups of churches, the service of COMPLEX, Inc., a professional staff of Christian consultants to help develop and provide for more effective urban ministry.

4. The Committee on Urban Ministries is gratified with the initial response to provision for an annual "Urban Parish of the Year" award to an urban parish providing outstanding ministry. It is anticipated that this provision for self-evaluation with special planning will provide incentive to all churches of the North Carolina Conference to define their purpose and ministry and to respond to challenges with imagination, creativity and Christian concern.

5. Recognizing critical alternatives confronting many urban parishes in changing neighborhoods, the Committee on Urban Ministries strongly encourages inner-city churches to cooperate whenever and wherever possible in programs of outreach with other United Methodist Churches, churches of other denominations, and with other community organizations and agencies to provide more adequate total ministry.

Resolution—by J. L. Trollinger (recommended by Board of Missions)

Recognizing there is a lack of effective communication within the North Carolina Conference between the General Conference, the Jurisdictional Conference, the Annual Conference and the individual members of the parish, and also a lack of communication between and among the pastors and the parish laity,

And recognizing this failure in adequate communication fosters misunderstanding and deterioration of confidence between and among the pastors, the parish laity and the conference leadership,

And believing this break in confidence and trust may be a contributing factor in loss numerically and in support of both clergy and laity within the United Methodist Church:

The Committee on Urban Ministries respectfully suggests that the Program Council of the North Carolina Conference develop a program to correct these problems taking into consideration (1) that additional means of communication with all Methodists, those with casual interest as well as those with strong interest in the United Methodist Church, must be provided over and above the present methods of communication which are through the Christian Advocate and by meetings with or mailings to the pastor and/or lay leadership thence to the individual members of a church, and (2) that there are instances when the United Methodist Church has a duty to its membership to clarify, confirm or deny statements, articles or publications made or endorsed by representatives of the United Methodist Church or by others in the various news media.

Sub-Committee on Parish Development and Community Service

CHARLES E. OWENS, Chairman

We recommend that a task force group of Rural Economic Development be established by the Program Council in the N. C. Annual Conference, linking this program of the National Division with the needs and structures of our Conference. Christ calls his Church to minister to the whole man, body and soul. Man does not live by bread alone, but access to bread must be a basic concern of the Church's mission when it faces poor people and the victims of racial and ethnic pressures.

The National Division is committed to a sustained and substantial effort to assist the establishment and nurture of economic enterprises in the poverty sector of rural America. Many well-meaning and self-made individuals insist that poverty is a sign of laziness. Yet when poor people organize enterprises to help themselves out of poverty, it is amazing how many of these same critics develop symptoms of hostility. Self-help groups frequently encounter such antagonism from people in the affluent community.

The Conference task force group, involving the laity and representative groups within the conference, can help to create a climate of support for the efforts of poor people to help themselves. It can also suggest specific projects for particular communities and groups, and bring the resources of the National Division to focus upon the local needs.

Some projects now underway are quilting cooperatives, vegetable cooperatives, and a cooperative bakery. A projector producing Indian crafts in the Robeson County area is under consideration. Many rural self-help enterprises produce articles which could be sold through church channels—quilts, fruit cakes, and handcraft articles in wood, leather, and metal. This could provide an important personalized link between the local church groups and the rural poor.

Recommendations Concerning Proposals for Reordering Mission Priority

RUFUS STARK, Conference Missionary Secretary

1. We recommend that implementation of the request (for transfer of loans and $10 Club work from Department of Witness and Outreach to Stewardship) be by mutual agreement of Personnel Committee and Program Council director at such time as job responsibility can be changed.

2. Make promotion of the Advance the first mission priority of the Program Council staff member assigned mission responsibility.

a) This person would be free to do individual cultivation with local churches to encourage their participation.

b) He would be in a position to give adequate recognition to churches with outstanding records.

c) This staff assignment would call attention of the entire Annual Conference to the priority given the mission of the church.

d) The Conference Missionary Secretary will continue to function according to disciplinary regulations.

Motion to adopt by Stark, seconded by Bunn. Motion passed.

3. Make available to each local church in the annual budget preparation packet a work sheet where each church is encouraged to respond to some level in each of the four main areas of mission giving.

Motion by Bunn adopt, seconded by Mann. Motion passed.

4. Whereas, the Ten Dollar ($10.00) Club has had a long and illustrious history of accomplishment in establishment of new congregations in the North Carolina Conference, and

Whereas, we have reached a point where the backlog of need has been met and current demands have been met this year by issuing two of the three calls available, and

Whereas, there is always a pressing need for church-building assistance somewhere in the world, and

Whereas, we believe that the possibility of enlarged world concern will appeal to most present members and will attract new members,

I therefore petition the North Carolina Annual Conference to direct the Ten Dollar Club

1. To issue to each member a new agreement providing for one call annually for a church in another nation and two calls for the church extension in the N. C. Conference;

2. To extend an invitation to all clergy and laity of the Conference to become members of this worthy organization of mission concern.

PAUL G. BUNN, Conference Chairman of the Advance

Planning Proposals Submitted

1. That District Program Councils be asked to schedule a series of district meetings across the Annual Conference to rally support for the corporate mission to the church.

2. That these meetings include General Board personnel who will adequately present the cause of The Advance.

That these meetings be held in October or January of 1971-72.

4. That in every local church invitations be sent to pastors, chairman of the Work Area on Mission and members of Work Area Committees, chairmen of the Administrative Board, Council on Ministries, Stewardship, the lay leader, president of the Women's Society and chairmen of Mission Education.

Motion to adopt by Stark, seconded by Owen. Passed unanimously.

Recommended to the Board of Managers, Duke Pastors' School: L. C. Vereen, A. F. Fisher. Term expires 1975.

Report No. IIMINISTERS' RETIREMENT FUND

The Ministers' Retirement Fund requires each participating Minister to pay an amount equal to 1% of his total income from salary, travel and/or utility allowance. Those persons employed by the Program Council staff have been excluded from making payment on those funds designated for travel.

We recommend, effective June 1, 1971, those persons affiliated with the Program council, include in their total income received, and pay 1% of this amount, the first $1500.00 designated as "automobile travel or expenses." Funds appropriated for travel above this amount shall be exempt. Also any income from the Program Council directed towards utilities shall be included as income, and payment made on these funds.

Report IIIHOUSING EXCLUSION ALLOWANCE

Internal Revenue Service Document No. 5045 (10-67) declares:

"Rental Value of Home Furnished a Clergyman, and cost of utilities paid for him, as part of his compensation for carrying out his duties as a clergyman, are not income to him, if he is duly ordained, licensed, or commissioned."

"A Rental Allowance to Clergyman, paid as part of his compensation, is not income to the extent he used it, in the year received, to provide a home, or pay utilities for a home furnished him. However, the church, or organization which employs him must have officially designated the payment as a rental allowance before the payment was made."

"The above rules are also applicable to retired clergymen where a rent-free home or rental allowance is furnished him in recognition of past services in carrying out his duties as a clergyman."

A Revised Ruling, 63-156, 163-2 CB 79 states:

"... the rental value of the home furnished to a retired minister as part of his compensation for services is excludable from his gross income under Section 107 (1) of the Code. Also, the rental allowance paid to him as part of his compensation for past services is excludable under Section 107 (2) of the Code, to the extent used by him for expenses directly related to providing a home."

(See Code Sec. 107, Reg. # 1.107.1 [1103.01])

Therefore the following resolution is presented to the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, meeting in Fayetteville, North Carolina:

Whereas, The United Methodist Church has a tradition of providing housing (a parsonage) for its ministers, or in instances where no parsonage is owned by the charge, giving the minister a housing allowance, and

Whereas, Retired Ministers of the North Carolina Conference are entitled to the same privileges as those ministers in the Effective Relationship; and

Whereas, the most practical method of providing housing for the Retired Ministers is by means of rental allowance;

Therefore, Be It Resolved, that the amount of $2,400.00 per year be set as a fair and reasonable rental allowance for each Retired Minister of this annual conference; that the first $2400.00 paid to a Retired Minister each year by The Board of Pensions of The North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church and $1,800.00 of this is designated as the payment of this Housing Allowance and $600.00 for Utility Allowance. The Housing Allowance is specifically designated as compensation to the minister for the cost of renting or providing housing for himself and his family and those costs related thereto, pursuant to the Code as stated in Document 5045 (10-67).

The Board of Pensions emphasizes that the Retired Minister who uses this Housing Allowance must be able to furnish proof that he made expenditures in the amounts claimed. If the full $2400.00 cannot be substantiated as expenditures, then claim should be made only for those amounts which can be verified.

We also remind the minister who uses this allowance, that the amount he claims as a Housing Allowance exclusion must be included as Income in reporting his Social Security. It is possible that reduced Social Security benefits would offset any claims for the Housing Allowance exclusion. Please consult your Social Security Advisor about this matter.

Further, the Board of Pensions absolves itself of any responsibility in the event the Internal Revenue Service disallows any housing allowance claimed.

Report No. IV

SECTION A

RESOLUTION FOR THE FULL TRANSITION PROGRAM OF THE MINISTERS' RESERVE FUND

Whereas, the North Carolina Conference at the present time is providing pension payments to the retired ministers, widows of ministers and dependent children through what is known as the Current Income Distribution method of raising each year the money necessary to provide the total needed to make all pension payments; and

Whereas, the Pension Study Committee and the Conference Board of Pensions have given careful consideration for several years to the possibility of the establishment of a reserve pension program which would accomplish the following:

1. Establishment of Reserve Pension Funds.
2. The financial productivity of compound interest on such reserves.
3. The funding of all past service pension liability.
4. The funding each year of the pension liability on account of current service.
5. Increased support for the retired ministers, widows and dependent children of the conference.

6. Disability income protection to the minister who is disabled due to accident or mental illness or physical illness; and

Whereas, it is the considered judgment of the Conference Board of Pensions that all of this can be accomplished through the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund which is administered by the General Board of Pensions of The United Methodist Church; and

Whereas, the services of the General Board of Pensions in providing their facilities for banking, accounting, bookkeeping, investment and actuarial counsel, and the making of payments to claimants is secured through participation; and

Whereas, the General Board of Pensions has provided an actuarial study to determine the annual deposits that will be required as of June 1, 1973 to make possible participation in the Fund for all active ministers with annuity claim on the Annual Conference and to fund all credited service prior to June 1, 1973 at an $78.00 service annuity rate; and

Whereas, this actuarial study indicates that the expected payout related to pension benefits earned prior to June 1, 1973 for a $78 service annuity rate is $31,868,189, that the present value of this accrued liability as of June 1, 1973, based upon a 5% interest assumption, is $11,410,021 and the total payment to finance this liability under the full transition program outlined below is $21,071,412 ($30 \times $649,956 + $1,572,732$), and

Whereas, the schedule of amount of annual deposits that will be required and related data is set forth as follows:

Estimated Accrued Liability		$11,410,021
Less Initial Deposit		1,572,732
Unfunded Accrued Liability		9,837,289
30-Year Level Deposit	(1)	649,956
Estimated Number to be Funded		500
Estimated Average Salary		6,300
Current 9% Contributions	(2)	283,500
Total Annual Cost for $78.00 Service Annuity Rate		933,456

and the total annual deposit that will be required for (1) and (2) above is estimated to be $933,456.00; and

Whereas, meetings have been held in each district where the full transition program was presented in detail, giving opportunity for ministers and laymen to participate in a question and answer period to further clarify the plan as it applies to the Annual Conference as well as to the individual minister;

Therefore, be it Resolved,

1. That the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church, hereafter referred to as "the Conference," in session at Methodist College, Fayetteville, North Carolina, this, the — day of June, 1971, does agree to enter the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund, hereafter referred to as "the Fund," on a Full Transition Basis of Participation, to accept the conditions as set forth in Paragraphs 1374, 1377, 357.3-4, and 665.24c of the Book of Discipline of The United Methodist Church and the Rules and Regulations of the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund as set forth in Division II-A of the Pension Manual of The United Methodist Church, to participate in the Fund as hereafter set forth in this resolution, and to enter its qualified previous entrants, new entrants and full-time lay pastors who are eligible under the provisions of the Book of Discipline, The Pension Manual, and who are approved by the Conference for enrollment; and

2. That service annuity on account of approved service rendered on and after June 1, 1973 shall be determined according to the tables of annuity rates for such purpose in use by the General Board of Pensions, hereafter referred to as "the Board," at the time of entering into the annuity and the amount in the Service Annuity Account at that time, provided that the Conference will provide, through the Conference Account and the Annual Reserve Requirement, any additional amounts which may be necessary to provide a service annuity for such service at a rate equivalent to $78.00 per year of approved service with 70% continued to the surviving widow, if any, or at such rate as the Conference may from time to time approve; and

3. That the Conference, in accordance with the disciplinary provisions and the rules and regulations of the Fund, shall contribute annually to the Fund an amount equivalent to nine percent (9%) of the conference average salary on behalf of each member of the Fund on account of current service rendered on and subsequent to the closing date of the 1973 conference session, when such service is with annuity claim on the Conference, such contributions being allocated to the Service Annuity Account of each eligible member and to the Disability and Survivor Benefit Fund as provided in the Rules and Regulations of the Fund, and that such member shall be given the opportunity to make voluntary contributions on and after June 1, 1973 for credit to the member's Personal Contributions Accumulation Account to provide, at the time of entering upon a service annuity or the granting of a disability leave by the conference, a lump sum payment to such member in the amount of his personal contributions and interest credited thereon, or upon having entered upon such service annuity the member may elect to enter upon an Income Annuity on a Joint and 70% Basis which shall be the actuarial equivalent of the member's personal contributions accumulation and interest credited thereon; and

4. That the Conference shall remit to the Board the initial deposit of $1,572,732.00, due as of June 1, 1973, to apply to the credit of the North Carolina Conference Deposit Account to reduce the accrued liability of $11,410,021.00 by the amount of this payment; and

5. That the Conference shall deposit $649,956.00 each January 1 for 30 years, the first deposit due as of January 1, 1974, or until such time as the actual cost of funding the accrued prior service obligation shall have been met. Future actuarial studies shall be made in cooperation with the Board for the consideration of the Conference in making possible adjustments in the funded service annuity rate, annual prior service funding requirements and the number of years during which annual prior service funding deposits will be required; and

6. (a) That the Board is authorized to establish a North Carolina Conference Account to which the annual reserve requirements of the Conference shall be credited and to which shall be charged (A) the transfers made to the Annuity Reserve Account of the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund for service annuities not otherwise provided for including those payable to (1) Previous Entrants already retired, (2) future widows of such Previous Entrants, and (3) present widows and dependent children of deceased Previous Entrants, and (B) Accrued Service Obligation at a service annuity rate equivalent to $78.00 per year of approved service or at such higher rate as the Conference may approve from time to time;

(b) The Conference may deposit with the Board at any time or from time to time, during any fiscal year, all or any part of the annual reserve requirement becoming due on the following January 1 and all or any part of the amount for current funding of the 9% contributions which will become due the following January 1; such amounts so deposited with the Board shall be placed in the account known as the North Carolina Conference Deposit Account;

(c) The Board is authorized to transfer from the Deposit Account to the Conference Account such amounts as may be necessary as payments may become due on the annual reserve requirement, for the individual Service Annuity, the Disability and Survivor Benefit Fund, and the amounts required for the funding of current service; provided, however, that the Conference Board of Pensions will retain the right to request adjustments in the amounts charged for current funding on the basis of the extent to which the Conference may have assumed annuity responsibility during the year for a member of the Fund;

(d) When a member of the Fund, not retired as of June 1, 1973, or the widow or a child of such a member, becomes eligible for pension after June 1, 1973, or when additional amounts are required from the Conference to provide a service annuity as indicated in Number 2 above, the Board is authorized to charge the Conference Account and transfer into the Annuity Reserve Account, on the basis of the annuity tables then in use by the Board, the sum required to pay a pension to such person in accordance with the provisions of the Fund at an annuity rate equivalent to $78.00 per year of approved service for which the Conference assumes annuity responsibility. The Board shall assume the Conference obligations aforesaid to the extent only to which the funding of same has actually been consummated; and

7. That effective as of June 1, 1973, the funded service annuity rate for the Conference shall be set at $78.00 with 70% to qualified widows, and that all pension payments shall be made by the Board in accordance with the instructions of the Conference Board of Pensions and in accordance with the provisions of the Rules and Regulations of the Conference Board of Pensions; and

8. That the Board of Pensions of the North Carolina Annual Conference of The United Methodist Church be and is hereby authorized, empowered and instructed to effect all arrangements with the General Board of Pensions of The United Methodist Church and to do all things necessary to give full force and effect to the intent and purpose of this resolution.

Respectfully submitted by the Pension Study Committee and the Conference Board of Pensions.

CONFERENCE BOARD OF PENSIONS

SECTION B

1. We recommend that the Special Ministers' Reserve Fund Study Committee and the Board of Pensions work with the Board of the Laity and the Women's Society of Christian Service to promote the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund in each charge. Interested lay workers from each district are to be recruited and educated about the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund. We request each charge in the district permit a team of these workers attend an Administrative Board meeting, between September and January, and interpret and explain this fund. We sincerely believe this will strengthen the support for the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund.

2. We recommend the Ministers' Retirement Fund, to which the minister pays an amount equal to 1% of the total sum included in salary, travel and utility allowance, remain intact. We urge ministers to participate in the Ministers' Reserve Pension Fund by paying to their personal account an amount equal to 3% of the average salary of the conference.

AMENDMENT TO THE BOARD OF PENSION REPORT—REPORT NO. 4

The scope of this recommendation is such, that to discuss all its ramifications at this hour and at this annual conference, would be an imposition upon the annual conference.

Therefore, I move that this session of the annual conference request Bishop Cannon to call a special session of the annual conference for the expressed purpose of acting upon this resolution, to transfer our pension program to the Ministers' Reserve Pension Plan, and that this special session of the annual conference be called before October 31, 1971, at a place determined by the Bishop.

REPORT OF COMMISSION ON PUBLIC RELATIONS AND METHODIST INFORMATION

On behalf of Public Relations and Methodist Information, the following recommendations are made for program consideration, 1971-72:

1. During the June Annual Conference session in Fayetteville, it is recommended that a Pictorial Directory of the ministers of the Annual Conference, active and retired, be initiated.

A temporary agreement, approved by the conference director of Methodist Information, for Program Council approval has already been initiated with Pictorial Church Directories of America:

Two or three photographers will be at the Annual Conference to photograph the ministers (two poses) in black and white at no charge to us except room and meals during the annual conference.

The major cost of the project will involve secretarial work in making up the "dummy copy" and the mailing of the finished directories. We hope that partial expense might come from the limited funds of Methodist Information but will need whatever secretarial help which might be provided from the Methodist Building.

The finished Conference Directory will include both photograph, address and telephone number of each minister. Eight hundred copies will be provided for distribution.

2. A district director of communications, to handle all press, radio, film, television work within each district would coordinate the annual conference's communication program in a finer manner. We believe that the most competent person in this field, lay or clerical, should be appointed to this district post. A session with the conference director for training would equip this person, utilizing professional help available within the conference and from Methodist Information.

3. We propose coverage for all conference-related general activities through our director in cooperation with the Program Council. Coverage will also be provided conference boards, agencies and the Program Council as requested.

METHODIST BOARD OF PUBLICATION, INC.

I. Report for 1970-1971

For many years, the North Carolina Christian Advocate has been the official organ of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Annual Conferences. Through the years it has served both as the news media and the voice of Methodism concerning the great issues of the times. Your Board of Publication is aware of this heritage and is constantly seeking ways to improve the Advocate and to make it an effective organ of the church for ministry and service.

With the acquisition of modern printing facilities, we have been able to improve the format, eye-appeal, and readability of the Advocate. With the addition of the monthly "Program Supplement" for each annual conference, we have sought to make it a helpful resource for the elected officers and leaders of our local churches. We believe that in order to be informed leaders, these persons need to be readers of the Advocate. We feel that each local church can improve its ministry by placing this tool in the hands of its chosen leaders.

Last year we sought to get each local church to make provision for sending the Advocate into the home of each member of its Administrative Board by including the cost of subscriptions in its annual budget. In preparation for this plan, the Board of Publication offered an interim All-Administrative Board Subscription Plan from January to June 1969 at the greatly reduced rate of $1.00 per subscription. Many of our churches responded and the number of subscriptions increased substantially. Unfortunately, many of these churches failed to follow through by providing for the continuation of these subscriptions in their 1970-1971 budgets. As a result, we experienced a greater than normal net loss in the publication of the Advocate.

Due to the growing differential between the cost of printing the Advocate and the income from subscriptions, we have reached a point where drastic steps must be taken to rectify the situation. At the present subscription rates, we are losing approximately $1.00 per subscription at the individual rate of $3.49 and $1.50 per subscription on the All-Administrative Board Plan subscriptions.

We have studied the situation very carefully and bring to you recommendations which we feel are extremely necessary at this time and which will make the Advocate a more effective force for ministry.

Recommendations

That each local church which has not done so make provision for sending the Advocate into the home of each member of its Administrative Board by including the cost of the subscriptions in its annual church budget, beginning with the 1971-1972 conference year, or as soon thereafter as possible.

The district superintendents are requested to take this matter up with the administrative boards of these churches as early in the 1971-1972 Conference year as possible, asking that they comply with the action of their Annual Conference. We also request that each district superintendent ask administrative boards to make provision in their annual budgets for sending the Advocate to each Administrative Board member on a continuing basis and that he make this an item of business at each Charge Conference.

That, in the interest of economy and quality, the Advocate be published bi-monthly beginning July 1, with the understanding that one of the monthly issues will include an additional "Program Supplement" for each Annual Conference.

That all subscriptions, with the exception of retired pastors and widows, be paid.

That the price of all renewal subscriptions be raised fifty cents per subscription in each category.

That Methodist Board of Publication, Inc. appoint a Business Consultant to study the operation of the Piedmont Press and the North Carolina Christian Advocate, to work with the Editor-Business Manager, and to report to the Evaluation Committee, the Executive Committee, and Methodist Board of Publication, Inc. He will be responsible to the Methodist Board of Publication.

That the Evaluation Committee continue to function as a committee to study and report further recommendations to Methodist Board of Publication, Inc. not later than its fall meeting; that the Evaluation Committee make recommendations as to whether to lease Piedmont Press with an option to buy, or to continue to print the North Carolina Christian Advocate ourselves and retain Piedmont Press; or make other recommendations as it sees necessary.

That each local church observe "North Carolina Christian Advocate Sunday," January 23, 1972, at which time the congregation is given information concerning the Advocate and individuals are given the opportunity to subscribe.

That local churches, conference boards, agencies, and institutions be urged to patronize Piedmont Press in their printing needs. We call attention to the fact that our modern printing equipment enables us to do printing of high quality at reasonable rates. Proceeds from this operation subsidize the publication of the Advocate.

That annual conferences and district agencies and local churches be urged to patronize the job work services of the Piedmont Press.

We recommend that C. P. Morris and Christian White of the North Carolina Annual Conference and Julian Lindsey and William R. Henderson of the Western North Carolina Annual Conference be re-elected to Methodist Board of Publication, Inc. for term of five years, expiring in 1976. We also recommend that Mr. N. D. McNairy of the Western North Carolina Conference be elected to fill the unexpired term of Thomas C. Hoyle, Jr., deceased, term to expire in 1975.

J. We commend Dr. James C. Stokes for his outstanding work as Editor-Business Manager, and recommend his reappointment for the year 1971-1972.

1. The Single Figure Asking formula approved by the Annual Conference in 1967 shall be continued with the exception that World and National Mission specials also be deleted to arrive at the net total money raised. Further, each church shall be informed at the Charge Conference of the amount which the Fair Share Single Figure Formula assigns to it, with churches that are already exceeding the amount being apportioned as much as the preceding year or the new single figure arrived by the formula, whichever is more, and that all churches now giving less than the amount which the formula assigns, being urged to increase to the needed amount within a period of three years.

2. The following special offerings shall be taken in each local church and remitted to the Conference Treasurer as separate items. They are not to be included in the Single Figure Asking: World-wide Communion Sunday, Methodist Student Day, One Great Hour of Sharing, Race Relations Day.

IV.

1. District Superintendents' Fund:

(a) The salary of each of the district superintendents shall be set at $13,500.00 plus $1,500.00 travel expense. Such part of said salary that is paid out by the district superintendent to cover the actual costs of all those utilities applicable to the operation and maintenance of his district parsonage is hereby assigned as housing expense not to exceed the sum of $800.00 for heat, water, electrical services and residential telephone. We recommend that all districts assume this expense for these utilities.

(b) Each district shall provide an amount equal to 1% of the district superintendent's salary and travel to be allocated for the Ministers' Retirement Fund in lieu of institutional payment which, in the case of pastors, is provided by the charge.

(c) The district shall also provide the institutional payment for group life insurance and group hospital and medical insurance.

(d) An annual appropriation equal to twelve times the current annuity rate shall be made to the Conference Board of Pensions for each district superintendent for 1971-72.

2. We approve the use of an amount up to $4,000.00 to be provided by each district for the district superintendent for secretarial help and promotion of the district program.

3. No conference agency's budget shall incorporate funds to be appropriated to a non-conference agency, without specific approval of the North Carolina Annual Conference.

4. Monies paid by charges toward the Single Figure Asking shall be reported to the statistician by the conference treasurer and all other funds paid by the local church shall be reported in the Pastor's Report, Table # II.

5. No transfer of funds shall be made by any agency from one line item in the budget to another without approval of the Commission on World Service and Finance.

6. To encourage pooling of travel, and in the interest of economy, reimbursement to the driver of a car for travel to authorized meetings of Boards, Commissions, and Committees within the Conference shall be made at the rate of 7 cents per mile for one person in a car; 8 cents per mile for two persons; 9 cents per mile for three persons and 10 cents per mile for four or more persons.

7. The Commission on World Service and Finance has not neglected the report of the Board of Pensions which was adopted by the 1970 session of the North Carolina Annual Conference concerning the group term life insurance premiums becoming a part of the Single Figure Asking. We have studied this resolution and feel it would be disadvantageous to the ministers of this conference. We, therefore, have not included the amount to cover these premiums in the Single Figure Asking.

8. Annual Conference Entertainment. Where it is possible to do so, we are asking that the local charge underwrite the expenses for its delegates to the Annual Conference session beginning with the Annual Conference in 1972.

V.

We recommend approval of the requests of the following agencies for the privilege of soliciting funds throughout the conference:

1. Christmas Offering 1971 for district superintendents' program and/or projects. These should be clearly defined in plenty of time to have successful promotion.

2. The Board of Missions for the promotion of the Church Extension Ten Dollar Club.

3. The Board of Education to solicit from church groups and individuals, materials and money for specific projects for the four camps of the North Carolina Conference.

4. Interconference Commission on Campus Ministry for the privilege of private solicitation for special gifts for the benefit of special works in the state-supported institutions.

5. Methodist Retirement Homes, Incorporated, Methodist Home for Children, the Rural Church Fund, Louisburg College, Methodist College, and North Carolina Wesleyan College for the privilege of private solicitation and receipt of such funds as may be directed thereto with the understanding that such solicitation or private campaign may not be taken into the local churches of the conference.

6. The Methodist Foundation, Inc., as provided in its charter.

VI.

We recommend the continuation of A. M. Pullen & Company as auditors.

We recommend that the president, vice-president and secretary of the Commission on World Service and Finance and the conference treasurer shall serve as the executive committee of the Commission on World Service and Finance.

The Conference fiscal year will close May 31, 1972. We shall make every effort to pay seven-twelfths of our current conference year financial obligations to the General Conference by December 31 which coincides with the General Conference fiscal year. Payments will actually be made to the General Conference only on the basis of collections through December 31 in amounts not to exceed the General Conference apportionment on the basis of the General Conference calendar year.

We call attention to the fact that the pastor's salary as set by the Charge Conference for a conference year, that is, from one session of the Annual Conference to the next session of the Annual Conference. In keeping with the conference fiscal year closing May 31, each charge shall pay the salary promised the pastor for the conference year by that date.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSION ON WORSHIP

PROGRAM PROPOSALS FOR 1971-72

I. Bishop's Meeting with Confirmation Classes

The Conference Commission on Worship recommends that the Bishop's Meeting with Confirmation Classes be held again in the spring of 1972, prior to Easter, at two or three locations to be determined by the Bishop. It is the feeling of the Commission that every pastor should be encouraged by the Conference to form a class of those boys and girls interested in being confirmed and received into full membership in the church, that he should meet such classes for instruction at least six hours and preferably more, and that he be urged to bring these boys and girls to meet the Bishop. If the Program Council and the Annual Conference approve, the Commission on Worship will be happy to direct these events or share such direction with another agency, under the supervision of the Bishop. It is our feeling that the Bishop's Meeting strengthens the experience of the actual Service of Confirmation in the local churches.

II. District Workshops

The Commission on Worship recommends that a series of district workshops be held during the Conference year 1971-72, preferably in the late fall of 1971, focusing on the Preaching of the Word of God. It would not be the purpose of such workshops to force a uniformity of thought or practice upon ministers or churches, but rather to share the insights and experiences of both ministers and churches to the end that we might strengthen the preaching and hearing of the Word across the Conference. The Worship Commission would be happy to direct such workshops or to share such direction with another agency, as the Program Council and Annual Conference determine.

III. A Year of Sharing Worship Experiences

The Commission on Worship recommends that a task force be named at its fall meeting with a coordinator to which all pastors and local commissions on worship would be asked to send descriptions of any unusual experiences in worship which have taken place recently. These unusual or extraordinary worship experiences would then be summarized in the North Carolina Christian Advocate, reported by the task force, thus sharing them with the entire Conference. We feel that there are fresh winds blowing through the church and that we should share these in order to evaluate them.

REPORT OF SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON MINISTERS' MOVING EXPENSE

Recommendations

Each person eligible to receive remuneration for moving expense shall be paid a base amount of $50.00 (fifty dollars), plus 75¢ (seventy-five cents) per mile, one way, between the two points of the move.

Eligibility:

1. Any person serving under episcopal appointment except in those cases where a minister makes his own occupational choice but may still be under special episcopal appointment as a conference member.
2. Widows of ministers who die while serving under episcopal appointment eligible for this benefit.
3. Ministers who retire from serving appointments eligible to receive the benefit.

Limiting and Supplementing Provisions

1. The plan shall include moves only within the bounds of the North Carolina Annual Conference.
2. In all cases, the mileage shall be the most practical route between the two points of the move.
3. Mileage for claims from persons moving into the conference from the outside shall be figured from the point of crossing the conference boundary.
4. For the person who is retiring the mileage payment will be from the place of the last appointment to the place of retirement residence within the bounds of the North Carolina Conference, or to the North Carolina Conference boundary if the retirement residence is outside the conference.
5. The Conference Treasurer's office shall provide the district superintendents with requisition forms for moving expense. They will, in turn, distribute these forms to all eligible persons as soon as possible after adjournment of each session of the Annual Conference.
6. The applicant will complete the form and send it to the district superintendent for verification of the move. The district superintendent will then forward the requisition to the Conference treasurer for payment.
7. Persons retiring, and widows of deceased ministers, will send their moving expense requisitions directly to the Conference treasurer.

8. Unusual cases may be submitted for consideration to the Committee on Ministers' Moving Expenses by the district superintendents involved.

REPORT OF THE SPECIAL INSURANCE COMMITTEE

The Special Insurance Committee, in consultation with Gray Hutchinson and Associates, has studied the insurance programs which are related to this conference's membership, and compared these programs with what the committee considered the needs of our ministers and their families to be. In light of these studies, we unanimously recommend that the programs become the insurance programs of this conference, to go into effect July 1, 1971.

I.

HOSPITAL INSURANCE

A. For Effective Ministers

We recommend that this annual conference continue to provide hospital insurance for the ministers of this conference with North Carolina Blue Cross-Blue Shield, Inc. Eligibility to participate in this program shall be restricted to those ministers whose service accrues pension credit with our Conference Board of Pensions, either by serving an episcopal appointment which makes payment to the pension fund through Single Figure Askings; by having their pension paid by a board or agency of the conference; or by making a personal payment equal to twelve times the annuity rate approved by the annual conference for the current year. Those who are currently identified with our group, but who became ineligible because of the aforementioned recommendations shall have thirty days to convert to a private policy, with coverage and rates to be determined by each person involved.

We recommend that the coverage be The New Blue Policy with Major Medical Benefits. This policy shall also provide for coordination of benefits. The premium rates shall be $107.43 per quarter for the family policy, $38.16 per quarter for single ministers. Three quarterly premiums shall be paid by the charge to which the minister is assigned, or the board or agency which employs him, and one quarterly premium to be paid by the minister, for the Conference year 1971-72. And, that the charge, board or agency shall pay all the premiums each year, beginning with the Conference year 1972-73.

B. Claimants to the Board of Pensions

1. Those claimants under age sixty-five will continue with the same basic plan as described in the current policy, with Extended Benefit coverage. We recommend the room rate be increased to $32.00 per day. This improvement in benefits will increase the annual costs for this group by $773.28.

2. The Board of Pensions will continue to provide Blue Cross-Blue Shield Hospital Insurance for those over age 65. The policy will be a supplement to Medicare. The costs will be $5.50 per month per person. North Carolina Blue Cross-Blue Shield, Inc. has notified us that with the cost increases in hospital and medical services, that an increase in premiums may be expected. The projected rate increase will be $7.65 per person per month, and is to take effect no sooner than July 1, 1972.

C. Anniversary Date

We recommend that the anniversary date of this Blue Cross-Blue Shield policy be changed from July 1 to January 1.

II.

GROUP TERM LIFE INSURANCE

We recommend that this annual conference continue with a Group Term Life Insurance Program and that Fidelity and Guaranty Insurance Company be the carrier. The policy we recommend will provide the same benefits as the present plan: $10,000 insurance for the minister until he retires; at retirement age, if under 72, the policy shall be reduced to $5,000, and upon reaching the mandatory retirement age of 72, the policy shall be reduced to $1,000 and remain at that figure. Upon retirement the Board of Pensions shall make two quarterly premium payments, and the minister shall make two quarterly premium payments. When the minister reaches age 72 the Board of Pensions shall pay the total premium costs. Those eligible for participation in this policy will be those ministers whose service accrues pension credit, as defined in the Blue Cross-Blue Shield section. In the event a minister's status changes so that he no longer is accruing pension credit, he may convert to a private policy, with rates adjusted to insured's age. Conversion must be made within thirty days.

This policy will provide $1,000 dependents insurance for the minister's spouse, and up to $1,000 for each dependent child, until he reaches age 19.

The premium costs will be $23.64 per quarter for family and $21.60 for single ministers.

The charge or board or agency to which a minister is appointed is expected to pay the premiums.

We further recommend that after the present deficit with Fidelity and Guaranty Insurance Company is liquidated, that Cash Premium Receipt Funds be accumulated and held in reserve until an amount of $15,000 is established, and these funds be held in escrow, supervised by the Board of Pensions, to meet any future deficit claims against the Group Term Policy. This would enable premiums to be better stabilized.

III.

MISCELLANEOUS

We recommend that the Special Insurance Committee be continued with its present structure. This committee is to supervise the insurance programs, make relevant decisions affecting the programs, and make recommendations to the annual conference.

2. We recommend that Gray Hutchison Associates be continued as the consulting agency.

3. The committee explored the possibility of consolidating all insurances with a single company. Analysis of the needs for our ministers and the programs available through different companies indicated that consolidation is impractical for our purposes.

4. The committee studied the feasibility of a program of Disability Insurance. Our study revealed that the cost would be prohibitive. Therefore we suggest that the Emergency Aid Fund be supported completely and if the need justifies it, expand the program.

IV.

INSURANCE FOR LAY WORKERS

1. We recommend that the Blue Cross-Blue Shield Hospital Insurance and the Group Term Life Insurance include those persons recognized as a consecrated lay worker by the Committee on the Lay Worker, and recommended by the Board of Pensions for approval to participate in the insurance program. The premium rates for both the Blue Cross and Blue Shield shall be the same as defined for the other group. The arrangements for payment of the premiums will be worked out between employer and employee.

2. We recommend that the Blue Cross-Blue Shield Hospital Insurance and the Group Term Life Insurance include those lay employees of the annual conference, whose employment identifies them with the staff of the Program Council. Upon recommendation of the Program Council Executive Committee, and approved by the Board of Pensions, these persons are eligible to participate in the insurance programs. The premium rates will be the same as defined for other groups. The arrangements for premium payments is to be determined by employer and employee.

CONCLUSIONS OF COMMITTEE TO STUDY MINISTERIAL SALARIES

Based upon its study, the Committee has reached the following conclusions:

1. The compensation of our ministers in the first or top quartile is reasonably adequate.
2. The compensation of ministers in the three lower quartiles appears to be somewhat inadequate, particularly in the two lowest quartiles.

The full report is set forth in the following pages.

REPORT OF COMMITTEE TO STUDY MINISTERIAL SALARIES

At the 1969 Annual Conference a resolution was adopted requesting Bishop Cannon to appoint a special committee to study ministerial salaries. Pursuant to that resolution a special committee was appointed by Bishop Cannon and this committee has undertaken to make an intensive study of ministerial salaries in the North Carolina Conference.

At the outset the committee wishes to point out that because of some uncertainty as to the exact intent of portions of the resolution establishing the committee, parts of the resolution may be beyond our jurisdiction. The appointive system for pastors is spelled out in the Book of the Discipline of the United Methodist Church, 1968. Obviously, any basic change must necessarily come from the General Conference.

Because of the reference in the resolution to ministers leaving the ministry, the committee has reviewed the statistical data on this subject. Our pastoral charges in 1960 were 477, and in 1970 there were 522, representing a net gain of 45. In 1960 we had 540 ministerial members (not including lay pastors), and in 1970 we had 626, making an increase of 86. In 1960 we had 290 pastors and district superintendents, and in 1970 we had 342, an increase of 52. In the special appointments in 1960 we had 76, and in 1970 we had 115, an increase of 39. There were 247 Received in Full Connection from 1960 to 1970. We had transferred into the Conference 81, and transferred out of the Conference 102. That made a loss of 21 so transferred but most of these were students who had completed their work at the Duke Divinity School and left the Conference for this reason. During this period we had 16 discontinued and 8 withdrawals, and we have had 11 located.

While the committee has not made an in-depth study of the foregoing changes, the statistics indicate that the Conference has not had a large number of losses and from the increases that have come to the Conference there has resulted a net gain.

Although the committee experienced some difficulty in determining from the resolution the precise area of its responsibilities, the committee concluded that the resolution adopted by the Conference called primarily for a study of the adequacy of present ministerial salaries, and it was this subject to which the committee has devoted the major portion of its research and consideration.

It was first determined that if the committee report is to deserve serious consideration by the Conference, it must be as objective as possible, and the committee made every effort to maintain complete objectivity in its consideration of this matter. In this connection, although there has been no difference whatsoever in the desire for objectivity between the lay members and the ministerial members, it should be pointed out that a majority of the committee membership has always been made up of laymen.

To insure that the study was procedurally sound in addition to being objective, the committee has consulted with and obtained the advice of Dr. Claud George, Jr., Associate Dean of the School of Business Administration of the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill. We wish to express our appreciation and indebtedness to Dr. George for his advice and assistance.

Although the resolution calling for the establishment of the committee states that "salaries are too low," the committee has not assumed this to be correct. The purpose of the study has not been to substantiate any preconceived idea, or to prove anything, but simply to find out what the facts are and report the facts to the Conference.

At the commencement of its work, it became apparent to the committee that there are so many different categories of salaried ministers in the Conference that study of each specific category would be almost impossible. For example, there are in the Conference full-time lay pastors, part-time lay pastors, associate members, probationers, student lay pastors, retired pastors and lay pastors. It would have complicated the study to an impossible extent to try to give separate consideration to each of these categories.

There are 301 full Conference ministers with a salary over $6,000.00. The committee concluded that it would confine its study to this specific category.

The committee also concluded that in order to reach any objective decision as to the adequacy of ministerial salaries, it would be necessary first to determine what the actual economic income of the minister is, and second, to compare that economic income with the economic income of some other category or categories of occupations considered comparable to that of the minister. Both steps involved serious problems.

1. Determining Ministers' Economic Compensation

On this point, the first decision was as to the method of computing the actual economic compensation of a minister. It would be necessary first to calculate the ministers' economic compensation in such a way that it would be on a basis suitable for comparison with the income of other occupational groups. To do this, the committee concluded that the following items should be considered:

(a) Salary. This is the amount denominated salary which is paid to the minister by the local church and obviously is the basic item in his economic compensation.

(b) Travel Allowance. In many churches, a minister is paid an annual travel allowance which is wholly unrelated to the amount of travel actually done by the minister. The committee concluded that this should be treated as economic compensation to the minister and added to his salary. However, the committee specifically wishes to point out that ministers are required to perform a substantial amount of travel on church business for which they should be appropriately reimbursed. We feel that an appropriate method for such reimbursement would be for the minister to submit actual vouchers or reports to the church of the mileage actually traveled on church business (other than travel between the parsonage and church) and the minister should be reimbursed in an appropriate amount for mileage actually traveled. All consideration in this report with respect to ministerial salaries is made upon the assumption that such a procedure will be followed and if this is not done the data set forth herein must necessarily be adjusted accordingly.

(c) Housing. To afford a fair comparison between the economic compensation of a minister who receives either a house or a housing allowance and a member of another occupational group who must provide his own housing would naturally require an appropriate adjustment. Moreover, to be completely objective and accurate, the committee felt it would be necessary to make an appropriate adjustment on account of the fact that the ministers' housing enjoys a special income tax preference. Accordingly, in determining the ministers' total economic compensation, the Committee has added to ministers' salaries the amount it considers to be the fair value of the ministers' housing plus the amount it considers to be the fair adjustment on account of the housing income tax preference enjoyed by ministers.

(d) Utilities. The same compensation as applied with respect to the ministers' housing would equally apply to any utility allowance, or payment of utilities, by the church for the minister. The same income tax consideration would also apply. For these reasons, in order to determine the economic compensation of the minister comparable to the income received by other occupational groups, the utility benefit and the special income tax preference thereon would have to be added to the minister's salary.

(e) Fees. The committee has undertaken to determine the amount of fees received by ministers for various services performed by the minister. Because no formal records exist with respect to this item, however, we have not been able to develop statistics which we regard as reliable. It is the judgment of the committee, however, that the amount of fees actually received by the minister would not be a significant factor in consideration of his over-all economic compensation. In this connection, a survey recently made by over twenty national church organizations has stated that in its survey by the median amount actually received by ministers from fees was $166.00.

It is also the judgment of the committee that a more desirable procedure, both from the standpoint of the minister and the church, would be for the church to fix the salary of the minister at an amount which compensates him fairly for all of the services he renders, without any consideration of fees received by him, and establish a policy that no fees be retained by the minister.

(f) Donations and Discounts. While it may be true that ministers receive some donations or discounts, it is the judgment of the committee that such items are minimal in amount and inconsequential in terms of a total economic compensation of the minister. Moreover, the committee feels that it would be unfair on the part of the church and degrading to the minister for any consideration to be given, in fixing the economic compensation of the minister, to the fact that the minister may receive donations or discounts of some sort. In addition, all of the evidence that the committee has been able to gather leads inescapably to the conclusion that the amount involved is inconsequential.

To determine the economic compensation of the ministers of the North Carolina Conference a survey was made of the amounts actually received by ministers in the various categories mentioned above. From this information, the committee has calculated the economic income of the ministers involved in the study in four quartiles.

2. Comparable Occupational Groups

Obviously there is no arbitrary standard as to what ministerial salaries should be and therefore no arbitrary standard by which ministerial salaries can be measured to determine their adequacy or inadequacy. The only reasonable basis for determining the adequacy or inadequacy of ministerial compensation, therefore, would be to compare it with the income of other comparable occupational groups. This involves a value judgment and the object of the committee has been to determine facts rather than to make value judgments. We are not aware of any occupational group that is so clearly comparable to ministers that a comparison of the economic income of the two groups would be unquestionably accepted on all sides. What is an appropriately comparable occupational group is therefore a matter of opinion on which there will be appreciable differences.

On the subject of comparable occupational groups, the committee concluded not to seek comparable salaries from other religious denominations. If defects or inadequacies in the system of compensation exist in the North Carolina Conference of the United Methodist Church, similar defects and inadequacies may likewise exist in other denominations and a comparison of the two might simply tend to perpetuate the defects and inadequacies.

One occupational group does afford a unique possibility for comparative purposes. Methodist College, North Carolina Wesleyan College, and Louisburg College are closely related to the North Carolina Conference. At the same time, the faculties of those institutions must of necessity be recruited from the educational field and the salaries of faculty members at these three institutions presumably must be set at a level that is economically competitive. Moreover, presumably, the educational background of the faculties of these institutions is substantially similar to the educational background of the ministers in the North Carolina Conference. For this reason, the committee felt that the income of faculty members of these Methodist-related colleges would provide the most informative data for comparative purposes.

It should be noted, as set forth below, that since the compensation of faculty members is based upon less than a full year, an appropriate adjustment should be made for purposes of comparison with ministerial salaries. The committee was informed by an authoritative source that a substantial number of the faculty members teach at least one session of summer school and that this would increase their compensation by approximately 15 per cent. Accordingly, the actual compensation of the faculty members in the statistics shown below have been adjusted upward by 15 per cent in order that the work period and the total economic compensation of the faculty members will be available upon substantially the same basis as the data for ministerial compensation.

The committee likewise concluded to determine and make available in this study data with respect to the economic compensation of persons employed in several categories in the public school system. This is done with two specific qualifications which should be taken into consideration in any comparison of such compensation with ministerial compensations:

1. The committee has not undertaken to make any judgment decision as to which occupations in the State system of public education might appropriately be considered comparable economically to that of ministers; and

2. As shown in appropriate footnotes below, the salaries in the occupations within the State system of public schools are for varying periods which are generally less than a full year, and any comparison between such salaries and ministerial compensation should take this fact into consideration.

Summary of Statistical Data

The results of the committee's study are shown on Exhibit 1 and attached hereto.

The committee would like to point out further that its conclusions are based upon groups and the use of averages and may not necessarily be applicable in individual cases.

The compensation of individuals within these groups should reflect their individual training, experience and capabilities.

OTHER MATTERS

The committee recognizes that a resolution calling for its establishment might easily be interpreted to include other matters not covered above. However, it is the judgment of the committee that these matters are so intangible, so deeply interwoven with the system of appointments that is an integral part of the Discipline of the United Methodist Church and so much a matter of individual opinion that the committee does not feel that it can reach any substantial conclusions that would be helpful to the Conference. Accordingly, the committee has not undertaken to include these matters within the scope of its report.

As Chairman of this committee, I wish to take this opportunity to thank the members for the attendance at the meetings, the long hours of research that went into the making of this report, and the excellent spirit of those participating in this study, and especially the sub-committee consisting of Mr. Glenn Anderson, Mr. Charles H. Young, and Reverend Warren B. Petteway.

May this study be used for the glory of God, the advancement of His ministry, and more dedicated and efficient service to our people in the North Carolina Conference.

NOTES OF EXPLANATION

Ministers' Salaries

Ministers' salaries are based upon the salaries of all active pastors (301) who are full members of the North Carolina Conference for the year 1970-71 and whose basic salary is above $6,000. They have been divided into four quartiles with the average for each quartile being determined by a random selection of every fifth pastor.

Salaries used in this tabulation include (1) salaries, (2) travel allowances, (3) utility allowances, (4) all other compensation, and (5) a figure for housing which amounts to 10% of the fair market value of the parsonage being used or 25% of the total of items 1-4, whichever is less.

It should be noted that in adjusting salary to include an amount for housing equal to 10% of the fair market value of the facilities used or 25% of salary (whichever is less) the percentage is being applied to salary which does not include housing. The allowance is equivalent to 20% of salary including housing. Normally an individual will spend approximately 20% (at these salary levels) of his income for housing and he also has to pay the tax on this income.

College Faculty Salaries

The salaries for college faculties are based upon the average salaries of professors, associate professors, assistant professors and instructors in the three colleges of the North Carolina Conference. Since these salaries are for a nine-month period and most of the faculty teach one session of summer school, the basic salaries have been increased by 15%.

One of the two senior colleges lists the following qualification requirements for its faculty:

1. An Instructor—at least the M.A. (6 years college); no teaching experience. At most near Ph.D.; 4 years teaching experience.
2. Assistant Professor—at least the M.A. plus 3 years college teaching experience. At most Ph.D. with 5 years college teaching or M.A. with 15 years college teaching.
3. Associate Professor—at least the Ph.D. plus 5 years college teaching experience. At most Ph.D. plus 15 years college.
4. Professor—at least Ph.D. plus 10 years college teaching. Our most experience has more than 20 years college training.

Public School Superintendents, Principals, Supervisors and Teachers

The public school salaries used in this tabulation are based upon salaries paid in North Carolina for the year 1970-71. Salaries for superintendents, principals and supervisors are average figures. Teachers' salaries are for two classifications—those holding a graduate degree (G) and those holding an undergraduate degree (A.) The salaries in these two classifications are determined by the number of years of experience ranging from 0 to 13 in the G classification and 0 to 12 in the A classification. An average of the highest and lowest salary in each classification has been used.

Salaries for superintendents are for a period of 12 months; salaries for principals are for a period of 10½ to 11½ months; supervisors are for a period of 10 months and teachers for 9½ months. No adjustment to these salaries have been made.

Specific educational and experience requirements for superintendents and principals are not available, but special training is available for these positions resulting in the issuance of a certificate which it is assumed many of them hold.

General

The comparisons do not include any fringe benefits. In the case of the three colleges these benefits amount to approximately 10% of the nine months salary. The only fringe benefits provided by North Carolina to the public school teachers are social security and retirement.

In comparing ministers' salaries it should be noted that "salary" includes travel allowances and no provision is made for the minister's out-of-pocket or travel expenses, excluding mileage between his home and the church, necessary in the performance of his duties.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING BOARD OF MANAGERS

The North Carolina Pastors' School represents a long-standing commitment to the continuing education of the ministers of both the North Carolina and the Western North Carolina Conferences. Responsibility for the Pastors' School, together with the Christian Convocation, has been shared jointly by the Conferences and the Divinity School of Duke University. The management responsibilities of the two Conferences has been assigned to the Pastors' School Board of Managers made up of representatives elected by each Conference upon nomination by the Boards of Education and Missions with additional representation from the Board of the Ministry.

In order to define this activity as an enterprise in continuing education, be it resolved that the responsibility for nominations be assigned to the respective Committee on Continuing Education in each Conference. The Board of Managers shall henceforth be made up of eight representatives from each Conference, divided into four classes, and elected for terms of four years. In addition to the representatives from the two Annual Conferences, the following shall be ex-officio members: The Dean of the Divinity School, the Chairman of the standing committee of Continuing Education of the Divinity School, and the Director of the Pastors' School. Present members of the Board of Managers will continue to serve until their terms expire.

Be it further resolved that the (or Western) North Carolina Conference looks with favor upon the incorporation of the North Carolina Pastors' School into the over-all program of Continuing Education under the leadership and guidance of the North Carolina United Methodist Commission on Continuing Education for Ministers.

RESOLUTION CONCERNING FUND FOR RECONCILIATION

Whereas, the General Conference adopted as the Quadrennial Emphasis, 1968-1972, A New Church for a New World, and recommended raising a special fund to be known as the Fund for Reconciliation in the amount of not less than $20,000,000; and

Whereas, 50 per cent of the amount raised is to be retained by each episcopal area, and 50 per cent is to be placed with the treasurer of the Council on World Service and Finance to be used at the direction of the Council of Bishops and the special Quadrennial Emphasis Committee for meeting emergency needs growing out of the crisis in the United States as well as for like emergency needs related to the mission of the church overseas; and

Whereas, approximately $10,000,000 of this has been raised and paid, with approximately $6,000,000 additional pledged, leaving an amount of $4,000,000 of new giving needed to achieve the $20,000,000 goal;

Be it resolved, that the North Carolina Annual Conference reaffirm its participation in and support for the Fund for Reconciliation, and through its members and congregations seek to raise its fair share before the General Conference in Atlanta;

And, further, that it will in addition to other processes undergird its commitment by the following:

1. Urging individuals who have pledged to the Fund to pay their pledges in full in the 1971-1972 Conference year.
2. Urging that through the good offices of Bishop William R. Cannon and the District Superintendents, the claims of the Fund be brought to the attention of each Charge Conference, and the first District Ministers' meeting of the fall with the purpose of involving every congregation in the support of the Fund.
3. And in support of this need, requesting each church to set aside a special period during the fall of 1971 for cultivation of this interest in each local church.
4. Going on record as an Annual Conference in support of the Conference/Area Quadrennial Emphasis Committee in its efforts to assist the United Methodist Church to fulfill its commitment in this quadrennium to the Fund for Reconciliation.
5. And, finally, reaffirming wholeheartedly its commitment to reconciliation as the mission of the church in the world, and its support of the Quadrennial Emphasis, A New Church for a New World.

RESOLUTION OF APPRECIATION TO METHODIST COLLEGE AND TO THE PASTORS AND LAYMEN OF THE FAYETTEVILLE DISTRICT

From the moment the welcome was extended to the delegates of this one hundred forty-sixth session of the North Carolina Annual Conference, we have recognized with appreciation and pleasure the excellent planning and preparation that has resulted in our comfort, convenience, enjoyment and enrichment. The hospitality has been splendid!

We feel obligated, indeed privileged, to express in behalf of the delegates and visitors to this Conference our gratitude to the following:

Dr. L. Stacy Weaver, President, Methodist College, for his making available the facilities of this fine college; Dr. Graham S. Eubank, Host District Superintendent, for coordinating the practical needs of this assembly with the resources of the Fayetteville District; Reverend William P. Lowdermilk, for his exceptional service in meeting the multitudinous demands upon his time and energy as Chairman of the Committee on Local Arrangements. Also, attention is due the staff and technicians of Methodist College and to the pastors and laymen of the Fayetteville District who have aided us by working long and late.

Certainly we wish to recognize the contribution of our ushers, our tellers and pages, our musicians and the many other helpers who shared their talents. We wish to thank the Coca-Cola Company, those who provided the cookies, and those responsible for the pretty flowers. The food, as usual at Methodist College, has been delicious, attractive, and abundant.

We would be remiss if we failed to recognize with appreciation the inspiration our speakers brought to us and the tremendous part our Bishop, William R. Cannon, contributed in presiding over the sessions of the Conference with efficiency, empathy, and genuine humor.

This has been a memorable Conference and we say "thank you" to everyone who helped to make it so, including the secretarial staff.

Therefore, be it resolved that we of the North Carolina Annual Conference now and in this manner express our sincere gratitude.

REPORT ON EXAMINATION

For the 1970-71 Conference Year Ended

MAY 31, 1971

To the Commission on World Service and Finance,

North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The United Methodist Church
Raleigh, North Carolina

We have examined the books and financial records of Charles K. McAdams, Treasurer, North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The United Methodist Church, as of May 31, 1971 for the 1970-71 Conference Year then ended. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheet and related statement of income, expense or distribution and fund balance present fairly the financial position of Charles K. McAdams, Treasurer, North Carolina Conference, S.E.J., of The United Methodist Church, at May 31, 1971 and the results of its operations for the 1970-71 Conference Year then ended, in conformity with accounting principles of the Conference applied on a basis consistent with that of the previous year.

ACCOUNTANTS' COMMENTS RELATING TO CERTAIN AUDITING PROCEDURES

The scope of our examination is contained in our opening letter. Certain features of the examination are set forth below.

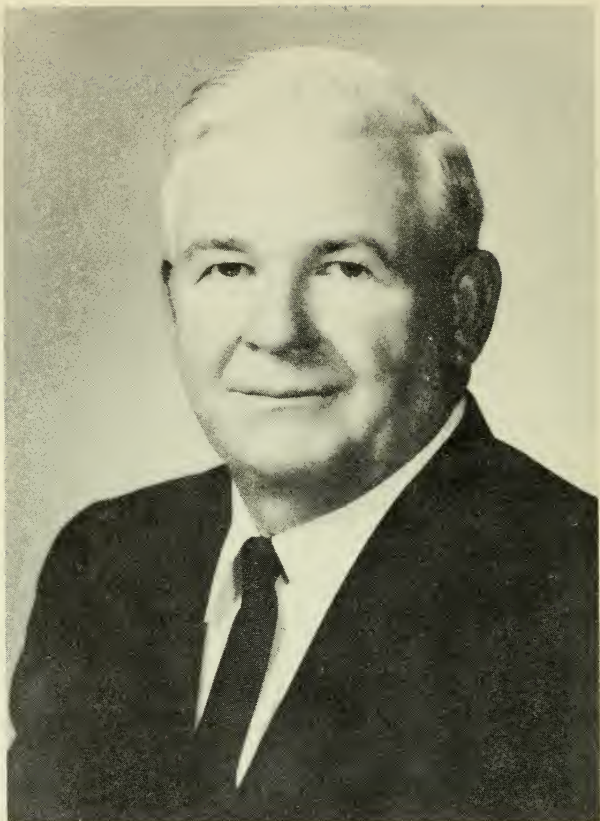

Cash on deposit was confirmed directly with the banks. Cash receipts were traced to their subsequent deposit in the bank on a test basis, and disbursements were verified by test examination of cancelled checks and paid invoices or authorizations. Income from charges, as shown by the Treasurer's records, was confirmed directly with the pastors, and minor differences reported to us as of the date of this report were adjusted or satisfactorily explained.

Distribution of income from charges was audited by reference to the report of the Commission on World Service and Finance for the 1970 and 1971 sessions of the Annual Conference and by reference to proper authorizations from the various boards of the Conference.

Investments of the Treasurer and of the various boards and funds were either inspected or, if held by an outside agent, confirmed by direct confirmation during the course of our examination.

Cash receipts in transit represent 1970-71 collections received by the Treasurer subsequent to the balance sheet date and were set up from deposits in the bank accounts. Accounts and apportionments payable were set up from disbursements subsequent to the balance sheet date and by reference to proper authorization for the distribution of 1970-71 collections.

Our examination of other assets—Board of Missions Inc.—included the inspection of documents supporting disbursements and verification of the balances by direct correspondence with the churches on a test basis.

STATISTICAL TABLES

Compiled and Edited by

D. D. TRAYNHAM, Conference Statistician

Note: An explanation of the numbering system:

The charge number for stations or circuits continues in use as heretofore and is subject to change when any change in a name or alignment affects the alphabetical listing.

The new CHURCH numbers have been assigned to all local churches permanently for the benefit of persons doing research. The letters indicate the county (by abbreviation) in which the church is located. The figures are the church number within its county.
